Distinguished Prof Award Announced

Dr. Irwin Sanders Given Annual Honor

Dr. Irwin T. Sanders, head of the Department of Zoology, has been chosen by his colleagues as the "Distinguished Professor of the Year in the College of Arts and Sciences." It was announced by Prof. John Kupper, chairman of the election committee.

Open to all members of the Arts and Sciences faculty holding the rank of assistant professor or above, the award is made annually as a means of recognizing outstanding achievement. Names of 143 eligible candidates appeared on the ballot.

Dr. Sanders said that the theme of his work would be, "Rural social changes behind the iron curtain. He plans to gather material for the subject in Washington, D. C., where he will work with people who are acquainted with conditions in the Communist zone. The subject matter is to be taken from U. S. and foreign press.

GI's Affected By Bill Law

Veterans of World War II were reminded today that several important GI Bill education and training procedures go into effect Nov. 1.

The new procedures, made necessary by passage of Public Law 268 which has amended and revised the GI Bill, will affect veterans who have had GI Bill training and who want additional training, as well as veterans who plan to apply for GI Bill training.

Beginning Nov. 1, a veteran who has completed or discontinued a GI Bill course, and who wishes to take another course in a different general field, will be required to undergo aptitude and guidance to determine his aptitudes and needs for the new course.

Another change effective Nov. 1 is that a veteran applying for an original or supplemental certificate of eligibility for GI Bill training will be required to list on his application the name of the course and school to which he is applying.

Charlotte Garr Named Head Of 1949 WSSF Campaign

Charlotte Garr has been named chairman of the World Student Service Fund drive to begin on campus Tuesday, November 15.

Funds collected in the five day campaign will be used to provide food, clothing, medical aid, books, and housing for European students.

Other leaders in the drive are Margaret Wilson, Shelby Darbishire, Russ Ferguson, Gloria Eschburt, Walter Roy, Joan Kavanagh, Bill McCowan, and Virginia Cunningham.

Jo Daugherty is secretary for the drive and Ken Elvins and Ken Elvins, co-publicity chairman. The drive will begin with a rally in the SUB Ballroom and end with a collection at the half of the tennis courts.

Uglys Keep Pencils Sharp

Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, has formed plans to install pencil sharpeners in each University building with funds from last year's Ugly Man Contest.

Tom Smith, in charge of the special service committee, said that plans were completed to furnish each building with the sharpeners as a "service to the campus."

Campus organizations wishing pictures in the yearbook should return their contracts as soon as possible. The organization is also making plans to provide all residence halls, sororities, and fraternities with printed social calendars.

The service fraternity will hold its second Ugly Man Contest in December to accumulate funds to sponsor service projects. Russ Stivers, Kappa Sigma, was last year's winner of the male popularity contest.

Kernel News Editor Undergoes Operation

Miss Nell Blair, Kentucky Kernel news editor, was admitted to Good Samaritan Hospital Saturday for an appendectomy.

Blair is convalescing this week at the University infirmary. Her duties as news editor are being handled by Rosemary Hilling and Bill Mansfield, assistant news editors, during her illness.

Value Manuscripts Must Be Ready By Thanksgiving

Manuscripts for Vase, magazine published by Chi Delta Phi, literary honorary, must be submitted to Dr. Jane Haselden at the dean of women's office or to Virginia Henry, U. P. O. box 994 before Thanksgiving.

Date and Place Announced For German Reading Exam

A reading exam in German will be given Wednesday, January 4, 1950, at 2 p.m. in room 302, Miller Hall. The exam is required for a graduate degree in German.

Not Responsible For Loss

Winning compositions will be returned immediately after the performance. The fraternity and its judges will use every care in protecting the submitted manuscripts while they are in their possession.

SGA Votes On Budget, Two New Resolutions

State Research Foundation Aids Many National Industries

Kentucky Research Foundation, an affiliate of UK, may be a powerful factor in Kentucky's continued economic development.

Accommodated as a shoestring organization a little more than four years ago, the Foundation has grown into an $80,000 research agency.

These projects call for studies leading to the evaluation of aircraft lubricating oils, elimination of lead deposits in aircraft engines, improved exhaust valves for aircraft engines, and development of a gas turbine screen that will stop combat debris during flight at high speeds.

Membership of the Kentucky Research Foundation includes all members of the UK Board of Trustees and all members of the Foundation's Board of Directors. In addition there may be included a maximum of 30 persons elected to membership by the board of directors.

Kentuckians, too, benefit from the research project. From several research contracts administered by the Foundation, an inexpensive, dual power plant, developed at the UK Aeronautical Research Laboratory, is expected to prove highly valuable to operators of small aircraft.

Several other Kentucky industries have established scholarship funds that are operated under the direct supervision of the Foundation, but as yet no state concerns have turned to the Foundation for research assistance.

In the past year, UK scientists have worked on nine other research projects in connection with the power plant assignment. These include a contract from the U. S. Army Signal Corps for the study by university chemists of organic and inorganic solutes over a temperature range from minus 70 degrees to plus 60 degrees Centigrade; a contract from the Steel

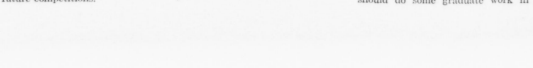

Notary Service Offered For Absentee Ballots. Absentee ballots will be mailed out this week to students who applied for them previously in the election. They must be returned to the county clerk of the county in which the student is registered to vote before Nov. 8.

Band To Parade At Xavier Game. The University's marching band will journey to Cincinnati Saturday to participate in the half time activities at the Kentucky-Xavier game. This will be the first trip for the band this year.

Card Replaces Beer On Advisory Board. Dr. Dana G. Card has been elected to the Faculty Advisory Board of Alpha Zeta, agricultural honorary fraternity.

Independents May Nominate Kentucky Beauty Queen. Any independent organization, group or person desiring to enter an independent beauty queen contest should submit the name of the proposed candidate to the K. K. K. office by 3 p.m. Tuesday.

Participants In UK Art Seminar Believe Modern Desire Merely Self-Satisfaction. Belief that college training is helpful in the training of artists was advanced by James Lechay, art instructor, and Ulffert Wilke, who holds the same position at the University of Louisville. This idea was set forth in the last UK Seminar in Art.

James Lechay (pointing) and Ulffert Wilke (to the right of Lechay), prominent American artists, lead an Art Seminar discussion with Professor Rannels (left).

New V.A. Regulations On GI Entitlement

According to new regulations received from the Veterans Administration, no veteran may withdraw from training between semesters in order to save his entitlement. If he should withdraw at the end of the present term and then attend the next succeeding term, the VA will be required to reinitiate his training status from the date it was terminated.

UK Coeds On The Look-Downy Men Will Be Took

It shored was a struggle getting Pa to let me come to the University of Kentucky. You see, Pa sorts things that a girl should settle down and get married. Since we live so far back in the hills, well, he just didn't want to let me go.

Students Of Three States May Enter Phi Mu Alpha Music Writing Contest

Phi Mu Alpha music honorary fraternity, has announced the opening of its first annual music composition contest. The purpose of the contest is to advance the cause of music in America through the encouragement of original compositions by college students.

Chamber Gets New Members

The membership of the University Chamber of Commerce has been doubled in the current membership drive.

Participants In UK Art Seminar Believe Modern Desire Merely Self-Satisfaction

Belief that college training is helpful in the training of artists was advanced by James Lechay, art instructor, and Ulffert Wilke, who holds the same position at the University of Louisville. This idea was set forth in the last UK Seminar in Art.

"Cheek Two"

thought the proposition through is one for improving the state. No sick man would submit to a pre-med student if a practicing physician were at hand. No business enterprise wants "scabs" when competent workers can possibly be hired. The state of Kentucky should not be forced to accept lazy politicians when capable administrators and skilled officials are available. We cannot hope to have a greater state with a government of "scabs".

er of the proceeds of the tag sale is earmarked for other projects of benefit to the University. The circle is building this fund at the present time until it is sufficiently large to finance a worthwhile project. Last spring ODK made a request in the Kernel for suggestions for a project from the student body and I will take this opportunity to make the same request to aid ODK in selecting a worthwhile project.

Schools And 'Scabs'

No state official of Kentucky can legally be paid more than $425 per year above the average wage of the engineers, firemen, conductors, brakemen, etc., of America's Class A railroads. According to the 1949 edition of the railroad yearbook, these men averaged $4,575 in wages for 1948. Since this is an average figure, it is reasonable to believe that some of them were paid as much or more than any state judge or college president in Kentucky.

We do not propose that they should be paid less, or that bricklayers, carpenters, plumbers and electricians should receive lower wages. Working 40 hours a week at $2.50 an hour (not an unusual wage) these men would make $6,200 a year.

The well-publicized salary-limit amendment to the state constitution will be presented to the voters in Tuesday's election. Another constitutional amendment, less publicized but almost as vital, would enable the state government to distribute 25 per cent of the educational equalization fund among the communities which need it most.

It is safe to say that the outcome of these non-partisan issues is more important than any race for offices which will appear on the ballots. Progress in Kentucky must come from within the state, and the result of this particular vote will be looked upon in other states as a measure of the intelligence of our people.

When a strike of unionized crafts is broken by men willing to work for less, union members scornfully call these imported workers "scabs". Any time there is a work stoppage, were it not for the union's strength or the ethics of the employer, more inexperienced, unskilled labor than the project could possibly employ would immediately volunteer and take the vacant jobs.

We cannot be hoodwinked by the shortlisted letter-writers and pamphleteers who scream about the constant availability of men to fill state offices. Any department store or filling station could fill its highest positions with grade students at practically any wage. Instead, they invariably go to the highest price possible to get the best returns from their business through efficient workers.

The honor and prestige of the high offices might well invite capable men to fill them. But there is no more honor in being a lower-level clerk for the state than being a trusted employee of private industry, and it is much less secure and much more underpaid. In these lower divisions the pinch is felt worst.

Many Kernel readers are eligible to vote Tuesday. Though it may seem ridiculous to many, it is still true that such a number of votes may decide the issue. Every vote of those who have really

Letters To The Editor

ODK's Answer
The Kernel:
As a member of ODK I would like to take this opportunity to answer the letter written by a student signed "Curious" appearing in last week's Kernel by answering his questions and straightening out his misunderstandings concerning the ODK tag sales on this campus.

First of all ODK does not spend the proceeds of tag sales on a big party at the end of the academic year as was inferred by "Curious". The money that is collected from the tag sale is turned in to Professor R. D. McIntire of the Commerce College who is faculty secretary-treasurer of Nu Circle of ODK. He then deposits it with the University and it cannot be spent for any purpose other than a project for the benefit of the University, passed upon by the joint student-faculty membership of ODK.

In addition I will take this opportunity to point out to "Curious" a few of the projects which were financed through sale of ODK tags in the past.

ODK was the instigating force behind the movement for construction of a Student Union Building several years ago, the fund being started through proceeds of tag sales. Later when there was a recognized need for additional athletic facilities in a swimming pool and a field house, the tag sale was directed toward that purpose. Other projects in more recent years include:

1. The placing of metal signs leading into Lexington saying, "Lexington, Home of the University of Kentucky".
2. The presentation to the University of the ODK mural which was painted by an ODK and is hanging in Room 206 in the SUB.
3. The financing of the All Campus Sing which originally was handled exclusively by ODK and is now handled jointly by Phi Beta, Mortar Board, Phi Mu Alpha and ODK and financed by proceeds of the tag sales for ODK's part.

4. The band has been using on a number of trips with the aid of contributions from ODK, the most recent one being the SEC basketball tournament in 1948.

continue to be of service to the University and the student body and this is made possible through the support and interest of students on the campus.

Ned Breathitt
President, ODK
Symphonic Band
Dear Editor:
Pertaining to that so-called "Best Band in Dixie" or otherwise known as the "Philharmonic Orchestra," we hope it has gained a few pointers from the spirited Cincinnati "Band."

The Cincinnati band played music that pertained to football games, not to Carnegie Hall. That is, poppy marches and not melancholy pieces such as "Indian Love Call." We want to congratulate the Cincinnati band for its continuous making in the spirit of the football game. Every change of downs was spirited with the co-operating band and cheerleaders. They not only inspired their team but also the crowd.

Could it be that Cincinnati didn't have a fanfare? Could it be that they know more than two marches? And the Missouri Waltz is not a march!

"I SHALL RETURN" vowed Fred Stromberg (barely visible behind the wheel) as he left for the Xavier game this week... but outlanders were giving 20 to 1 odds that he wouldn't even make it to Cincinnati. Fred and his passengers were the first party of many expected to migrate to Cincinnati for the game.

The Spice of Life

Mucho fun at the "spook" parties. The Kappa Sigma, Sigma Nu, Lambda Chi and Phi Taus haunted it up right. Costumes were so gay. Marilyn Haley and Billy Gant, she was quite a little devil and Bill she wasn't any angel. Too bad there aren't more like 'em.

George Witt looked cute in his little short pants. Perfect fit!

That alluring witch in the Kay Sig front yard caught the eye of many a passer by. Wish they all looked like that! Dot Rhea provided quite a contrast.

Fred Howard was all ready to go in bonnet and diaper. "Chief" Edder looked "sevens" 'em.

The Phi Tau Blood Mabel's grass skirt Friday night. The matches flew hot and heavy.

Good Coney game but the parties after were better. The SAE's out-did themselves at Jovial. There were enough Phi Alpha boys from UK and UK to fill the whole dance floor. That's the way to enjoy it!

Kentuckian Hotel had a later party. Bob Nave walked down in his pajamas with Bill Eustace and Paul Dillingham. None of 'em could understand why the last wouldn't allow them to take a short cut down the fire escape.

The stumping Greeks had quite a lido at the Boonesboro Boat Club. Jack Malone and Buzzy Holder thought they were welcome in the lady's powder room but the management thought otherwise.

Buzzy has discovered that playing both ends against the middle may cause one to lose both ends. That's mean Dees and Mayer. Ask Buz for further info.

Dutch Hurlin's ukulele revived an interest in hill-billy music. A little jug of corn helped the party considerably.

The "Moon" was down at the Kretschman Hotel.

Quoting Bill Benjamin while being thrown in the Sigma Chi shower: "Cut out this college stuff! I've been pinned too many times. John Campbell meanted the loss of his beverage Friday night. Nothing can get behind that Kap Sig wall! Bucky Ford's Halloween party was a goodie.

Borsett and Quikley are forming a new couple for the campus.

Quite a Sigma Nu hayride. Carolyn Critchlow ran wild and Paul and Carolyn Porter made quite a hit with their jug of chocolate milk. What is this thing called "Jax"??

Emmy Lou Patrick has really bounced back into circulation!

Chenny "Grogged" Everett, Joe Joyner, and Bob Bontier are a couple of the hopefuls.

Loretta Carlton's date with Mona Hackett provided to be a "freem" up after she had a snatched conversation with old flame, Dust Mattingly.

Lurina Bland and Midge Garrett had everyone in the grill all sewed about their marriage in the family survey. Gauss that shows how interested companies are in perspective matrimony.

Joan Pritchard had motored through the KA chapter. Wonder there she'll steer for next?

Bob Brumfield is absolutely the biggest smettee on this campus. Some gals just don't know what they are missing.

Ernest, Judy Blood and Jim Sander; Virginia Meyer and Crusty Christ; Shirley Porter and George Williams; John Vinez and Lil Kelly; Dorothy Allen and William Bowman; Curtis Richardson and Bill Linville.

Carl Warren is very interested in 500 Roosevelt Street. She must be some gal to keep him that attracted!

We're wishing Joe Patterson a quick recovery. Jack Moore misses you too!

Bernard Burcham asked a gal at Sayre for a date when he was pinned and she gave it to him. Now can't he see a grown man girl, who has a thing to do with him. Who can understand a woman's???

Loisua Williams is still giving Andy Moosa a hard road to travel. Why don't you slow up a little, Louisa?

Excuse us, Gloria Bianchio and Ed Fossett are not dating. Bob Nichols, with the yellow collapsible is Gloria's current top tanker.

John Marrow texure last week's spelling has a date with Mary Julie Samuels for the Xavier game. Bet you can't do this will rethink that old spark.

Jean Rudd looks awfully happy when she comes in on Sunday nights, with Eddie McParland.

Cassara of the week: This time bounced back into circulation!

Bolle Leach. How many girls can you pin at once Rolfe??

All the Chi O's are knitting socks or ties so you boys had better speak up as some are still unclashed.

Crusty Christ's comrades protected him from those capitalists at Maxxwells who expected him to pay for a steak that he didn't get to eat.

The "Friday afternoon Club" was moved to the Cardinal Restaurant at their last session but are expected to meet elsewhere from now on.

Bill Bruce is a little vague about the name of his latest gal but our goss is that his initials are R.A.F.

The main event of Saturday evening at Lexington's Madison Square Garden (the Cottage) pitted Emil Holbrook against Bill Settlemeyer but as to the winner, no decision has been made yet.

Fred Barnett keeps the lines to the Barracks buzzing for Jane LaFollette.

Thetas, don't be alarmed if you hear a dog barking around your house. It's only Rodney Beck putting in time.

Walt White and Dick Jones are still hitting it strong.

Ze Parker and Charlie "Carlo" Clark had a great time on their last Saturday night date.

The Hood Club has been organized on this campus. Peggy Hughes is Grand High Llama of the Delta chapter. Hi! mom!

Omer Tatum is still looking for a blonde girl that is crazy about her.

Charles Lee Bush has been seeing a lot of his ex-fiancee, Doris Taylor and Luviddie Mathis are no longer engaged but the dating keeps on.

Martha Ann Wilson holds her weekend dates in case Duhh Fisher comes to town. That's an interesting note.

Rev Mittendorf didn't react too well to the new team of Gregory and Lewis when she came back for the Phi Kap party.

The Phi Deltas and the KAs buried the hatchet in a party at the Rock-house. Buried it in wool alcohol that is!

Hat, where were you taking Mike Carmichael at the game?

Chenny Evert felt the blow of the bonner's foot at Jovial Saturday night.

Engaged: Pat Ennis and Bruce Davis; Doty Miller and Ken Sluiter; Carolyn Arnold and Bill Giltner.

Two has loads from Cindy found their way to the P K A party at Sleazy Hollow after the game.

Our dearest apologies, Bobby Power and Art Ideman have been married since early September. We offer late congratulations.

Queries are being made as to the cause of that terrific explosion in the Alpha Sig house.

The Phi Sig are chanting, "I hate to see a grown man girl, when they talk about Dave Bentley. What's the matter Dave? Is Peggy More the cause of those king-sized tears?"

Sally Ramsay is never in when Tommy Mathis calls. Maybe the arid will change his luck.

Moe Lester is strictly Platonic with Dudley Saunders. She has the oldest relations with her men folk.

Leta Sherman's grill hours—any time between eight and five when she doesn't decide to go to class.

A certain Alpha Xi has her eyes on Jean Van Meter's current flame. She seems to think he looks like Robert Mitchell.

It's Charlie Yagan of SAE and Phi Tau that is pinned to a Hop top gal.

The rumored that the Sociology assignment about the Eskimo Kiss is now being studied in the grill.

Mary Lou Caywood is one of the cutest gals to ever hit this U.K. soil. Why don't you give some of those droolers a break?

Coke Witt is making hay while the sunshines in an Alpha Gamma room moe. Hey you reporters, let's have some more facts on these situations.

Some dates of Alpha Sigma Phi are wondering if that car really did get stuck at the Rock House last Saturday eve. After an hour, no one cared.

Card Chambers has really made a hit with the Sig Eps. Byron Romanovitch particular.

Bruce Cotton still prefers Georgetown gals to our U.K. belles but he won't bring them around to prove his point.

Rip Wiggins is spending most of his time with Frankie Jones.

We wonder if there is any girl in Park Hall that Dick Crafton doesn't know.

The November the fourth and today Jim Gully's gal returns from Europe. Bet he is the happiest kop in the ACE house.

Joe Crafton and Sue Peak both agree that the moon is much prettier at U.K. than at Gulf Park.

Sue Cooper and Jess Hollinger are a model couple. Things are going just fine this year!

Sadie Hawkins' week begins on Monday. You fellas had better watch out. Those gals are really charming at the bit. Cute little Nancy Brown is bound to catch more than an LH Amber.

Sue Carolyn Arnold and Bill Giltner are really rushing things. Pinned one week and engaged the next. These freshmen really are going to town.

Lots O'Brien should learn to drop her purse in dryer places. Jack Harvard got a bang out of this catastrophe.

The Phi Deltas sure caught the sooping on Halloween. The Kappa Thetas showed 'em a hard way to go.

CONN-COX 'UNS

By Earl Conn and Bob Cox
We are in a mathematical mood this week.

Albert: "Darling, let's get married."
She: "Why?"

"A motorist was approaching a railroad crossing 35 miles an hour.

"Then there's the one about the UK law student who heard of the death of the junior partner of a law firm.

"How about taking your partner's place?" he asked.

"It's all right with me," replied the senior partner.

"A missionary member approached a campus character the other day and said, 'We are having a raffle for a poor widow.

"Wife: 'Do you know what day it is?' Just 25 years ago today we became engaged."

"Absorb Minded Professor: 'Why didn't you remind me of it before, kind?' It's high time that we got married."

"And there's the clerk who issues pistol permits in Tennessee. He was a little tired when one of the applicants got tired of waiting and rushed out muttering about having to use a knife instead."

"Frosh at tea: 'Who's the attractive lady over there?'"

"Doctor: 'Did the medicine I gave you wife straighten her out?'"

"Over in the law college they say there are two kinds of lawyers. The ones who know the law and those who know the judge."

"Absent Minded Professor: 'Why didn't you remind me of it before, kind?'"

"Hotel guest (phoning from room): Is this the desk clerk?"

"The greatest achievement in most girls' life is to make a rich guy stop, look and loosen."

"Frosh: 'Who's the attractive lady over there?'"

"This type woman should not be tolerated too strongly though. After all, she's a woman after ALL."

Yugoslavia. In 1948 he was a social science analyst for the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, U. S. Department of Agriculture, and senior social scientist in the Office of Foreign Agricultural Relations, U.S.D.A. The following summer, he was appointed Extension Service consultant of the U.S.D.A.

Dr. Sanders last year served as rural welfare consultant in the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization. A member of the Committee for Kentucky since 1945, he now is one of its directors.

He is also a director of the Lexington Family Service Society, vice president of the Fayette County Council on Social Planning, chairman of the Southern Sociological Society's section on the Ozark-Appalachian region, and contributing editor of "Sociometry," a professional publication.

The UK sociology head also is a member of the American Association of University Professors, Phi Beta Kappa, American Sociometric Association, American Sociological Society, Society for Applied Anthropology, and the Kentucky Association of Social Welfare. During the 1948-49 academic year, he served as president of the UK chapter of A.A.U.P. and the University Research Club. He is also a member of the Kentucky Alpha chapter of the Southern Regional Council and vice president of Kentucky Alpha chapter of Phi Beta Kappa.

Dr. Sanders' writings have dealt primarily with community organization, family relationships, social welfare, and various phases of Balkan society. In addition to numerous book reviews, bulletins, and articles about the Balkans published in professional journals, he has contributed articles or chapters to such books as "Farmers of the World," "Slavic Encyclopedia," "Sociological Foundations of Education," "Kentucky, Design for Her Future."

His most recent book, "Balkan Village," was published this year by the University of Kentucky Press, while another, "Making Good Communist Better," now is scheduled for early publication.

Previous winners of the College of Arts and Sciences Distinguished Professor award were Grant C. Knight, professor of English, 1944-45; Dr. Amny Vandenberg, dean of the Department of Political Science, 1945-46; Dr. Thomas D. Clark, head of the Department of History, 1946-47; Dr. William S. Webb, head of the Department of Psychology and Anthropology, 1947-48; and Prof. John Kuiper, head of the Department of Philosophy, 1948-49.

GOLDEN TOUCH—The golden touch to really complete and compliment a good looking suit is a right tie. . . . Choose your neckwear carefully as to color and design. Don't just hang any old thing around your neck. It may prove to be a noose! I just received some very handsome and unusual patterns. . . . Perhaps you will find just the one you have been looking for. (I hope.)

NIFTY—Is the word for these long sleeved, sweater styled, T-shirts with the short collar. By BERMA—They are woven in the Argyle design of various colors and go perfectly with slacks and sport jackets. . . . Latch on to one of them and love wear and tear on your good dress shirts.

I PROMISED—Several guys that I would let them know when I got some more of those well covered cloth ZAX SLAX in — (the ones I had went out as fast as beer at a stag party) — and am taking this medium to let you know I am more, and if you need or want a pair. Don't wait too long or they'll be gone.

LULLABY — You won't need a lullaby to put you to sleep if you try a pair of these comfortable 100% nylon pajamas by REES. Since then they are dry in no time and require NO IRONING.

LULLABY NO. 2 — Bill Jones (of orchestra fame) had better learn one for these long winter nights of floor-making. Jeanne (his beautiful wife) just presented him with a baby boy. Congrat's match.

Clinic Held Here Designed To Assist Speech Teachers

Approximately 100 Kentucky speech teachers are expected to attend the University of Kentucky's third annual speech clinic to be held on the UK campus Nov. 11-12. Miss Chloe Gifford, clinic director, announced.

Though designed to assist all speech teachers, the program has been directed primarily, Miss Gifford said, to benefit teachers who have been assigned to teach speech despite lack of formal training in the field.

Principal clinic speakers will include Dr. Bower Ahy, director of forums at the University of Missouri and editor of the Debate Handbook, Ken Meeker, of Radio Station WHAS, Louisville and Dr. Herman

Kernels Of The Past

By Frances West

Five Years Ago

Plans were being made for the annual Sadie Hawkins Day Chase. Panhelnic held its annual banquet in the Regency Room of the SUB. The theme of the program, the decorations, and the entertainment were Greek.

Dr. W. D. Funkhouser, dean of the Graduate School, was elected president of the Conference of the Deans of Southern Graduate Schools at the annual meeting of that organization.

SGA sponsored its sixth war loan drive with their goal set at $70,000.

Ted Myer succeeded Bill Costel as president of Keys, sophomore men's honorary fraternity. Louise McColtrick was elected queen of the fall festival by the College of Agriculture men.

The Kentucky Kernel carried out four of its articles.

Annelie Kelley was elected the most popular girl at UK in the annual popularity contest.

Fifteen thousand spectators witnessed the opening of the new football stadium. Judge R. C. Stoll, member of the Board of Trustees for 25 years, accepted for the University.

French Album Is Presented

Congressional Representative Tom Underwood accepted an album from the children of France to the children of Kentucky with a gracious "Merci beaucoup." In ceremonies highlighting the state's meeting of foreign language teachers held here Saturday.

The album was one of 48 sent to the United States by French children as a "Thank you" for gifts to the French Friendship Train. It contains drawings of France, compositions by French children, and records of French folk music.

It will be circulated to Kentucky schools for observation and study and will then be given to the State Historical Society at Frankfort.

The foreign language teachers' meeting was part of Kentucky's twenty-sixth annual Education Conference.

Eastern Dean Elected

Dr. W. J. Moore, dean of Eastern State College, was elected president of the Kentucky Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools at its annual meeting held last Friday and Saturday at the University.

Dr. J. Oppenheimer, dean of the University of Louisville College of Education, was elected vice president at the meeting, and Dr. L. E. Meace, professor of education at UK, was reelected secretary-treasurer.

At a meeting Friday Dr. Moore told the members that all proposals for improving the state's public school systems are doomed to failure until Kentuckians stop thinking of school finance in terms of "chicken feed."

In advocating increased state appropriations, Dr. Moore reminded the educators that Kentucky now ranks below all Southern states except Virginia in the percentage of total public revenue derived from state sources.

Dr. Skiles Presents Louisville Address

Dr. Jonah W. D. Skiles, head of the Department of Ancient Languages at UK, will speak at the Fifth District Educational Association at Louisville, in the Department of English and Foreign Languages, Friday afternoon.

The topic of Dr. Skiles' talk will be "Foreign Languages in a Changing Educational World."

Cups Awarded For Best Women's Rooms

The annual campus-wide room judging contest for women's resident units will be held on the afternoon of Nov. 13.

The competition is sponsored by the house presidents' council which will award a cup to the winner of both the sorority and dormitory divisions of the contest.

Rooms will be judged on the basis of attractiveness, durability, suitability and originality. The rooms will be open for inspection by visitors.

Brazilian Student Leads Cosmopolitans

Other officers are Pierson Oliver, Columbia, vice-president; Peggy Johnson, U. S. A. secretary; and Marius Lubbers, Holland, treasurer.

Baggary's Band To Play In Cincy After The Game

By Wilfred Lott

The music of Tinker Baggary and his orchestra will be heard up Cincinnati way tomorrow night following the Kentucky-Xavier game. Cincinnati's popular Tugger Club is featuring the UK musician and his 11-piece organization.

This is the band's third year of performing. In the fall of 1947 Baggary and Bill Farra formed the band to provide dance music for campus functions. Last spring the red-jacketed orchestra was featured at the Crystal Ballroom at Buckeye Lake Park Ohio for a week's engagement.

Since they first organized, another trumpet has been added to the brass section. The band now has four trumpets. Co-partner Bill Farra is included in the section.

Tinker, a junior and music major, fronts his band with his saxophone. Five other saxes are also featured in the arrangements. The band leader asserts that the sax sextette is new in this part of the state.

The band places emphasis on a smooth, danceable, yet modern, style of music. To give dancers a wide variety of musical expression, Tinker includes some BOP arrangements in his numbers. John Heaton, Bill MacKaeil, Bill Peayhouse and Baggary arrange for the orchestra.

A well balanced instrumentation is found in the band. Besides the six saxophones and four trumpets, three trombones, drums, a bass and piano are included. The band also has a vocalist.

Twelve of the bandmen, including Baggary and Farra, are University students. Bill Fouze, Gerald LeMasters, Warren Lutz, Don Stone, Custer Raley, Cline Duff, Gene Sherin, Frank Duff, and Danny Quintermos from the UK ensemble.

Sadie Hawkins' Dance in the SUB that's been held by them keeps followers. It'll be the first dance I ever been to, and if you feel like I do, you shore will want a special feller for this shindig.

Course the girls have to pay all the bills and go fetch the boys and take them home. But my land, that ain't much if you're gettin' a man in the deal! The way Pa and I finger it there would be less old moids if Sadie Hawkins' Week lasted a few months longer.

This is our hay-day girls. Let's not let our Pappys down. We don't want to be on their hands for the rest of our natural lives.

Officers Elected By Frosh Honorary

Dr. Willard N. Hogan, 34, of Lexington and Berea, has gone to New Palz, New York, to accept a position as professor of International Organization at New Palz State Teachers College.

Dr. Hogan has been an associate professor of history and political science at Berea College since 1945. He will supervise the United Nations Information Center at New Palz, which is located 75 miles north of New York City.

Last summer he taught at the University of West Virginia.

Lt. Col. Ernest L. James, 35, formerly of Bardonia, was graduated with the 1948-49 regular class of the Command and General Staff College at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., and has been sent to the European Command, Bremerhaven, Germany.

He received his commission in May 1935, the year in which he was graduated from the University, and was ordered to active duty with the Army in January, 1942. He served overseas during World War II in the E.T.O.

Billy Beatty Jones, 48, of Glasgow, and Jack Everole, 48, of Louisville, are editor and associate editor respectively of the newly revived Glasgow Morning Sun, which has appeared as Glasgow's first daily paper.

The original Morning Sun was published by William B. Jones, Sr., and Carlton C. Collins of Glasgow and "folded" in 1917 when the publishers were called to military service.

While at the University Jones worked on the Lexington Leader. Everole has served as news editor for Radio Station WFLK Lexington and Versailles. Both are World War II veterans.

Helen V. Bowman, 49, of Valley Station, has been appointed a section and master, certified public accountant in Louisville.

A graduate of the University, she has had accounting experience since 1926 in Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia and Washington, D. C.

Lieutenant Bowman is now attending the two-month orientation course for women officers in the Army Medical Department at Brooke Army Medical Center, New York City.

Jack Barrowman, 40, of Lexington, is now employed at the United Nations Permanent Headquarters, New York City.

Mrs. Ben H. Collins, Louisville; Dr. James H. Collins, and Hyle Whitehead, Harlan, have been elected to the executive committee of the University of West Virginia.

Mrs. Collins will serve until June 1, 1951. Parrish until June, 1951; and Whitehead until June, 1951.

Unofficial Poll Foretells Revised State Constitution

If results of the mock election held in the SUB Wednesday are any Association conference will be held next week to discuss the constitution, and Nov. 8. Sponsored by the UK League of Women Voters, the mock election concerned proposed amendments to the Kentucky state constitution.

The first amendment would permit the State Legislature to allocate to school districts on some other basis than per capita, an amount equal to 25 per cent of its total appropriation to the common school fund.

The second amendment is a proposal to change the salary limit for public officers from $5,000 to a higher limit.

Results of the mock election were as follows:

The program was started to help the University's minor sports program as well as one deserving athlete each year.

Don Smith First Recipient Of ODK Minor Sport Award

Don Smith, Arts and Sciences freshman from Anchorage, has been awarded by the fraternity this semester Delta Kappa honorary fraternity. Ned Brechtitt, president, announced.

This is the only scholarship to be awarded by the fraternity this semester. Brechtitt said. Additional scholarships in minor sports will be made next semester.

Revenue from the sale of ODK football booster tags will go into a fund to be distributed among participants in baseball, track, golf, and tennis. One scholarship will be awarded in each sport.

Requirements for a scholarship, which is awarded only to state residents and graduates of Kentucky high schools, are divided into three parts. Qualifications include ability in sport participation, good character, and a scholastic standing of 1.0.

The committee which decides the recipient of the scholarship includes Prof. A. D. Kirwan, dean of men, Bernie Shively, athletic director, the president of ODK, and the coach of the sport. A recommendation from the student's high school coach is also needed.

ODK is also planning to give a new scholarship for swimming after the new field house pool has been finished and plans for a team have been completed. Women will be eligible for the swimming scholarship.

Sometimes I wonder. That statement, without further qualification, would warrant psychiatric investigation of my so-called "vacuumcleaner" voids. But sometimes I wonder almost as much as people wonder about me. And this day I am wondering if the University of Kentucky Radio Service could claim to be the radio station with the largest staff in Kentucky. Due to the arrival of television, the big brothers in Louisville could probably force a negative answer. Nevertheless, I wondered, and not entirely without cause.

There are more than 75 who are involved to the extent of being called staff members, and there's a whole raft of people actively engaged in programming and the like. All these characters form quite a sizeable outfit which can sport a couple of orchestras, two or three dramatic ventures a week, and a goodly number of scholastic productions.

This morning the speaker on top in Studio A in McVey Hall is WLA's program director, J. B.

Perusal Of Various Papers Shows Alert News Coverage

One of the first things we learned when we came to college was back when was the axiom that everything was not to be found in schoolbooks or classrooms. This was to be sure the most important part of it all. Almost as important, however, is the vastness of daily literature in the form of magazines, newspapers, and various forms of opinion stated by other people.

We have always found it both entertaining and educational to further our reading habits by scanning the newspapers of other colleges and the irreplaceable country weeklies. Therefore, whenever we have the opportunity—such as a rainy day or a light date night—we usually take advantage of the occasion. For instance, the other day we learned from Glennie Holton's Willba News that Mr. Holton is indeed a modest man. Mr. Holton unobtrusively admits in his mimeographed sheet published weekly at Willba, Kentucky that only intelligent people read his little effort. That is very encouraging, no doubt, to the inhabitants of the Willba area, who must own the highest collective IQ rating in these United States.

But Glennie does not stop here.

Faulconer. The time, as usual, is ten o'clock, and the topic is "Types of Radio Programs and Their Problems." All this will be condensed and delivered within an hour, and it can be considered some sort of an expose on the selection of programs in the mystic medium of broadcasting.

A recent new-comer to the WEBKY schedule is the Tuesday evening deal called Women's Whirl. As the name indicates this program is strictly for women only, but it appears to be good. Angela Schmitt is the Whirl's wheel. WEBKY Tues, 9 p.m.

Soon to be spotlighted among the stars is the forthcoming quarterly documentary series, the report on UK research labeled "From These Halls." Work on "From These Halls" began during the summer. Projects to be presented include highway research, tobacco experimentation, the heat pump, and the aerodynamics laboratory. The basic format will be a dramatic presentation of the stories behind the work of various departments and services on the campus. Sort of a "You Were There" film.

This week I feel even more inane than usual; so I'll leave you with a very curly play on words. Why do radio announcers have small hands? The answer's simple any way you look at it. Wee paws for station identification.

Unbeaten Xavier Next UK Opponent

By Kent Hollingsworth

Kentucky will meet the best football team to come out of Xavier in years, when it travels to Cincinnati tomorrow to play the undefeated Musketeers. Xavier, with seven victories to its credit, is one of the nation's leading unbeaten teams.

Despite the fine record of the little school, cold hearted statisticians figure Kentucky to run the Xavier Stadium's twenty-year anniversary ceremony with a lopsided victory before 10,000 homecoming fans.

Xavier's unblemished record, on closer scrutiny, does not look too impressive. A couple of wins over favored Dayton, a close one over Louisville, Quantico Marines, and a pair of triumphs over West Virginia Wesleyan and John Carroll stamps this team as the best of its class, but still not the calibre to give Kentucky too much of a tussle.

U.C.'s O'Malley has somewhat of a rival in the Queen City through a football. He's Xavier's senior quarterback, Bob McQuade, who com-

Intramural Sports

By Earl Conn

Two games are scheduled today in the semifinals of the Intramural Football League's tourney with the final game carded for Monday at 4 p. m. in the intramural field behind Alumni Gym.

Men's Dorm is slated to meet Kappa Sigma at 4 p. m. today on the Intramural Field while the winner of the SAE-PIKA quarterfinal game will play the winner of the Newman Club-DTD in the other semi-final contest on the University High field at 4 p. m.

The quarterfinal games between SAE-PIKA and Newman Club-DTD were played Thursday afternoon and scores are not in this week's issue.

Play in the tourney started Monday night with three games played. Sigma Nu won their first contest by defeating PEK 6-0 in one of three close games.

Pass plays accounted for both extra points. PIKA won the final first quarter game Tuesday by defeating PDT 6-0. PIKA scored the first time it had its hands on the ball in the first quarter.

The Dorm club scored its first touchdown when Ev Millman passed to Gene Allen who lacerated to Bob Butler, Butler running 30 yards for the TD. The second touchdown came on a Fred Lawson to Charles Warner pass and Lawson also accounted for the third six-pointer with a pass to Gordon Menard.

Kappa Sigma won their quarterfinal game by scoring a 7-6 overtime win over the SPE club. Sig Eps scored their touchdown on a pass from Don Spears to Clyde Spears but the pass for the extra point was no good.

Lambda Chi team 7-0. Kappa Sigma scored the winning touchdown late in the game in the fourth quarter when Jimmy Stewart passed to John Perkins in the end zone.

DisKintucky Sports Review

— By Tom Diskin, Sports Editor —

Although Halloween is over, the Wildcats had better have plenty of good tricks to play on Xavier's undefeated Musketeers. Kentucky definitely needs a convincing victory Saturday if it desires to remain in the post-season bowl picture.

Presidents Paul Bryant, after seeing X shoot down the Dayton U. Flyers, 14-0, last Sunday afternoon, stated that he believed Xavier "is as good as Georgia. They have a big, heavy line and are a strong fourth-quarter team."

The Kentucky-Xavier series shows that the Wildcats have won 10 times in the 11 encounters. XU's only triumph was in 1938, when the Musketeers upset the Cats, 26-7. One of the stand-out players in that game was Ed Kinke, now coach of Xavier.

"Silent Ed," as he is called by some Cincinnati sportswriters, made All-Ohio in '38—his final season with XU. Four years later he was head and coach at Cincy's Purday High School. From 1943 to 1946, his teams won 23, lost four and played one tie. Largely because of this he was appointed to head the Xavier eleven in '47. Kinke, a native of Mt. Pleasant, Pa., is a rabid exponent of the "T" formation.

Kinke is a familiar sight in UK's press box. He never misses an opportunity to scout the Cats. In the past three seasons, he has seen UK play almost as much as Coach Bryant. He is expected to have a stiff defense rigged up to stop Kentucky's fleet backs and Babe Parilli's passes.

Waite Hoyt, well-known Cincinnati sportscaster, was in the press box Saturday for the UK-Cincinnati conflict.

He stated that "if ever a team gained a moral victory, UC got one against Kentucky." The ex-New York Yankee pitching great added that the game reminded him of the famous Jack Sharkey-Mickey Walker prizefight many years ago.

Comparing Kentucky with Sharkey, he said that "middleweight Mickey Walker was supposed to get heavy, but in the end Walker made Sharkey look bad despite his smaller size."

Stanley Frank, well-known magazine writer, was in town last week gathering material on Coach Adolph Rupp, UK's famed basketball coach.

While speaking of Rupp, we might add that he recently piloted the College All-Stars in their game against the Minneapolis Jay Lakers in Chicago. A crowd of 15,731 saw the great George Mikan pace the pro team to a 94-88 win.

Coach Rupp stated that the reason he started Ed Ed Maxsally ahead of Alex Gross in this game was that the ex-St. Louis star had played against Mikan four times in the previous 10 days and had scored 17 points against the Lakers.

The Indianapolis Olympians-Denver Nuggets basketball game, which was broadcast over W. KY-TV yesterday, had a large student audience here on the campus. The Fabulous Five are gone from UK but certainly not forgotten.

Xavier has a great defensive player in Tito Carini, a 6-foot, 202-pounder from Steubenville, Ohio. In fact, judging from all that we have heard of him in the short time that he has been at XU, Carini is well on his way toward becoming the greatest defensive player in the school's history. He backs up the line and plays offensive center only occasionally. As a freshman, playing against the Miami yearlings, all he had was block three punts and intercept three passes.

Cincinnatians were very pleased at UC's showing against our Cats. A turn-away crowd of 300 persons attended the weekly meeting of the Bearcat Boosters Club Monday in a Cincy hotel. Here Coach Sid Gillman praised the work of practically everyone on the UC squad except the waterboy. Said The Cincinnati Post's Joe Aston "To our way of thinking the performance of the Bearcats against Kentucky stands as one of the most remarkable achievements of the season."

From Larry Shropshire's Down In Front column of last Tuesday: "Denizens of the pressbox at UK see pretty well in watching a game, despite cruel and unfair remarks to the contrary, but they are largely deaf to outside noises and the tolling occupants also have little time to watch any of the sidish features. That's why this "observer" doesn't enter into the quarrel with an opinion, but merely plays now the role of reporter.

Anyway, from more than one source over the week-end was heard complaint over something other than the drab game played by the Cats.

"Maybe the team was kinda sad," remarked one, "but it was a lot better than the students' cheering and the band."

Seems as though the band is still regarded as not bad, but there must have been more than several who looked on Saturday as a waste of time with the idea that UK's organization was somewhat outdone by the UC band. There are some who think the Kentucky band, while good in its maneuvers, might be getting too much on the arty side and doesn't beat and thump and rattle enough with the good old college rah-rah stuff, stirring up a lot of noise and spirit, and the complainers say that goes double and triple for the rooting sections.

The trouble, say some of the disappointed critics, may be that the while possibly proud enough of the team, simply aren't getting enough leading. They've been at other schools this fall and seen yell-leaders working hard throughout to keep up chanting and cheering from the stands, making so much noise the home team couldn't possibly

The MEN'S DORM team, the top favorite to win the Intramural championship next Monday, have been undefeated in this fall's competition. The latest triumph for Doc Wall's gridgers was a 27-0 win over the SIGMA NU's this Wednesday. The Dorm players are (front row) Carpenter, Auro, Xaser, Wall, stein, Pitard, Bather, Glass and Turner. Back row, Hoffman, Obery, Hillman, Lawson, Thraillkill, Bass, Sanders, Minne, Warner and Lincoln.

Freshman Cagers Open Season Nov. 10

By Bob Gorham
The Freshman basketball team opens its season next Thursday, Nov. 10, when they play the Berea College freshmen at Paris, Kentucky.

The major part of practice time so far has been devoted to fundamentals, and getting the candidates familiar with Kentucky's style of play, but several injuries have hampered the season. None of the hurt is, however, Coach Harry Lancaster said.

Frank Ramsey, an All-State pivot man from Madisonville, Ky., jammed a finger and was forced to wear a brace for several days, but the injured digit has healed now.

The Berea team has several men over the six-foot mark. Tallest man on the squad is Herschel Beck, a 6' 8" center.

Paul Noland, who played with Guy Strong at Irvine high school, will probably see a lot of action at a guard slot for the visitors.

The Kitten's first home game is Dec. 10, when they play Fort Knox in Alumni Gym.

Kentucky Outlasts Cincy To Take Sixth Win, 14-7

By Earl Cunn
A Kentucky Wildcat team that definitely was off its game stopped the University of Cincinnati eleven, 14-7, last Saturday at Stoll Field in the annual Dad's Day game. The contest was played before 27,000 fans.

In a period of three minutes in the second quarter Kentucky scored both its touchdowns and except for this outburst never did show the explosive power which they displayed in their first four games of the season.

It seemed at the end of the first quarter that Cincinnati might have an upset in the offing when they drove to the Kentucky one-yard line for a first down and goal to go. Cincy's Quarterback Tom O'Malley was showing the way with his brilliant passing.

However, the Kentucky defense proved itself once again at this point. Four straight plays—three line bucks and a pass—failed to produce the touchdown and Cincinnati never made a serious threat again during the half.

UK Scores
The Bearcats had first and goal on the Kentucky 15-yard line and two plays sent them reeling all of the way back to the 27. However, Tom O'Malley sighted Jimmy Kelly in the end zone and hit him with a perfect pass—Kelly making a catch of the ball that was out of this world. The Cincinnati conversion was good and the game ended with Kentucky apparently stalling out the clock down to the Cincinnati 28-yard line.

While Kentucky was off its usual brand of ball, the Bearcats showed an aggressive, flashy style of play to the Kentucky fans. Tom O'Malley passed for 217 yards with his receivers making catches that often looked impossible. Little Jim Kelly was constantly in Kentucky's hair as he grabbed some tosses that even a big man isn't supposed to get. His catch of the touchdown pass while sandwiched between two defensive men was a real beauty.

With only five minutes left in the fourth and final quarter, Cincinnati finally managed to push a touchdown over after threatening repeatedly.
