STAFF DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Investigate the library world of your town. Learn about other libraries in Lexington at the next Staff Development program to be held Wednesday, March 10. Jewell Castle, librarian at I.B.M.; Nanette Eichell, librarian at the Council of State Governments; Linda Smith, librarian at the Lexington-Herald Leader; and Ron Steensland, director of Lexington Public Library will speak about their library resources, services and clientele.

The program will be given twice, at 10 a.m. and at 1:30 p.m., in the Gallery in King-North. Don't miss this most informative program.

NOTICE TO JOURNAL ROUTING SERVICE SUBSCRIBERS

Please make sure you mark through your name on the routing slip before you forward an issue to the next name on the list. We have been getting back lately with very few names marked off and we're not sure everyone is receiving them. Also, you must use campus envelopes and addresses for routing. If issues are put in the mail loose, Cecil returns them to Acquisitions. Thank you.

EXHIBIT IN SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

Olivia Buckner and I are very proud to announce our art and photography exhibit in the Special Collections Department of King Library North. The exhibit will run until March 12 and we would like to extend a welcome to all of you to view the exhibit, and we hope that it brings pleasure to your world.

LIBRARY STAFF ORGANIZATION
1981 ANNUAL REPORT

LSO remained fairly active during 1981. In December the staff elected Barbara Galik (Reference) President, Alan Schaplowsky (Acquisitions) Vice President, Janis Trebby (Government Publications) Secretary, and Kathy Holden (Government Publications) Treasurer. Vivian MacQuown agreed to be the Ombudsperson for another year. In February, the new officers started the ball rolling, with March as membership month. The idea of the departmental representatives was continued and they proved to be an enormous help to the organization. Publication of the Wax Bean was also continued with Toni Powell as its editor. In addition, Karl Boewe took pictures at our various functions. The staff was then able to purchase copies for themselves.

Membership in LSO increased to 113 members, with some areas having 100% of their staff joining. With the staff shortages throughout the library system, LSO proved its value as a morale booster and most events were very well attended. The year began with the now traditional Newcomers' Reception at which Paul Willis presented last years' service pins. This was followed by a retirement luncheon for Adele Dailey and Elizabeth Howard, with Dr. Louis Cochran (Vice President for Academic Affairs), William Davis (Custodial Staff), and John Simcox (Maintenance) also being honored. All past retirees were also invited and expressed their appreciation for the staff's thoughtfulness. This was followed by the annual picnic at Jacobsen Park and the annual Christmas party. We had only two lunch time programs (photography on May 6 and rape prevention on December 4) and one Great Chefs Perform on March 27. The money to support these events was acquired through membership dues, a booksale, a Whatnot sale, and a Christmas bazaar. We also had a bake sale with the proceeds going to the purchase of volleyball equipment. This has not yet been done, but the money is there for that purpose. In addition, LSO continued to help the less fortunate. We gave one food basket at Thanksgiving, and during the Christmas season we gave $162.94 to the Medical Center for much needed gifts for patients, donated toys for Lexington's needy children, and presented Paul Willis with a gift certificate for dinner at the Merrick Inn.

With the help and support of the staff, the LSO had a very good year. The officers would like to thank the departmental representatives for their ideas, and assistance in passing along information and in spreading the good word about LSO, Andrea Bryant for organizing the lunch time programs, John Bryant for organizing Great Chefs Perform, Karl Boewe for putting our memories on film, the staff lounge committee for keeping the lounge bright and spotless, Jean Robinson for organizing the Thanksgiving basket, Jean and the members of the social committee for the beautifully planned and arranged programs, Paul Willis for his support and concern for LSO, and all the members who gave their time to the organization in various ways and who made our social events such big successes.

LSO CHRISTMAS LUNCH PICTURES

Copies of pictures taken at the LSO Christmas Lunch can still be ordered for fifty cents each. The photo album and sign-up sheets will be circulated via the departmental LSO representatives.

THANK YOU LSO

I want to express my sincere thanks for the thoughtful and generous Christmas gift. My family and I plan to go to the Merrick Inn soon and I am certain that we will enjoy the evening there as usual.

Thanks again for your gift.

Sincerely,
Paul Willis
