Dear Becca I received
your letter and was dated June 9 1863 and
was truly glad to hear
that you were all well
and that your Mother's health was so much better I would like to have been at home when our Babe died but I could not. my health
is good and hope those New Lines may find
you all well We are driving the Rebels before us and are taking a good many Prisoners
