

March the 1 1890

~~While on the march from Camp Kenton~~ Ky The results of my Disease of verrey coes vains was partly caused on the march from Camp Kenton Ky To pilketon Ky in the month <sup>of</sup> October and november in 1861 being a march of 26 days in succession over the worst terrible roads a Soldier ever traveled of a night my leg would ake me but i did not think of verrey coes vains at the time. and then in the month of Jenvary about the last of the month to the best of my knowledge as i did not keep a Derry of the time, on the march from Columbia Ky to Glasgo Ky there i was taken with aken
