

Perry Circuit Court.

Russell & Company,

Plaintiffs.

Against) Petition-Equity.

William J. Combs, R. C. Combs, Nancy Combs
and Defendants.

The plaintiff, Russell & Co., states that it is a corporation created and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Ohio, with power to contract, and be contracted with, sue and be sued in its corporate name.

That the defendants, William J. Combs and R. C. Combs, are indebted to plaintiff in the sum of six hundred dollars with six per cent interest thereon from the first day of June, 1885, until paid. Said indebtedness is evidenced by the defendants' promissory note, which they signed and delivered to plaintiff whereby they promised and agreed to pay plaintiff the just and full sum above named, but have failed to do so and the same is just, past due and wholly unpaid. Said note is filed herewith and made a part hereof marked Exhibit A.

Plaintiff further states that said defendants are indebted to plaintiff company in the further sum of six hundred dollars with six per cent interest thereon from June 1st, 1885, until paid. Said indebtedness is evidenced by the defendants' promissory note, which they signed and delivered to plaintiff, whereby they promised and agreed to pay said plaintiff the just and full sum above named, but have failed to do so and the same is now just, past due and wholly unpaid. Said note is filed herewith and made a part hereof, marked Exhibit B.

Plaintiff further states that the defendants are indebt-
