

W. M. BECKNER,

Attorney-at-Law.

Winchester, Ky., ¹⁷ March 1 1887,

Dear Haskins,

I do not know what is the matter with our friends in Philadelphia - I wrote to Mr. Knight personal weeks ago asking him to send the money with which to pay the lawyer for his work, as I could not expect him to wait for his money, but I have never received an answer.
I wrote again yesterday. I was sorry I did not see you - I got the telegram, but was engaged in trying a case. I went to the depot at the scheduled time to meet your train, but was told it was too busy behind-time - I waited & went again but the train had put her head, I write with you as soon as I hear from Philadelphia.

Yours sincerely,

W. M. Beckner
