

The GREEN BEAN

Number 526

April 29, 1988

EDITOR'S NOTE

Since the editor is going on vacation, this will be the last issue of the GB until June 10, 1988. Deadline for that issue will be Friday, June 3, 1988.

HONORS DAY ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT EXHIBIT

The exhibit co-sponsored by the Libraries and the Art Museum in conjunction with the April 14 Honors Day program was a success due to the many library staff members who contributed their talents and time.

Mike Lach, Paula Pope, Jim Birchfield, and Bill Marshall formed the nucleus of the planning group. Jim and Bill designed and set up the display, with help from Mary McLaren in setting up on April 14. Cheri Nickell assisted Paula Pope in tracking and recording all of the exhibit materials; she also typed all of the display cards. Janet Stith collected materials from the Medical faculty and Dan Hodge did the same for Architecture.

Rick Garrett, Rob Turner, and Cecil Madison provided transportation for the exhibit to and from the Center for the Arts.

The exhibit was staffed by members of LSO during the afternoon. Those who served as attendants were Betsy Baird, Lillian Mesner, Kathy Martin, Jessie Adams, Nazee Depp, Sara McPherson, Karen Cline, Lori Duncan, Rick Gay, Loree Pennock, Steve Savage, and Paul Fuller. (Submitted by Gail Kennedy.)

LIBRARY ASSOCIATES ANNUAL BOOK SALE

This year's Annual Book Sale, held April 21-22 was one of the most profitable in recent years, raising $4,317. Many library faculty and staff assisted with set-up and clean-up for the sale, as well as working during the course of the sale. (Submitted by Paula Pope.)

1

The Newsletter of the University of Kentucky Libraries

SLA - C/EKOUG ANNUAL DINNER

The Kentucky Chapter of Special Libraries Association and the Central/Eastern Kentucky Online Users Group will hold their annual dinner meeting on Wednesday, May 18, at the Holiday Inn - North in Lexington. There will be a cash bar at 5:45 and dinner will follow at 6:30 p.m.

The featured speaker for the event will be Steve Arnold of UMI/Data Courier who will speak on "Copyright: Database downloading and CD-ROM -- Things are changing!"

Reservations for the dinner are $14 for members and $17 for non-members. You may choose either a regular or vegetarian dinner menu. Reservations should be sent to Lillian Mesner, N-24 Agriculture Science Center - North, CAMPUS 0091.

CLIS ALUMNI REUNION AT ALA

UK's College of Library and Information Science will hold an alumni reunion at ALA in New Orleans this summer. Complete details will be included in the ALA conference program, or contact Nancy Dare in the College at 7-8876.

WARNING SIRENS TO BE TESTED

The Lexington-Fayette County Urban County Government will test the early warning broadcast system sirens at 11:30 a.m. on the first Wednesday of every month. The routine testing of the equipment is intended to generate public awareness of hazards arising from severe weather, chemical releases and other emergencies.

FIRE ALARM TEST

There will be a routine fire alarm test in King North and South between 7:30 - 8:00 a.m. on Tuesday, May 3.

UPCOMING CONFERENCES

Columbia University's Rare Book School will again be offered in June, 1988. The school, which runs from June 6 - July 1, offers various five-day courses on topics concerning rare books and special collections. The base tuition for each course is $425.

The Library and Information Technology Association (LITA) will hold its second annual national conference October 2-6, 1988, in Boston. The conference will offer technology seminars, technical sessions, exhibits, new product reviews and showcases.

of new technologies. Pre-Registration is $145 for LITA/ALA members, $180 for ALA members, $215 for non-members and $60 for students.

Fuller information on these and other conferences and workshops is available in the GB office.

STAFF ACTIVITIES

James Birchfield, Assistant Director for Collection Development, has been elected to the University Senate for a three-year term, beginning in September, 1988.

Dr. Birchfield was also recently elected as president of the UK chapter of Phi Beta Kappa for the coming year.

Phil Stoffer, Geology Librarian, is the co-author of "Information Explosion Challenges Geologists," which appeared in the April, 1988, issue of Geotimes, a publication of the American Geological Institute.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

Library Technician III, grade 7. Acquisitions. Available June 6, 1988. If interested, please contact Ann Howell, Director's Office.

ALABAMA

Nonbook Cataloger. University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa. Salary: $21,000 minimum. Deadline: May 31, 1988.

Chief Bibliographer. University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa. Salary: $27,000 minimum. Deadline: May 8, 1988.

CALIFORNIA

Head, Conservation and Preservation Department. University of California, Davis. Salary: $31,008 - $57,816. Deadline: May 1, 1988.

Collection Development /Reference Librarian, Health Sciences Library. University of California, Davis. Salary: $25,380 - $32,472. Deadline: June 15, 1988.

Engineering Librarian. University of California, Davis. Salary: $25,380 - $44,676. Deadline: May 30, 1988.

Chief Librarian, Preservation Department. Stanford University, Stanford. Salary: $34,000 - $58,000. Deadline: June 30, 1988.

OHIO

Head, Chemistry/Biology Library. University of Cincinnati. Salary: $26,000 - $32,000. Deadline: June 10, 1988.

Head, College of Applied Science Library. University of Cincinnati. Salary: $22,600 - $27,400. Deadline: June 7, 1988.

Assistant Director for Systems.
Case Western Reserve University, Cleveland. Salary:
variable. Deadline: May 10, 1988.

OKLAHOMA

Head, Serials Department.
University of Oklahoma, Norman.
Salary: $28,000 minimum.
Deadline: July 5, 1988.

OREGON

Head of Research Services.
Oregon State University,
Corvallis. Salary: $30,000.
Deadline: June 1, 1988.

PENNSYLVANIA

Three tenure track faculty positions. School of Library and Information Science,
University of Pittsburgh.
Salary: negotiable. Deadline:
June 15, 1988.

Production Staff: Bonnie Jean
Cox, editor/typist/proofreader;
Cecil Madison, printer.