DR. OTIS A. SINGLETARY
President, University of Kentucky

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY . . . The State Is Our Campus

Located in Lexington, an urban community of over 155,000 population in the heart of Kentucky's famed Blue Grass region, University of Kentucky is a state-supported, land-grant institution which celebrated its centennial year in 1965.

The present school, which has an enrollment of approximately 28,000 students and now offers instruction in 10 academic colleges plus a Graduate School and a Community College system of 13 centers, had its beginnings in 1865 when it was established as a part of old Kentucky University. This action by the State Legislature united sectarian and public education under one organization for the first time. Federal funds authorized under the Morrill Act were used to develop agriculture and mechanical arts within KU and, in 1878, A&M College was separated from KU to become a separate state institution on the general site of what is now the 706 acre main campus. Name changes in 1908 and 1916 resulted in the title by which the school is now known.

It is fully accredited in its respective colleges and departments by all of the major professional societies and educational organizations.

President of the University is Dr. Otis A. Singletary, 48, who came to Lexington in 1969 from the University of Texas, Austin, where he was executive vice chancellor for academic affairs.

Dr. Singletary, who is eighth president of the University, served a total of eight years at Texas, progressing during seven (1954-61) of those years from instructor to professor, associate dean of Arts and Sciences and assistant to the president. Then for five years (1961-66), he was chancellor of the University of North Carolina, although he was on leave from October 1964 to January 1966 to serve as director of the Job Corps, Office of Economic Opportunity.

ATHLETICS AT KENTUCKY

Kentucky's athletic program, a well-balanced and ambitious activity featuring inter-collegiate competition in ten different sports, is organized under the Department of Athletics and a corporation known as the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

The program is conducted without overemphasis or sacrifice of educational objectives and in strict compliance with the rules of the University, the South-eastern Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

A board of directors, headed by the President of the University in the capacity of chairman, maintains overall policy supervision of the athletic program. In addition to the UK President, board officers include the Vice-President for Student Affairs as vice-chairman and Dr. W. L. Matthews in the capacity of secretary. Fourteen other men, drawn from the University faculty and the general public, also serve on the board as appointees of the president as does a student representative.

Supervising the steady growth and balanced development of the athletic program is Athletic Director Harry C. Lancaster.

The Association's Board of Directors is composed of the following:

Chairman (President)	Dr. Stephen Diachun
Vice Chairman (V. P. Stu. Affairs)	Dr. Lyman Ginger
Dr. W. L. Matthews, Jr., Secretary	Don Sullivan (K-Men's President)
Dr. Ralph Angelucci	Dr. A. D. Kirwan
Dr. Donald Leigh	Dr. J. L. Massie
Dr. Thomas Brower	James H. Pence
(Student Representative)	Dr. N. J. Pisacano
Albert B. Chandler	Dr. W. C. Royster
Dr. Glen Creech	Floyd Wright

MEMORIAL

Kentucky's athletic complex off Cooper Drive was named "The Bernie A. Shively Sports Center" in April, 1969, in memory of the distinguished Wildcat director of athletics who died of a heart attack at his home December 10, 1967.

Shively joined the Kentucky staff in 1927 as football line coach, following a brilliant athletic career at Illinois. An All-American as a blocking guard for Red Grange, he also was Big Ten heavyweight wrestling champion and a track standout.

In 1933, he was appointed head of the UK Physical Education Department, and five years later became director of athletics. He continued coaching until 1946, handling football, track and baseball at various times.

Under his leadership, Kentucky greatly expanded and improved its physical facilities and developed a fine athletic program.

HARRY C. LANCASTER
Director Of Athletics

Harry C. Lancaster is back on the UK athletic scene after an ailment which required a long hospital stay.

The veteran coach bounced back quickly and the athletic ship of state continued to run smoothly, as it has since he was named acting AD in September 1968 and permanent AD three months later.

One of the first challenges facing Lancaster during his "acting" tenure was to obtain a football coach to replace Charlie Bradshaw, who resigned unexpectedly. Lancaster and his screening committee worked hard to come up with a unanimous choice—John Ray—which pleased people throughout Kentucky. The new coach and the AD have worked together closely to upgrade the Wildcat football program.

Lancaster has also applied his energies in other areas, beefing up the spring sports program by re-surfacing the running track and adding bleachers, hiring young Ron Huebner as swim coach and Dick Parsons as baseball coach. He also talked Richard Vimont into remaining as tennis coach.

For many years, Lancaster was known mostly as No. 1 assistant to basketball's winningest coach Adolph Rupp. However, he gave up coaching duties after the 1968-69 season and concentrated all his attention on the over-all athletics program.

His association with Rupp began after he was discharged from the U.S. Navy as a lieutenant (sg) in 1946 and has been one of mutual respect and harmony. Rupp, who always prides himself as one who 'surrounds myself with the best people for the job at hand,' made Lancaster a full assistant in 1948. During the two previous years, the youthful veteran had busied himself by serving as part-time assistant while carrying on teaching duties and studying for a master's degree.

The dual duties, plus extra studies, were second nature to Lancaster, who had served as assistant football and basketball coach at Georgetown College (1932-33) and Paris High School (1933-34), head basketball coach at Bagdad High School (1934-36) and principal and coach at Gleneyrie High School (1936-42) and physical education instructor at UK in 1942. He was to continue that trend of carrying extra loads, serving as UK's baseball coach for 17 seasons prior to relinquishing the post following the 1965 campaign and teaching a physical education class during the past 18 years.

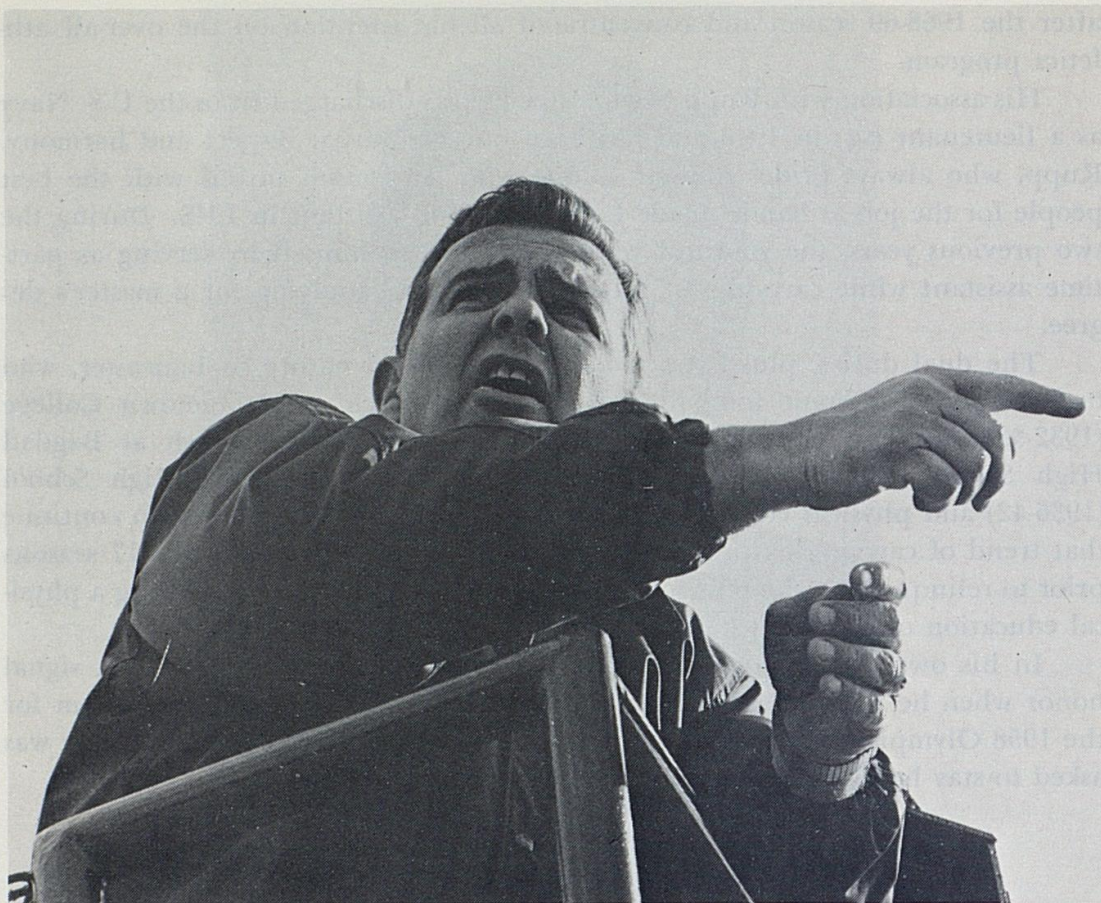

In his own right, Lancaster has traveled extensively and received a signal honor when he was invited to prepare the Greek National Basketball Team for the 1958 Olympics. A six-week tour in Athens was cancelled when Lancaster was asked to stay home and serve as acting athletics chief of staff.

Traveled To Greece In 1951

Lancaster had traveled to Greece in the summer of 1951 on a special athletic assignment for the U.S. State Department. The mission called for him to act as an advisor to Greek Basketball Federation officials in Olympic procedures and other matters. He also conducted numerous clinics and coaching schools and gave public lectures on the cage sport. During the summer of 1962, he helped Coach Rupp conduct clinics for Army personnel in the Far East Theater and worked with Rupp on the team's Middle East Tour in 1966 and a clinic in Germany in the summer of 1967.

It is ironic that Lancaster gained greatest fame in basketball, since he always considered himself a better football player. He was an all-conference halfback for three straight years and captain during his last two seasons at Georgetown College and also played semi-pro ball in Louisville and Cincinnati. His success on the basketball court was equally great, however, as he earned three all-conference nominations and two team captaincies. As a coach, he guided Kentucky yearlings to 204 victories, against only 57 losses, against formidable competition that included the more elite junior college clubs and top-notch service teams during 18 seasons. He posted respectable records as a baseball coach and gave the school its winningest seasons in history by posting identical 18-8 marks in 1959-1960.

A native of Paris, Ky., Lancaster attended Paris High School, where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball under Coach Blanton Collier. At Georgetown College, he was president of Kappa Alpha Social Fraternity and the Student Body during his senior year.

Entering his second year as chief of the Wildcat football fortunes, John Ray has become one of the Commonwealth's better known citizens. His doctrine and philosophy have been spread throughout the state by personal appearances which took him to small hamlets and crossroads as well as metropolitan areas.

Ray came to UK in December 1968 from Notre Dame, where he was assistant head football coach.

He shocked the football world early in his first season in Lexington by engineering a 10-9 upset over the powerful Rebels of Ole Miss. However, the former Notre Dame aide knew he had inherited a squad lacking in over-all size and speed. One of his first steps after assuming the UK post was to seek help in key areas; some of the freshmen he recruited will step into starting varsity roles this season. They should shore up such glaring weaknesses as occurred last season in the offensive line, defensive backfield and kicking game.

Ray set no timetable at UK; he merely stated he wanted a winner right away and had a three-fold goal: Get in the Top Ten national ranking, win the Southeastern Conference championship and participate in a bowl game.

A native of South Bend, Ray graduated from John Adams High School in June 1944 and was a regular center three months later at Notre Dame.

He joined the paratroopers, served in the Pacific and returned to Notre Dame in time for spring practice in 1947. He transferred to Olivet College in Michigan, where he played three seasons of football and also was afforded an opportunity to be a student assistant on the coaching staff of Frank Ham, who had moved up from John Adams High.

Ray received his bachelor's degree in history at Olivet and then coached in Michigan for five years, first at Sturgis High School and then at Three Rivers. He gave Three Rivers its first state championship team. He became an assistant at the University of Detroit for four years and then assumed the position of head coach at John Carroll University in Cleveland.

As head coach at John Carroll from 1959-63, he masterminded a very successful small college program (29 wins and six losses) and set several national records in defense, putting together his tactical methods of offense and defense which brought recognition in national coaching circles.

Ray was at John Carroll in 1964 when Parseghian was brought to Notre Dame from Northwestern. Parseghian chose Ray as his chief defensive assistant and persuaded the South Bend native to leave his head coaching position at John Carroll.

Immediately after arriving in the Blue Grass, Ray promised Kentuckians they would be pleased and surprised at his coaching staff. He then proceeded to recruit outstanding assistants from such places as Bucknell, Michigan, Navy, Connecticut and Notre Dame.

The next move was to "paint up, fix up" football offices in the Coliseum and Sports Center. Beautiful indoor-outdoor carpeting was added to the Center, along with other improvements.

Ray also fulfilled speaking engagements throughout Kentucky and in other states and sparked an enthusiasm which was evidenced best by advance ticket sales to Wildcat games.

A member of the Catholic Church, he received his Master's Degree from the University of Michigan in educational guidance and counseling. Ray is married to the former Barbara Fuller of Muncie, Ind. They have four children: Jeff (born in 1954), Kathy (1956), Debora (1958) and Chris (1960).

GALS' COACH FIRST UK MENTOR

Prof. A. M. Miller, who became Kentucky's first football coach in 1892, was chosen because he had learned about the game from sideline observations while a student at Princeton. His only previous coaching experience was at a girls' school in Pennsylvania.

WILDCAT COACHING STAFF

FRANK HAM
Administrative Assistant

A most valuable member of John Ray's staff, Ham brought to Kentucky a fine record as a coach and administrator. He began his coaching career as an assistant at John Adams High in South Bend, Ind., where John Ray was a member of the squad. Ham later coached Ray at Olivet College in Michigan. A native of Scranton, Ham graduated from high school at Niles, Mich., and completed his undergraduate work at Olivet. He did graduate work at Indiana University and coached football and track at John Adams in 1941-43. He was football and basketball coach at Niles in 1944-46 and then returned to Olivet as athletic director and football and basketball coach. He gave up duties as athletic director in 1952 to become assistant to the president, with responsibilities primarily in public and alumni relations. He "worked into" a Chevrolet agency in Cassopolis in 1954 and sold the agency in 1968. His duties include co-ordinating recruiting efforts and handling personal matters for Coach Ray.

GEORGE SEFCIK
Offensive Backfield

An all-around athlete, Sefcik entered Notre Dame in 1958 and, until graduation in 1962, earned five monograms. He played left halfback from 1959 through 1961, gaining 789 yards for a 4.8 yard per carry average and also caught 21 passes for 367 yards. He averaged 35.8 yards on 52 punts and was a top defensive halfback, making 98 tackles, breaking up 16 passes and intercepting eight. He earned his other two monograms in baseball as a second baseman in 1961-62 and his .367 average led the team. Prior to entering Notre Dame, he attended Benedictine High School in his native Cleveland where he competed in track, basketball, baseball and football. After graduation from Notre Dame, he worked under present Irish assistant Joe Yonto at Notre Dame High School in Niles, Ill. He returned to his alma mater in 1964 to continue work on a master's degree in education while a member of the staff of Coach Hugh Devore.

DENNIS FITZGERALD
Defensive Line

Developer of all-conference linemen at the University of Michigan, Fitzgerald is recognized as an outstanding young man in the profession. A native of Ann Arbor, he is a graduate of St. Thomas High School in Ann Arbor, where he lettered in three sports before serving three years in the Marine Corps (1954-57). He earned two varsity letters as a halfback at Michigan and was named most valuable player his senior year. He also lettered three years in wrestling and was team captain his junior and senior years. He participated in the Pan American Games in wrestling and went to the world championships in Europe in 1963. Fitzgerald is married to the former Miss Elizabeth McGovern of Ann Arbor. They have four children, Timothy, 6, Laureen, 5, Eileen, 4, and Molly, 3.

ALEXANDER CAMPBELL

Defensive Backfield

Named the most outstanding athlete in the State of Florida for the past half-century, Campbell was recommended to John Ray by such outstanding coaches as Hank Stram of the Kansas City Chiefs and Jim Dooley of the Chicago Bears. A native of New Jersey, he was All-State in football, basketball and baseball at Caldwell High and was team captain in each sport. He earned 16 letters at the University of Miami, where he was voted most outstanding athlete three years in a row as well as being named most outstanding athlete in the history of the school. Playing both offense and defense, he set school records for most passes intercepted and most touchdowns scored and was named to Coach Andy Gustafson's All-Time defensive team. He was honorable mention All-America in football, team captain and All-SIAA Tournament in basketball and holder of the school career scoring record of 1,400 points which was broken by Rick Barry. He coached defensive backs five years at Jackson High in Miami, where he was also head basketball coach one year with a record of 20-6. Coached freshmen at Miami two years before moving to varsity; also coached baseball team to 121-35 record. Coached over-all defense three years at Montana, where he also coached baseball team to 16-6 record. Joined Naval Academy staff as coach of offensive receivers in 1967, headed defense in 1968 and came to Kentucky with John Ray in 1969.

DAVE ADOLPH

Linebackers

Another of John Ray's original staff at Kentucky, Dave is a native of Akron, Ohio. He served three years as offensive line coach and one year as defensive coordinator at the University of Connecticut. He lettered in football and baseball at Mogador High in Akron and then attended the University of Akron, where he was team captain two years, earning All-Ohio Conference honors and named outstanding lineman his senior year (1958). He served as a lieutenant in the Air Force from 1959 to 1962 and was selected All-Air Force guard in 1960. Adolph began his coaching career at Shaw High in East Cleveland and joined Akron as offensive line coach the following year. He served Akron two years before going to Connecticut. He is married to the former Miss Julianne Drake. They have two sons, Mike, 7 and Mark, 6.

RON CAIN

Receivers

K-Letterman Cain, who joined the UK staff last year as assistant defensive coach, has switched his talents to the pass-catching corps, where he is in charge of such familiar players as Jim Mitchell, Tom Domhoff and Jim Grant, all of Louisville. Cain, who compiled a 57-13-1 record at Seneca High, is a native of Cumberland and a three-letter winner at UK, where he was an end. He was an All-State fullback and an All-America selection at Cumberland High and was All-Academic selection at UK. Cain served as an assistant at Waggener High in Louisville before assuming the Seneca responsibility in 1962. He was named Coach of the Year (AAA) after his Redskins won the 1966 state championship. He is married to the former Miss Phyllis Hall of Whitesburg. They have three children—Ronda Ann, Ronnie and Patricia.

JIM POYNTER

Offensive Line

Former Kentucky Wildcat fullback Jim Poynter joined the football coaching staff of his alma mater following the 1965 season and switched from freshman coach to offensive line coach this year. In five seasons in the high school ranks, he directed his teams to a composite record of 40-10-1. A native of Danville, Ky., he lettered two years as a fullback under Coach Blanton Collier. He capped a sterling career in 1960 by winning the Lexington Salesmen's Club award as UK's best defensive back and was cited as a member of the All-America Blocking Team the same year. Upon graduation from UK, Poynter took over as head coach at Glasgow (Ky.) High and gave the school its first winning team in 10 years. His two-year record was 12-8. In 1963, he moved to Clark County (Ky.) High where his teams won 17 games, lost only two and tied one in two seasons. The Cardinals copped a league title in '63 and tied for the top spot the following season. Another move prior to the 1965 season brought him to Lexington Henry Clay High and he proceeded to direct the Blue Devils to a perfect, 11-0-0 record. Henry Clay took the league championship on the strength of its first unblemished record in history and Poynter was honored as "Coach of the Year" in the Central Kentucky Conference.

CARROLL HUNTRESS

Freshmen

A graduate of the University of New Hampshire, Huntress starred in football, lacrosse and track and was captain of lacrosse and All-America in the sport. He was fullback on a football squad which had a 27-2-1 record, including an undefeated season, in his three varsity years. He also ran dashes and hurdles for the track team. He came to UK last year from Bucknell, where he had two years remaining on his contract. During his first year there, he molded a graduation-depleted squad into an exciting team which gave Bucknell its first conference championship. Huntress was named Pennsylvania College Coach-of-the-Year for that feat. His 1967 team finished third and his 1966 team second in the conference. In 1968, the Bisons lost the championship to Delaware in the final game of the season. Huntress attended Thornton Academy in his home town of Saco, Maine, and served a hitch in the Marines, earning battle stars for Tarawa, Kwajalein, Saipan and Okinawa in World War II. He had coaching duty at Mechanic Falls (Maine) High (1 year), Portland High (10 years) and was an assistant at Maryland from 1960-1964. He was offensive line coach last year.

JOE HAERING

Assistant Offensive Backfield

After serving as a graduate assistant on the UK staff in 1969, Joe steps into the duties of a full-time assistant this season. A native of Pittsburgh, he was an All-Catholic quarterback and most valuable player for Central Catholic High School. He lettered three years as an All-Conference linebacker at Bucknell and served as linebacker coach there in 1965. After entering the U.S. Army, he coached basketball and boxing one year at Ft. Eustis, Va., before spending one year as a company commander in Vietnam. He returned to Bucknell as linebacker coach under Carroll Huntress in 1968. Joe was married last May to the former Miss Pam Murphy of Owensboro.

ROY DON WILSON

Trainer

The newest member of the Wildcat staff, Roy Don came to UK this year from The Citadel, where he was head trainer two years. A native of Texas, he is a graduate of Amon Carter Riverside High in Fort Worth and received a bachelor of science degree from Texas A&M University with a major in physical education and a minor in business. He also received a corrective therapist certification from the VA Hospital in Houston. After serving as a student trainer at Amon Carter and A&M, Roy Don was head trainer two years at Ector High School in Odessa, Texas, and then served two years as assistant trainer at Florida State University before going to The Citadel.

JIM STUBBLEFIELD

Academic Advisor

A native of Louisville, Stubblefield lettered in basketball, football, baseball and track at Mt. Healthy High in Cincinnati. He attended Ohio University on a basketball scholarship but was injured his freshman year and dropped out. He finished undergraduate work at UK and got his M.A. in guidance and counseling in August last year. "Stubby" coached basketball and football at Tell City, Indiana, in 1962 after serving a year as a graduate trainer on Coach Adolph Rupp's staff. While at UK, he was a member of ODK, national educational honorary society, and Lamp and Cross, and was president of Sigma Chi and student director of intramurals. He coached basketball two seasons (1962-63, '63-64) at Millersburg Military Academy, entered business for two years and then returned to UK in 1967.

SPORTS INFORMATION STAFF

SPORTS INFORMATION DIRECTOR—Russell Rice was named sports information director at UK in May, 1969, after serving two years as assistant to Ken Kuhn, who retired after more than two decades of service with the University. Rice came to the Wildcats from The Lexington Leader, where he was a general reporter eight years and sports editor five years. A native of Paintsville, Ky., he won letters in football, basketball and baseball at Van Lear High. After serving with the U.S. Marines in World War II, he attended Kentucky Wesleyan College and received his bachelor's at the University of Kentucky in 1951. Last January he was elected president of the Southeastern Conference Sports Publicity Director's Association. He is married to the former Miss Doris Thacker of Knott County. They have four children—Mrs. Rodney Morris of Louisville, Russell James, 18, Judy, 16, and Kim, 5.

ASST. SPORTS INFORMATION DIRECTOR—Jack S. Perry came to the University in March as assistant SID after 15 years service in the library of The Lexington Herald-Leader. A native Lexingtonian, he is a son of Mrs. Frances Perry, 1910 Pershing Drive, and the late David P. Perry, who operated barber shops in Lexington from 1925 until his death in 1963. Jack attended the University in 1949-50 before entering the U.S. Air Force, where he served from 1950 through 1954 as an airborne radio operator aboard B-29s. He joined The Herald-Leader as assistant librarian in March 1955 and was named head librarian upon retirement of Frank Roberts in the spring of 1960. Jack is married to the former Miss Barbara Sanders of Lexington. They have four children—Patti, 17, Debbie, 16, Jack David, 12, and James Todd, 10.

KENTUCKY'S COLORS

The blue and white of the University of Kentucky are known to sports fans everywhere. Officially the colors are Yale blue and white, but in the beginning, when the Lexington institution was still known as the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Kentucky, the colors were "Stoll blue" and white. One day back in the 1890's a group of Kentucky football stalwarts met to choose their school colors. Someone suggested blue and white—"blue like Dick Stoll's necktie"—and those colors were immediately adopted. "Dick" Stoll was to become Judge Richard C. Stoll, distinguished public servant and, for more than fifty years before his death, a member of the U.K. board of trustees.

SERIES HISTORY: The Wildcat-Tar Heel series started way back in 1910, but the two teams have met only three times. After the Wildcats won the opener, 11-0, in Lexington, 24 years passed before the Tar Heels won, 6-0, in Chapel Hill. The last meeting was Kentucky's opening game Sept. 17, 1966, on Stoll Field.

LAST MEETING: Sept. 17, 1966 (Lexington) UK 10, NC 0—Sophomore Dicky Lyons set the UK machine in motion with a 30-yard punt return in the first quarter to give UK the ball on the 50. Two plays later, QB Terry Beadles faked a handoff, kept the ball and clicked for 41 yards. Larry Seiple scored from the four. After one of NC's three field goal misses, UK drove 68 yards but ran out of gas on the 12. Chuck Arnold kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the scoring. UK outgained NC 277-79 on the ground, but lagged in the passing department, completing two of 12 for 16 yards while NC was completing 11 of 23 for 104 yards. Besides his punt return, Lyons intercepted a NC pass in the fourth quarter to give UK a first down on the NC 27. Seven plays later, the ball squirted out of Lyons' hands in the end zone for a touch-back.

1970 OUTLOOK: The return of tailback Don McCauley, ACC Player of the Year in 1969, and a veteran, hard-hitting defensive line should give North Carolina an exciting football team. Coach Bill Dooley, starting his fourth season at the Tar Heel helm, predicts his team will be improved over last year and says he feels Carolina certainly will be competitive in the ACC. "But there are problem spots which must be worked out in order for us to have a good season." The Tar Heel rebuilding program began to pay dividends last season when Carolina won five and lost five, sweeping four games in a row near the tailend of the season. The hero of that sparkling drive is back. He's Mr. McCauley, a rising senior from Garden City, N. Y., who exploded for 1,092 yards rushing last year to set a new school record. He was an overwhelming choice of newsmen as the league's best player and now rates as a bonafide All-America candidate. The defensive line from a year ago returns intact. Leading this charge are two All-ACC performers, G Bill Richardson and E Judge Mattocks. Chief problem in the Tar Heel camp could be the QB position where four different players saw duty last fall. The leading candidate, Johnny Swofford, missed four games last year with assorted injuries. Two other fine QB prospects, Paul Miller and Charlie Turco, underwent operations last fall and their status for 1970 is doubtful. QB Mike Mansfield off the unbeaten freshman team will get a long look by Tar Heel coaches.

SERIES HISTORY: The Wildcats of Kansas State and Kentucky met for the first and only time on a cool autumn night nine years ago in Lexington. Blanton Collier's Kentuckians started their first series of downs on their own 47 and drove 53 yards in eight ground plays, with Gary Steward scoring from the 1½ yard line. UK came right back on its next series of plays in the first quarter and covered 85 yards in 10 plays, with FB Perky Bryant scoring off tackle from the eight. Late in the first half, Howard Dunnebacke ripped off a 21-yard run, HB Bill Ransdell sped 48 yards and UK benefitted from a 10-yard penalty as the whistle blew. Although time had elapsed, the penalty gave Kentucky another play and QB Jerry Woolum completed an 11-yard TD pass to Tom Hutchinson. Kansas State got on the scoreboard with 3:47 left in the game when Joe Searles, a 5-foot-7, 153 lb. halfback, ran back a punt 93 yards. UK won 21-8.

1970 OUTLOOK: Kansas State's surprise showing last fall will most likely put the 1970 Vince Gibson crew in the upper echelon of Big Eight pre-season rankings. Although K-State lost some quality football players from last season's 5-5 club, the bold fact remains that 37 lettermen return next fall, including 17 of the first 22 that played on offense and 18 of the first 22 on defense. The heart of the K-State offense that established 17 Big Eight records, plus 21 school records, returns. Among Mack Heron, Charlie Collins, Jerry Lawson and Bob Long, all who walked the graduation plank, 106 Lynn Dickey passes were caught for 1,470 yards. But off-setting that statistic is another one that shows six returning receivers who snared 87 of Dickey's passes for 1,128 yards. QB Lynn Dickey is on the verge of shattering every Big Eight passing mark, and with an added 11th game, is within range of several NCAA records. His 4,045 career passing yards is already a Big Eight standard. He entered the current season needing just four more touchdown passes to shatter one of the Big Eight's long-time standing marks, most TD passes career, held by Paul Christman of Missouri, and was just 907 yards short of the league's career total offense record. Mike Montgomery and Russell Harrison, the second and third leading rushers last season, are back and potentially rank high in the Big Eight's corps of outstanding running backs. Montgomery was also the team's second leading receiver (28 for 217 yards). The entire defensive secondary returns, spearheaded by Mike Kolich, whom Gibson describes as one of the best safety men in the nation. Completing the secondary quartet are seniors Ron Dickerson, Clarence Scott and Alan Steelman.

SERIES HISTORY: A strange sequence of upsets and near-upsets flavors the comparatively young, but colorful and intense rivalry between the Wildcats and Ole Miss. Twenty-six meetings have been held since the series started in 1944, but it was 1958 before the Rebels could claim a distinctive edge in the battling. The Wildcats got the series off to an auspicious start by winning the first game, but Mississippi took the decision in three out of the next four meetings. The fireworks really started in 1949 as Kentucky claimed a 47-0 upset in Oxford and started on the road to big-time prominence. Since then, the Kentucky game has been a "make or break" situation on the Rebels' schedule. The 1954 meeting in Memphis was a penalty-marred spectacle resulting in several conference records for violations that still stand. In 1955, UK added new fire to the "beat the favorite" series history by upending the defending SEC champs in Lexington for their only loss en route to a second straight title and Cotton Bowl win. Ole Miss achieved a measure of revenge by winning the next eight in a row. UK extended the SEC "Team of the Decade" nine years ago by forcing a long field goal and a freakish, 51-yard quarterback sneak TD in final seconds for a 16-0 decision. In 1964, 1965 and 1969 seasons, Kentucky mustered monumental upsets over the Rebels.

LAST MEETING: Oct. 29, 1969 (Lexington) UK 10, UM 9—Featuring All-America quarterback Archie Manning, the Rebels came to town an overwhelming favorite over a Kentucky team which had lost, 58-30, to Indiana a week earlier. John Ray's forces shattered the sports world with a 10-9 upset. Mississippi scored first on a 24-yard field goal by Jim Poole Jr., early in the second quarter. The Rebels added six more points two minutes later when Manning ran 64 yards for a TD. Wildcat safety David Hunter blocked the try for point. UK got on the scoreboard when Bob Jones kicked a 36-yard field goal with six seconds left in the first half. Midway of the third quarter, the Wildcats got possession on their own 37 and scored in 11 plays, with QB Bernie Scrubbs going around right end for six yards and the TD. Jones' kick was good. A big play came midway of the fourth quarter, when Ole Miss rolled from its own 20 to the UK three. Wilbur Hacket knocked the ball loose from Rebel Leon Felts. Paul Martin recovered to end the final big Rebel threat.

1970 OUTLOOK: Starting with Archie Manning, a prime candidate for the Heisman Trophy, Ole Miss should be a top SEC and national contender. Missing on offense is fullback Bo Bowen, but John Vaught has some prime prospects returning. In the defensive mid-sector, a brand-new starting cast must be assembled to replace departed tackles Buz Morrow and Claude Herard. Johnny Aldridge is a senior, a known factor; Elmer Allen was No. 2 at ST a year ago. Others to watch are Larry Northam, Larry Torgerson and John Thornton. The middle guard station, where Larry Thomas was All-SEC last fall, should be manned by Jeff Horn, a senior, and John Chandler, a sophomore. All-American Safety Glenn Cannon is gone, but senior Danny Hooker is a competent performer. There are many other stars looming in the Rebel firmament. Beware.

SERIES HISTORY: Former Southeastern Conference football “doormats,” Kentucky and Auburn, first got together on the gridiron at Lexington in 1934—the year after the league was organized—and played another game the following season at Montgomery before interrupting their series for nearly two decades. Each held a victory out of the early meetings and the 1954 scrap, which resumed the rivalry, resulted in a 21-14 decision in the Wildcats' favor. Tilts between the new-found powers in the years since have been fraught with frustration. Kentucky walked away with a memorable 14-12 upset victory in 1961 on the Tigers' home ground where no Auburn eleven had been beaten in 30 straight games. Prior to the win, UK had been able to score on the stingy Plainsmen only once in five years. The Tigers have scored impressive wins, however, in the last three outings, scoring 118 points to Kentucky's 13.

LAST MEETING: Oct. 4, 1969 (Auburn) AU 44, UK 3—More than 35,000 spectators jammed Cliff Hare Stadium to watch the homestanding Tigers maul the Wildcats. Auburn took command with little more than four minutes gone and never let up. Sophomore quarterback Pat Sullivan passed for 200 yards and three touchdowns and Auburn chewed up UK's defense for 271 yards on the ground, amassing a total of 532 yards while scoring in every period. UK quarterbacks completed only 11 of 34 passes for 114 yards and had three intercepted; Wildcat runners gained only 21 yards on the ground all afternoon.

1970 OUTLOOK: Coach Ralph Jordan's big task is finding replacements for lost starters. He is especially concerned about the offensive line, which lost three starters from tackle-to-tackle. Defensively, he lost All-America safetyman Buddy McClinton and linebackers Mike Kolen and Sonny Ferguson. Kentuckians undoubtedly are glad to see the departure of John Riley, whose booming kickoffs left them in the hole on many occasions; in addition, Riley set a field goal record (4) against Kentucky. There is plenty of talent left in Tigerland, however, and Jordan will have the services once again of QB Pat Sullivan and fine receiver Terry Beasley. Wallace Clark is a proven FB while Larry Willingham gives strength to the defensive secondary. A fine crew of sophomores also is ready to step in and help.

SERIES HISTORY: This will be the first meeting between Kentucky and Utah State.

1970 OUTLOOK: Chuck Mills expects to have more speed among his offensive players this season, but the rest of the Aggie picture is a little clouded. For sure, USU has 18 lettermen returning and approximately 14 of those started some games in '69. Twenty-five squadmen are back and about two dozen junior college players arrived for spring quarter of study and spring practice. Several of the newcomers are defensive line candidates, an area which was almost completely vacated by graduation last year. Tailback John Strycula proved to be the bright new backfield star for the Aggies last season by finishing second in rushing, first in receiving and punt returns and filling in at quarterback. Defensive lineman Ray Child, 6-4, 240, looks like another in a long line of great defensive tackles at Utah State. Receivers Bob Wicks and Wes Garnett are good bets to be key targets for State passers.

SERIES HISTORY: Inaugurated with a game at Baton Rouge in 1949, the Kentucky-Louisiana State grid series is the youngest football rivalry within the Southeastern Conference. A total of 20 meetings make up the series which has been annual encounters with the exception of the 1951 season and the count now stands tipped in the Bengals' favor, 14 wins to five plus a 6-6 tie in 1953. The Billy Cannon-led Tigers, enjoying their greatest seasons during the 1957-59 period, overcame the Wildcats' 4-2-1 edge in the series by taking three straight decisions in these years. UK tied it up eight years ago with a 3-0 upset victory in Lexington and then nationally ranked LSU survived determined bids for glory by the upstart 'Cats in the last nine seasons to notch successes that gave it a commanding lead. A new era in the rivalry dawned in 1962 with ex-Wildcats Charlie Bradshaw and Charles McClendon at the grid helms of the respective schools. McClendon posted eight straight wins over his former teammate and then won last year over new Wildcat coach John Ray.

LAST MEETING: Oct. 19, 1969 (Lexington) LSU 37, UK 10—Charlie McClendon brought to his old collegiate playing field one of the finest teams to face the Wildcats all season. Featuring substitutes whose skills approached those of the starters, the Tigers rushed for 209 yards and passed for 280. Kentucky got some breaks in the first half, but could cash them in for only three points—a 32-yard field goal by Bob Jones. The Tigers lost three fumbles and had two passes intercepted. The LSU boys were amazing, however, as evidenced by Tom Casanova, a defensive back who had run the ball only three times during the season. He put the Tigers out front to stay with 5:32 left in the first period as he outran UK's defense for a 27-yard TD.

1970 OUTLOOK: Charles McClendon, beginning his ninth season at the Bengal helm, sports a 61-21-4 record, one of the best in the nation, and led his 1969 team to a 9-1 campaign which earned it a spot in the Top Ten. LSU had the best defense against rushing in 1969 and was third in the nation in fewest points allowed, but all that failed to get them an invite to a post-season major bowl game. But that was last year. Now McClendon must solve some vexing problems, including replacements for eight starters on offense and seven on defense. The Tigers are loaded with talent as usual, however, and have a good nucleus in TB Tommy Casanova, QB Buddy Lee, receivers Andy Hamilton, Ken Kavanaugh and Randy Toms, offensive linemen Glenn Alexander, Mike Wright, Steve Martin and All-SEC soph Mike Demarie. LB Mike Anderson is a definite All-America candidate while the defensive backfield returns intact. In other words, the Tigers are loaded.

SERIES HISTORY: Georgia and Kentucky began their rivalry on the football field with a game at Louisville on Oct. 21, 1939. The two schools met almost annually from that time until the series was broken off after the 1949 game and not resumed until 1956 with a game at Athens. During the 22 years that Wally Butts tutored the Bulldogs (1938-60), Georgia laid claim to nine victories in the 14-game series. Kentucky took the initial game in 1939 and tied the following year, but it was 1947 before it picked up another win. All told, UK shows but five victories with the last in 1965. Despite Georgia's superiority, the series generally has been interesting as reflected by the fact that Butts' four SEC championship outfits managed an average win margin of only 11 points over Kentucky. Demonstrating the frustrating turn that the series has taken in recent years is the fact that only 15 points separated the two clubs in the five meetings preceding a 21-7 loss by Kentucky four years ago. In 1965, the Wildcats smacked Georgia with its worst defeat of the campaign—a 28-10 lacing representing the most points ever scored by UK in the series. Georgia has won the last four rather handily.

LAST MEETING: Oct. 26, 1969 (Athens) UG 30, UK 0—Before 55,781 fans, most ever to see a Kentucky-Georgia game, the homestanding Bulldogs rode the kicking of Spike Jones and Mike McCullough to a 13-0 halftime lead and were never in trouble. Jones kept the Wildcats deep in their own territory the entire first half, during which UK didn't get beyond its own 29-yard line. The first Bulldog score was set up by Buck Swindle, who took a 51-yard Dave Hardt punt on his own 25 and sprinted to the UK nine before being knocked out of bounds by Roger Gann. Mike Cavan threw to Charles Whittemore for a touchdown and McCullough kicked the point. On the ensuing kickoff, Kentucky fumbled on the first play and David McKnight recovered on the UK 23. McCullough made it 10-0 with a 33-yard field goal. With less than three minutes remaining in the first half, Paul Martin fumbled a punt return on the UK 21 and Georgia recovered. The Wildcats held, but McCullough's field goal try from the 34 split the goal. McCullough got a third field goal, from the 29, in the third quarter for a Bulldog record.

1970 OUTLOOK: Vince Dooley, starting his seventh season, may find more open positions than at any time since his first year at U.G. Holdover talent from the varsity, scout team and upcoming freshman squad is promising, but the problem of piecing it all together plus integrating two new coaches into the Georgia procedures will be a challenge for the successful young coach. The area with most returnees is the offensive line, where only T Wayne Byrd was lost; returning are All-America soph T Tom Nash, junior TE Billy Brice, senior center Tommy Lyons and SE Charles Whittemore. QBs Mike Cavan and Paul Gilbert, both seniors, give the Bulldogs talent and depth at that key position. FB Julian Smiley, UG's leading rusher last season, is the only backfield returnee with varsity experience. All-SEC G Steve Greer anchors the defensive line while S Buck Swindle and HBs Billy Darby and Phil Sullivan return to the secondary. All-America Chip Wisdom heads the LB Corps.

SERIES HISTORY: The only game on record is a 15-6 Kentucky loss Oct. 22, 1909, to North Carolina A&M, forerunner of North Carolina State, at Raleigh.

ONLY MEETING: UK 6, North Carolina A&M 15.

1970 OUTLOOK: The enthusiasm of youth will have to overcome some uncertainty surrounding an inexperienced 1970 North Carolina State University football team. The Wolfpack, which has finished no worse than second in the Atlantic Coast Conference during the past seven seasons, does not have as many established football players as in recent years and will have to rely heavily upon a lot of new blood if State is to make a radical transfusion from its 3-6-1 over-all mark of 1969 and 3-2-1 record. The Wolfpack lost 13 starters and 16 lettermen from a year ago and has 27 lettermen back, with a good many of the letters won in reserve roles. Only offensive starters returning are tackle Rich Starodub, center Dan Sarik, quarterback Darrell Moody and fullback Dave Rodgers. Defensively, tackle Dan Medlin, middle guard George Smith, end Steve Rummage, and backs Jack Whitley and Jimmy Smith are around for another season. The Wolfpack lost some stout performers in all-America Ron Carpenter at defensive tackle, along with all-ACC men Don Jordan at offensive guard, linebacker Mike Hilka, and punter-safety Gary Yount, along with the total offense leader Charlie Bowers. This doesn't mean that the Wolfpack won't have some good football players with experience. On defense, headliners include middle guard George Smith, tackle Medlin and end Clyde Chesney, while two-year all-ACC Whitley, and Jimmy Smith are good, quick and experienced secondary performers. Sarik Rodgers, and Moody return after starting all ten games in 1969 and they represent the most experience on offense.

WILDCAT MASCOTS HAD COLORFUL NAMES

Over the years, Kentucky athletic teams have been spurred on in efforts toward victory by numerous colorfully-named wildcat mascots. Records indicate the first animal was given to the University in 1921. Named "Tom," this live Kentucky wildcat died quickly in captivity and was replaced with "TNT." Other live macots followed—including "Whiskers," "Hot Tamale," and "Colonel"—only to pass from the scene due to death or being turned loose in the mountains after they did not thrive out of their native habitat.

SERIES HISTORY: Kentucky and the Vanderbilt Commodores first got together on the gridiron way back in 1896 at Nashville and the rivalry has been perpetuated intermittently ever since with the result that it is one of the oldest in the South from the standpoint of first meeting and number of games. History shows a record solidly in Vandy's favor—25 wins to Kentucky's 13 and four ties. Vandy registered 12 shut-outs in the first 26 years of the rivalry and UK did not get into the win column until 1939. Kentucky's 27-0 homecoming rout of the Commodores in 1960 ended a three-year trend to close games, but the rivalry got back in the groove in 1961 as UK struggled strangely before taking a 16-3 decision. The 1962 contest proved almost a carbon copy of that game as UK just could not connect on all the scoring chances weak Vanderbilt offered and wound up taking a 7-0 decision. The closeness trend.

was overemphasized to the degree that both clubs wound up scoreless in 1963 and only one point (22-21), separated the pair in 1964 as Kentucky broke a four-game losing streak, but hungry UK blasted Vandy, 34-0 in 1965 and notched one of its three 1966 wins at the Commodores' expense. The Wildcats won again in 1967, but Vandy edged the Kentuckians, 6-0, two years ago and then romped, 42-6, last season.

LAST MEETING: Nov. 8, 1969 (Nashville) VU 42, UK 6—With 25,010 homecoming fans watching in what must have been utter amazement, an ordinary Vanderbilt team enjoyed its greatest half of modern times by rolling to a 35-0 lead over a UK team which did manage to pull itself together and play the Commodores evenly in the final 30 minutes. In the first two periods, Vandy had the ball for eight series of plays and scored on five of them. The Wildcats, obligingly, made every mistake in the book. Sophomore QB Watson Brown completed 14 of 16 passes for 132 yards and three touchdowns. Kentucky, meanwhile, was busy turning the ball over twice on interceptions, once on a fumble and a fourth time on a fourth-down mixup in which Dave Hardt was unable to get off a punt. Vandy scored twice within a little over a minute late in the first period to set the displeasing trend.

1970 OUTLOOK: Despite the loss of All-America tackle Bob Asher and the SEC rushing champion, TB Doug Mathews, coach Bill Pace is optimistic in some respects but reserve in others. On the plus side of the ledger, one name stands out. He is Watson Brown, Cookeville, Tenn., junior who took over in the third game of last season and performed like a veteran. Starting FB Allan Spear is back and playing TB while Bill Young was moved to FB. The defensive backfield returns starters Mal Wall and Greg O'Neal while John Robinson, one of Vandy's top candidates for All-SEC honors, returns at defensive tackle. Pace's rebuilding program is moving at Vanderbilt. Watch for some surprises.

SERIES HISTORY: Until recently, the Wildcats enjoyed things pretty much their way in the grid rivalry with Florida, posting a 12-4 advantage in games played through 1955. The Gators bounced back, however, with victories the past four years and closed the gap to 12-8. The series started in 1917 with Kentucky shellacking the Gators, 52-0, in Lexington. Florida managed only a pair of victories prior to 1952, but then started to come on strong. One of the unusual moments occurred in 1955, when Delmar Hughes, a Wildcat quarterback sidelined earlier in the game by a broken nose, came off the bench and kicked a 20-yard field goal to give UK a 10-7 decision. A year later, tackle Lou Michaels booted a rain-soaked ball 34 yards with two seconds remaining in the first half to put UK ahead to stay.

LAST MEETING: Nov. 15, 1969 (Gainesville) UK 31, UK 6—Kentucky fell behind after 14 seconds, the time it took sophomore Harvin Clark to return Bill Bushong's opening kickoff 96 yards, tying the longest return ever against Kentucky by Louisiana State's Joe May in 1955. And after 11 minutes and 24 seconds of the first period had elapsed, UK was down 21-0 as UF scored the first three times it got the ball. Gator quarterback John Reaves and flanker-split end Carlos Alvarez were the big guns; Reaves finished with 26 completions in 42 attempts for 280 yards, both performances giving him SEC records with one game left to play. Alvarez caught 10 tosses for 105 yards to claim a school record of 73 receptions for the year. The Wildcat TD came with 1:48 remaining in the third quarter as reserve defensive halfback Joe Stephan intercepted a Reaves pass on the UK 11 and, skipping over one diving tackler, went untouched and all alone 89 yards.

1970 OUTLOOK: Doug Dickey, 37, returned to his alma mater as head football coach Dec. 30, 1969, bringing with him credentials as one of the nation's finest in his field. In the previous six years, he compiled a record of 46-15-4 as head coach at the University of Tennessee, sending the Vols to five bowls, winning two SEC championships and being named the league's Coach of the Year three times. At Florida, his alma mater, he was greeted by a fine array of talent, including All-America candidates QB John Reaves and Flk. Carlos Alvarez and such proven performers as TB Tommy Durrance Jr. and DE Jack Youngblood. The Gators look for a banner year.

SERIES HISTORY: Among the oldest football rivalries in the nation, the Kentucky-Tennessee series dates from a memorable encounter in Knoxville 75 years ago. In that meeting, Oct. 21, 1893, the Wildcats annexed a 60-0 victory to get the warfare off to an auspicious start in a fashion that hasn't been equalled in the many and colorful renewals of the traditional rivalry. Except for three war years (1917-18 and 1943), the two schools have met annually on the gridiron with the result that the Vols hold a distinct edge of 37 wins to Kentucky's 19 and nine ties. The seniors on the 1955 UK squad became the first class in 43 years to graduate with the accomplishment of never playing in a game in which the Vols emerged victorious and they bowed out in a blaze of glory, triumphing 23-0 over the bowl-hungry Vols in the most one-sided Kentucky win since 1935. Tennessee took the 1961 meeting for its first victory in five years, but UK's courageous "Thin Thirty" fought back to win a 12-10 squeaker in 1962. The Vols caught Kentucky in a letdown in 1963 to annex a 19-0 decision, but Kentucky capped a strange 1964 campaign in glorious fashion by capturing a hard-fought, 12-7 victory over the equally inconsistent Tennesseans. Without passing star Rick Norton, injured the week before in the Houston game, Kentucky could not cope with the Vols in '65 and dropped a 19-3 decision. Tennessee has won the four other games since that date.

Since 1925, the two schools have stimulated their grid rivalry with a rotating trophy—a battered old beer barrel. Many shenanigans on the part of the rival student bodies have added to the color of the series. Following the 1953 UK win, disgruntled Tennessee students raided the Kentucky campus and "kegnapped" the barrel—holding it until persuaded to return it by threats of reprisal against their coon dog mascot, Smoky. In 1955, UK students visited the Tennessee campus hiding place of Smoky and "dognapped" him. UT students promptly retaliated by painting up the Kentucky campus in a surprise raid and carting away "Colonel," UK's stuffed wildcat mascot. A trade was engineered at the '55 game. For a couple of years, things were comparatively quiet. Then the stunts erupted again in 1958 as Vol students caught a guard "napping" and slipped away with UK's stuffed Wildcat. Despite promises to return it at halftime of a nationally-televised basketball game, the mascot wasn't given back until nearly four months later. A post-game sidelight to Kentucky's victory in 1959 saw a strange calm shattered by rioting UK students protesting a faculty refusal to reward the win with a traditional pre-Thanksgiving holiday. Up to 5,000 demonstrators and onlookers carried on for about four and one-half hours, marching on the UK president's home and setting a bonfire at a main intersection in downtown Lexington. The famed beer barrel, which had remained in hiding during "Tennessee week" in 1960, came up missing almost four months later under unusual circumstances. Vanderbilt students "kegnapped" the trophy in a surprise attempt to gain support of Vol fans for the Commodores' basketball team which was meeting the Wildcats in Knoxville in a playoff for an NCAA Tournament berth. The stunt backfired, however, as UK won. Embarrassed Vandy students did not return the trophy until several months later. Nine years ago, another chapter was added to the keg's history as two UK freshman players forgot to bring the barrel to the game and the Vols left town without claiming it. Kentucky sent the keg on to Knoxville later. Since then, a strange calm has surrounded the old beer barrel.

LAST MEETING: Nov. 22, 1969 (Lexington) UT 31, UK 26—Three Kentucky quarterbacks completed 28 of 46 passes for 440 yards and a new school record in each category, but mistakes proved the downfall of the hometowners. Starting QB Steve Tingle hit for nine out of 20, Bernie Scruggs completed 16 of 22 and Stan Forston hit three for three. Roger Gann, playing his last game, caught five passes for 122 yards, but fell 12 yards short of the school record for rushing yardage for a season of 671 set by Rodger Bird in 1964. The Gator-bowl Volunteers, meanwhile cashed in on every UK miscue, including two pass interceptions and three fumbles, the last one in the end zone by Jack Reynolds for a touchdown and the deciding margin of 31-26.

1970 OUTLOOK: Huge holes ripped in the defense by graduation must be repaired before the Vols will be ready to defend their Southeastern Conference championship. Only three members of rugged defensive crew return, headed by all-star candidates LB Jackie Walker and DB Tim Priest. James Woody, who did a good job after switching from guard to end, is back. Walker should continue the Vol tradition for super

LB play, but coming up with a pair of head-hunters to replace Steve Kiner and Jack Reynolds poses a major problem for first-year coach Bill Battle. Offensively, the situation is considerably brighter, eight regulars returning from a unit that averaged 31 points a game. Curt Watson, junior fullback who made all-SEC last year while averaging 5.5 yards a carry, is an All-America candidate in a backfield that returns intact. Quarterback Bobby Scott will direct the attack and head up a throwing game that could suffer in the early season for lack of experienced receivers. Wingback Lester McClain will be on hand, but gone are ends Gary Kreis and Ken DeLong. Don McLeary at tailback will join Watson to form a potent running game that should be able to take up the slack while the passing attack strives for efficiency. Scott, Watson and McLeary are comforted by the thought the entire interior line returns, built around consensus All-America guard Chip Kell, winner of the Jacobs Trophy as the best blocker in the SEC.

STOLL FIELD — McLEAN STADIUM

Much confusion among the general public and the sports-writing fraternity apparently exists over a seeming duplication of titles in referring to the University of Kentucky's football setup along "Avenue of Champions."

Officially, by action of the University Board of Trustees, the general area encompassing the playing field is known as "Stoll Field." Likewise by authority of the same body, the stadium proper is known as "McLean Stadium."

Kentucky's first football field, occupying the general site of what is now an intramural field west of the stadium, was first given a name when it was dedicated on October 14, 1916, as Stoll Field in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of the University of Kentucky. Soon after the first sections of the present concrete stadium were completed on September 4, 1924, the new field site and stadium were likewise officially known as Stoll Field.

The first attraction to be held on the new Stoll Field was a football game with the University of Louisville on October 4, 1924. A gridiron clash between Kentucky and the then-powerful Centre College team was the first game played in the fully-completed stadium on November 1, 1924.

The later reference to the concrete stands as "McLean Stadium" has existed since November 1, 1924, when the stadium was officially dedicated in memory of Price Innes McLean and a bronze plaque placed in the south stands by the Class of 1925. McLean, regular center on the 1923 Kentucky football squad, died November 7, 1923, as the result of injuries sustained in the U.K.-Cincinnati game played in the Queen City the afternoon before.

Major expansions of McLean Stadium in 1948, 1949 and 1959 have resulted in a current over-all seating capacity of approximately 37,500. The latest construction installed 3,655 new permanent box seats at a cost of $115,000 and increased capacity by 1,629. New-type, "iodized" lights were installed in 1961.

A complete "face lifting" was accomplished on Stoll Field during the spring of 1962 at a cost of several thousand dollars. In the interest of preparing a durable turf that will eliminate the almost annual resodding process, a complete new drainage system was installed and tons of specially mixed topsoil hauled in to replace the existing hardpan. The project also raised the crown of the playing surface for better visibility by spectators. With the special strain of Bermuda grass thriving to an extent never before seen at Kentucky, the Wildcats now entertain foes on one of the best football fields in the nation.

New practice facilities were prepared in 1960 for the football Wildcats on the University farm. As part of a $320,000 Sports Center, the varsity and freshman gridders now practice on an area equivalent to five football fields in size. Along with the new field, they have space in a modern dressing room building—making a facility recognized as one of the best in the nation.

KENTUCKY OUTLOOK FOR 1970

The 1970 University of Kentucky football team will be much improved, but so will the opposition. The Wildcats are bigger and faster, with the added speed furnished mostly by talented newcomers.

Steve Parrish, a fine receiver, who, teamed with Jim Grant, gives the Wildcats a good downfield passing target. The trouble is getting someone who can throw the ball to them. John Ray used three quarterbacks—Stan Forston, Bernie Scruggs and Steve Tingle—in starting roles last year. They are back, along with Soph. Dave Asher, but the position—most important to a football squad—still hangs in the air; no one has come forth to exert himself as the No. 1 man.

Ray's running game will be satisfactory, with Lee Clymer, who transferred from Wake Forest, and Houston Hogg, a senior letterman who looked great in spring drills. The offensive line is improved, thanks to sophomore Tom Clark of Owensboro, Ky., and Mike Meck, who transferred from Palomar Junior College in San Marco, Calif. Pat Eckenrod is an All-Conference candidate at center.

The defensive secondary is much improved. Sophomore Buzz Burnam and Jasper Swindle are talented newcomers. The defensive line will rate with any in the nation. Tackle David Roller is an All-America candidate.

Despite improvements in practically all categories, the Wildcats will find the schedule very tough. After opening against North Carolina, they take on a vastly improved Kansas State and then tackle Mississippi, victim of a big 10-9 upset at Lexington last year. The schedule also includes Auburn, Utah State, LSU, Georgia, N. Carolina State, Vanderbilt, Florida and Tennessee, enough to test anyone's mettle.

STOLL FIELD COW PASTURE' BIRTHPLACE OF DIXIE FOOTBALL

University of Kentucky's campus boasts the distinction of serving as the birthplace of Dixie football. Ironically, however, the forerunners of the present day Wildcats were not involved in the early grid contest.

The first inter-collegiate football game ever played in the South, and probably the first to take place west of the Alleghanies, came about April 9, 1880, on old Stoll Field. This gridiron, located adjacent to the present U.K. stadium, was the site of the early tilt which saw Kentucky University (now known as Transylvania College) take the measure of Centre College, 13¾ to 0. The match, which was said to resemble a combination of soccer and rugby, followed by only six years the introduction of the game of football to the United States.

University of Kentucky (then called A & M College of Kentucky) did not play its first game until a year later on the same field, which once served as the private pasture for University President James Patterson's bovine herd.

(Kentucky University is not to be confused with the present day University of Kentucky. U. of K., known in these early days as A&M College, was separated from K.U. in 1878. Transylvania College of Lexington evolved from old K.U. while A&M became Univ. of Ky. During the process, U. of K. carried successive titles of A&M College, Kentucky State College, and State University of Kentucky. See footnote A for explanation of scoring in early games.)

Footnote A — Although numerical scoring had not yet been introduced in Rugby football, either here or in Great Britain, when Kentucky and Transylvania (then known as Kentucky University) played their series in 1881, persons in charge of the games obviously had arrived at some sort of agreement assigning numerical values to the various scoring plays. Records never existed and men who played in the games are now deceased. All we can do is accept the scores printed in the newspapers—and surmise that a touchdown perhaps counted ¼ point and that a goal or an end-kick (a punt into the modern end zone) counted 1. That seems logical, since in the ratio scoring of that day, a touchdown was worth one-quarter of a goal. The end-kick, a British heritage, undoubtedly was introduced because all realized that green players would score few goals, if any.

Footnote B — The football rules took no official position on the score of a forfeited game until 1908 when it was pegged at 1-0 to make it different from any other score possible in the game. By common consent, forfeited games prior to that were entered into the records as victories by 6-0 for the offended team—everywhere, that is, except in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association, predecessor of the Southern Conference and the Southeastern Conference. In the S. I. A. A. the 6-0 practice was followed unless the offended team had a greater number of points. In that case, the offended team won by the greater score to nothing. Thus, Kentucky's forfeiture to Central University in 1900 is 6-0, since Kentucky led by 11-0 at the time. Kentucky led Cumberland by 12-11 in 1905 when the Tennesseans forfeited. The Blue and White, under S. I. A. A. rules, gets credit for a 12-0 victory.

ORIGIN OF "WILDCATS" NICKNAME

Kentucky's athletic teams are known to sports fans as the Wildcats. This first and only nickname borne by University varsities had its origin in 1909 in a speech made by Commandant Corbusier, then head of the military department of old State College. Speaking to a chapel audience of students on the showing of the Kentucky football team in defeating Illinois six to two, the Commandant declared "they fought like Wildcats." The tag was popularized by word of mouth and by the press with the result that it has since become synonymous with all major Kentucky athletic teams.
