Dear Sister

Your letter of the 19th was duly received and read with pleasure. I had a hard cold at the time of receiving your letter, but I am quite well at present hoping these lines will find you in the enjoyment of the same.

I received a letter from Father the other day, tell him that I have not seen Major Penary yet as he is sick or unwell and has not been on the ground since he returned from Appleton.

We have not been payed yet and I dont hear any thing about when we shall get it. I spoke in Kirklands letter about Major Sarranges going to Chicago to see Gen Seams about our
