G. B. WALL
ASSISTANT TO PRESIDENT

RICHMOND, VA. September 8th, 1914. s

File 5988

Messrs. Harkins and Harkins,
Prestonsburg, Kentucky.

Dear Sirs,-

Replying to your favor of the 31st ultimo, regarding depot on right-of-way acquired from David C. Dingus.

Our General superintendent, Mr. J. P. Stevens, will have this depot located at once, and ask for an appropriation at our September meeting of the Board for the necessary funds with which to construct the same.

The deed does not state there should be an agency at this point. Will you please advise if that is necessary, and the extent of the depot that should be established. We, of course, expect to put a building there that will be sufficient to take care of all business offered.

Yours very truly,
