HUNTINGTON, WEST VIRGINIA

January 4, 1923.

Mr. Harry Kaufman,
906 Standard Life Building,
Pittsburgh, Penna.,

Dear Sir:-

I have your letter of the 1st, inst, in reply to mine asking that you come down here to meet my party regarding a matter of some 100,000 to 150,000 acres of coal land in Kentucky. There is no use talking about submitting this matter to you by letter, as suggested by you, as my friend is not going to do so. If you are sufficiently interested to come to Huntington for a conference, I shall be glad to arrange a meeting, but if not then lets drop it.

Yours very truly,

H. H. Morris
