

G.R.A.

Wednesday
14th February

I fear Heleny. It was a real shame that I didn't have a chance at Christmas time to have a chat with you. at Harry & Ruth's there was so much excitement and not much chance of talking and then you stayed all night
- well I never saw you again. I wanted to hear all about your school and how you liked it but alas!

Did you have a good time over the holidays? I know you did and I bet when the time came to go back you were glad. Give my best to Monte and Stella and tell them I am hoping they are real good girls and sweet to their mistresses and never break the rules. I bet you all get nice and fat with so little activity - Never mind all fat people have attractive dispositions St. Louis is a very wicked city but last night the snow came, and now
