

≡CONSTITUTION≡ —OF THE—
KENTUCKY WOMAN SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION.

Adopted October 27, 1881.

PREAMBLE: The undersigned friends of Woman Suffrage, believing that a truly representative State organization is needed for the orderly and efficient prosecution of the Woman Suffrage movement in Kentucky, which shall embody the deliberate action of the local organization, and shall carry with it their united weight, do hereby form the Kentucky Woman Suffrage Association.

ARTICLE I.—NAME.

This Association shall be known as the Kentucky Woman Suffrage Association.

ARTICLE II.—OBJECT.

Its object shall be to concentrate the efforts of all the advocates of Woman Suffrage in Kentucky.

SECTION I. To form auxiliary District, or County Associations in every Congressional District, or County, (where none such now exist), and to cooperate with those already existing, which shall declare themselves auxiliary, the authority of the auxiliary Societies being reorganized in their respective localities, and their plans promoted by every means in our power.

SECT. 2. To hold an annual meeting of delegates for the transaction of business and the election of officers for the ensuing year: also, one or more State Conventions for the advocacy of Woman Suffrage.

SECT. 3. To secure tracts, documents, and other printed matter for the supply of District and local societies, and individuals at actual cost.

SECT. 4. To prepare and circulate petitions to the State Legislature, or to Constitutional Conventions, in behalf of the legal and political equality of women: to employ lecturers and agents; and to take any measure the Executive Committee may think fit, to forward the objects of the Association.

ARTICLE III.—ORGANIZATION.

SECT. 1. The officers of this Association shall be a President, Vice President, Chairman of the Executive Committee, Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary, and Treasurer, all of whom shall be ex officio members of the Executive Committee.

SECT. 2. Every President of an auxiliary District or County Society shall be ex officio, a Vice President of this Association.

SECT. 3. Every Chairman of the Executive Committee of an auxiliary District, or County Society shall be ex officio a member of the Executive Committee of this Association.

SECT. 4. In cases where no auxiliary District or County Association exists, a suitable person may be selected by the annual meeting or by the Executive Committee, as Vice President or member of the Executive Committee from said District or County, to serve until the organization of said District or County Association.

SECT. 5. The Executive Committee may fill all vacancies that may occur prior to the next annual meeting.

SECT. 6. All officers shall be elected annually at an annual meeting of delegates on the basis of the Congressional representation of the respective Districts, except as above provided.

SECT. 7. No distinction on account of sex shall ever be made in the membership or in the selection of officers of this Society.

SECT. 8. No money shall be paid by the Treasurer except under such restrictions as the Executive Committee may provide.

SECT. 9. Five members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum.

SECT. 10. The Chairman shall convene a meeting of the Executive Committee whenever requested to do so by three members of that Committee.

ARTICLE IV.

The Association shall have a branch office in every District or County, in connection with the office of the auxiliary Society therein, and shall have a central office at such place as the Executive Committee may determine.

ARTICLE V.

This Constitution may be amended at any annual meeting by a vote of three-fifths of the delegates present therein.

ADDITIONAL CLAUSES.

Any person may become a member of the Kentucky Woman Suffrage Association by signing the Constitution and paying the sum of $1.00 annually, or a life member by paying the sum of $10, which shall entitle such person to attend the business meetings of delegates and participate in their deliberations.

Honorary members may be appointed by the annual meeting, or by the Executive Committee, in consideration of services rendered.

Members of local societies shall become members of this Association on such terms as the Executive Committee shall determine.

PERSONAL AND PRESS NOTICES.

A gifted woman, who has a brilliant future before her.—Mt. Pleasant Free Press.

Her discourses are replete with novel and striking ideas.—San Francisco Daily Call.

“America for Americans” is a lecture of absorbing interest.—Swedesboro (N. J.) News.

Her lectures are having a wonderful influence wherever she speaks —Chicago Herald.

An eloquent speaker, thoroughly posted on the subjects she treats.—Ottumwa Daily Courier.

Carrie Chapman Catt's argument for Woman Suffrage had in it a ring all its own, and was so commingled with story, anecdote and humor that it was well-nigh irresistible. Many converts will to-day throw their ballots for the amendment induced by the effectiveness of her logic.—Aberdeen (S.D.) News, November 7, 1890

A charming address was delivered last evening before Unity Club by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, who proved to be an admirable and cogent speaker. She held her audience in rapt attention for an hour and a quarter and when she closed, all regretted her speech was so short.—Newport (R.I.) Mercury, February 4, 1893.

Carrie Chapman Catt was the next speaker. Her theme was of course, Woman Suffrage and she talked like one inspired. She is a bright speaker and her elocution is perfect. Mrs. Chapman canvassed South Dakota for Woman Suffrage in the late campaign and attracted so much attention that the politicians gave her the name "Gatling Gun." At Kansas State Convention.—Atchison Globe. November 20, 1890.

Before a large audience at Coliseum Hall last night Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt gave her first lecture in the Woman Suffrage campaign. The audience was a critical one. It was captivated. With a clear enunciation, a great depth of thought, a clear perception of things and a splendid address, the lecturer carried her audience with her and clearly convinced the members of the association they had made no mistake in inviting her to the State.—Denver Republican, September 4, 1893.

In Carrie Chapman Catt the Colorado Suffragists secured the aid of one who is an honor and a glory to her sex. A Western woman herself, she came in touch immediately with Western audiences. Young, attractive and intellectual, her marvelous eloquence, fully equalled by her perfect tact, her saivoir faire, and her devotion to the cause, Mrs. Chapman Catt won a mighty host of friends for herself and for suffrage.—Rocky Mountain News, (Denver,) January 1, 1894.

Last night in the hall of representatives a good audience listened to an excellent address on Equal Suffrage by Carrie Chapman Catt. Rarely have Springfield people been treated to so eloquent and persuasive a lecture upon any subject.—Illinois State Register, (Springfield,) March 14, 1893.

Carrie Chapman Catt is fine looking and an accomplished and excellent speaker. She won the entire admiration of her listeners for her talent and abilities, and their sympathy as well for the principles she so eloquently advocates.—Hastings, (Neb.) Daily Gazette. Journal.

Carrie Chapman Catt delivered a most interesting lecture in American Mechanics' Hall, Alleghany, last evening, on "America for Americans." The hall was crowded and the speaker, who is a pleasant and able talker, was frequently interrupted by applause.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Carrie Chapman Catt was greeted by a good audience last evening and delivered an interesting lecture on the subject "America for Americans." She is a prepossessing woman, a fluent talker, has a pleasing address and shows herself to be a woman of broad culture.—Omaha Daily Bee.

There is no appearance of embarrassment or affectation in Carrie Chapman Catt's addresses. She comes to say something, is interested in saying it, and says it clearly and forcibly. With her grace and vigor of thought she is doing good work in defense of American institutions.—Iowa City Daily Republican.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt of New York, made one of the best addresses ever listened to by a Holton audience. Her remarks were full of point and her manner of speaking is probably unexcelled by any platform orator in the country.—Holton, (Kan.) Recorder, November 9, 1893.

Mrs. Catt is a fluent speaker, has a fine command of language and a cleverness of delivery that proved her to be one of the best debaters and public speakers of the day.—Gunnison, (Colo.) Tribune, October 8, 1893.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt is a woman of fine presence and possesses the gift of oratory. Her logic and eloquence and fine delivery captivated her audience.—Atchison (Kan.) Champion, November 20, 1890.

In Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt a new voice was heard. She won the attention of the audience at once and held it throughout in a ringing speech. New England Convention in Tremont Temple.—Boston Herald, May 15, 1892.

The lecture (Zenobia) was notable for its excellence, both in diction and delivery. Her sentences are word pictures, and the elevated sentiments conveyed give a practical value to the portrait of a woman the events of whose real life surpass the creations of romance.—Battle Creek, (Mich.) Journal, December 10, 1892.

Carrie Chapman Catt has a full, musical voice, a good presence, and in her lecture in the Builders' Exchange last evening, painted a true picture of the effects of unrestricted immigration in such tones as to carry the careful attention of her audience throughout her discourse.—Wilmington, (Del.) Evening Journal.

Carrie Chapman Catt is a clear, forcible earnest speaker, and her address was received with generous applause.—Mitchell (S.D.) Press, August 20, 1890.

The lecture, "America for Americans," delivered by Carrie Chapman Catt last night is pronounced by far the best of the course.—Sullivan (Ind.) Democrat.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt's name has been heard often of late in connection with the Woman Suffrage campaign. She talks sense and she talks to the point and no one, not even the strongest male opponent, accuses her of being illogical. She has a clear ringing voice and is eloquent without any apparent effort.—Brooklyn Eagle, March 20, 1894.

Carrie Chapman Catt gave the second lecture in the Woman's course last evening at Memorial Hall. No one knew how long she talked; it might have been hours, or only seconds so thoroughly did she carry her audience with her.—Toledo (O.) Bee, November 30, 1892.

Carrie Chapman Catt gave the second lecture of the Woman's Hospital course last night. Her subject was Zenobia. The lecture was a rich treat. She has a fine presence and is an eloquent and interesting speaker.—Saginaw Courier Herald, December 4, 1892.
