

308
FLOYD CIRCUIT COURT.

BEV MELLON,

CONTESTANT.

VS :::::

ANSWER AND COUNTER CLAIM,

*& Counts
Grounds of Contest.*

ELIGE GOBLE,

CONTESTEE.

Now comes the defendant and contestee, Elige Goble, and without waiving right of general or special demurrer, or any ancillary or auxillary motion, all of which are specifically and expressly reserved by said contestee and said defendant, for its answer herein admits that the contestant Bev Mellon is a citizen and resident of Prestonsburg, Floyd County, Kentucky, and admits that he has been such citizen and resident for more than two years next before August 1.1925; contestee admits that said contestant is a qualified elector of the Democratic Party and admits that he has at 11 times affiliated with and supported the nominees of the Democratic Party; contestee admits that more than thirty days before the holding of the Primary election in Floyd County, Kentucky on August 1.1925 said contestant filed his notification and declaration as a candidate for the Democratic Nomination for Jailor of Floyd County as set forth in his notice and grounds of contest.

The contestee denies that the contestant received the majority of legal votes cast in said Primary Election for any candidate for the Democratic nomination for the office of Jailor of Floyd County, Kentucky, or that the contestee did not receive a majority