Kittens Open Saturday

The Kittens will start their season Saturday night on the Gym floor, when they wage one of those slashing, furious, effeminate mix-ups with the University of Cincinnati female genders.

Katie Henry and her Kentucky "warriors" are primed for the slugfest.

CAMPAIGN IS ON FOR EUROPEAN STUDENTS

All Classes Are Asked To Contribute To The Fund.

WEAR A TAG

The campaign to aid the suffering students of Europe was started Tuesday in chapel. L. R. Ringo and Dr. B. J. Bush addressed the student body emphasizing the need and the reason for giving assistance to these foreign students.

The committee, composed of four class presidents and vice presidents, and Miss Frances Jewell, chairman, is not leaving a single stone unturned in the attempt to raise the amount of money that will make the University of Kentucky rank with the other universities in the effort to save the present generation of students in Europe.

The Freshmen, Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes are competing to see which will do the most for the University when the test really comes. Each member of each class should go to the committee and do their part by contributing to this class enterprise and at the same time render a service to his fellow student and the world.

For each contribution the Freshmen will wear a red tag, the Sophomores gold, the Juniors blue and the Seniors purple. Everybody wear a tag.

KAPPA ALPHA GIVES R. E. LEE BANQUET

Enoch Grehan Presides as Toastmaster of Occasion

Theta Chapter of Kappa Alpha entertained with a banquet in the ballroom of the Lafayette hotel at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening in celebration of General Robert E. Lee's birthday.

Prof. Enoch Grehan presided as toastmaster of the occasion. Toasts responded to were: "Dieu Et Les Dames," William Baker; "The Order," Fred Houston-Shaw; "The Grand Old Man," Colonel Sam Wilson and "The Alumni," Spencer Carrick.

The banquet was attended by the active chapter: Fred Houston-Shaw, Warren Clare, David Thornton, Fred Augsburg, Maxwell Franklin, Bowman Grant, John Burks, Charles Downing, Garland Davis, Charles Robinson, Harold Robertson, Coleman Collis, Gilbert Smith, Owsley Walton, Robert Bamber, Jesse Hawkins and Henry Taylor. Pledges: Dan Morse, Joe Grimes, Henry Harper, Harry Tilton, Russell VanZant, John Witherspoon, Brantwhaite Dewhurst and Dan Bowmar, Jr. A number of alumni members from a distance, in addition to those residing in Lexington, were also present at the banquet.

WILDCATS PUT GIGS IN GEORGETOWN TIGERS

Kentucky Captures Third Straight Game by Score of 38 to 23

SUPERB TEAMWORK

The Wildcats put the gigs in the Tigers from Georgetown College Tuesday evening in the third game of the 1921 basketball season by a score of 38 to 23. The game was fast and the outcome was uncertain until the final whistle.

For the first few minutes it looked as if the Tigers were going to give the Blues and Whites the fight of their lives. Then the Kentucky men got to work and exhibited a lightening system of passing and teamwork which could not easily be outclassed. The improvement over the game of a few days earlier was quite perceptible and should the team improve in the future as it has in the past a championship season is inevitable.

The second team, or "wrecking crew," went in in the last few seconds and were intending to make it hot for 'em when the whistle tumbled.

The lineup:
 Kentucky (38) Pos. Georgetown (23)
 Hayden (10).....F.....Funk (2)
 Kings (12).....F.....Adams (1)
 Atkins (12).....C.....Forwood (8)
 Lavin (4).....G.....Porter (2)
 Ridgeway.....G.....Jones
 Substitutes: Kentucky—Fest for Atkins, Fuller for Lavin, Wilhelm for Ridgeway, Smith for King, Poyntz for Hayden.
 Referee—"Pat" Devereaux.

E. L. FRAZIER VISITS UNIVERSITY CAMPUS

Now Connected With The American Car and Foundry Co.

Emery L. "Frizzy," Frazier was on the campus Tuesday morning saying "hello" to all his "dear friends and enemies," as he calls those of us who had the good fortune of knowing him while he was a student in the University. He was passing through here on the way to his home in Lawrenceburg and could not resist the temptation of a short visit to the University.

"Frizzy" left school last year to take up a position as stage manager of the Soldier Players at Camp Taylor, Louisville. During the summer he quit this work and went to New York, where he was offered a contract to play in the musical comedy, "Buddies." Just as he was about to succumb to the lure of the footlights and the siren call of applause, he was offered a position as practical engineer in the American Car and Foundry Company, which he accepted. Since that time he has appeared in but one play, a home talent presentation of "Oh Lady! Lady!"

When asked if he was coming back to school "Frizzy" answered, "No; the boy at last realizes that he has no brains." However he is hoping to stop over again next week on his way back to Pennsylvania.

FORUM MEET HAS SMALL ATTENDANCE

Only Forty of 240 Members Are Present at Monthly Meeting.

FEW GET TO SPEAK

Talks and reports were given by instructors who had attended meetings of educational associations of scientific research during the holidays at the regular monthly meeting of the Forum held in the Little Theatre Monday, January 17.

Those scheduled to speak were: Pauline Wherry, Red Cross; Amy Allen, College Librarian; Dr. P. K. Holmes, Hygiene; Dr. John J. Tigert and Gladys M. Lowe, Psychology; Dr. Harry Best, Sociology; P. C. Kerraker, Agriculture; C. W. Matthews, Horticulture; James B. Kelly, Farm Engineering; Dr. Charles A. Shull, Botany; Dr. M. Scherigo, Bacteriology; P. P. Boyd, Mathematics; A. M. Miller, Geology; D. L. Dantzer, Modern Languages; Dean W. T. Lafferty, Law; C. B. Nichols, Agriculture and E. Grehan, Journalism.

Each speaker was to give a five minute talk in which he was to bring out the latest theories of the scientific world regarding the subject in which he was interested. But due to the limitation of time only the following got to speak: Pauline Wherry, P. K. Holmes, J. J. Tigert, Harry Best, J. B. Kelley, C. A. Shull, M. Scherigo, P. P. Boyd, A. M. Miller, D. L. Dantzer.

TWO PERFORMANCES OF DEKOVEN'S OPERA "ROBIN HOOD," GIVEN BEFORE PACKED HOUSES

Students of Department of Music Produce Famous Show at Lexington Opera House Before Faculty, Students, Townspeople and School Children

DIRECTION OF PROFESSOR CARL LAMPERT

Playing before a packed house, students of the University of Kentucky under the direction of Professor Lampert, head of the Department of Music, produced the famous DeKoven masterpiece, "Robin Hood," at the Lexington Opera House last night. The show was also given before an audience of Lexington school children Wednesday afternoon.

Commenting on the play the Lexington Herald said:

"Martha McClure, in the role of Maid Marian, not only looked the gracious part of the sweetheart of Robin Hood, but sang all her numbers in charming voice, suiting the action gracefully to the lines. Her part in the play was an outstanding feature.

"In the lesser feminine parts Margaret Smith stood out in the role of the dashing, smashbuckling, treacherous, romantic and repentant Alan-a-Dale. She sang sweetly and acted superbly, emphasizing her former training and experience in stellar roles of other years.

"Justine Heintz as Annabel, coquettish daughter of Dame Durden, a little miss of striking grace and charming voice, showed distinctive acting and singing ability and called for many encores.

"Lucy Smith appeared to marked advantage as Dame Durden, and in her passages with her recreant husband, the wily sheriff of Nottingham, contributed much to the comedy of the piece.

"Among the men of the cast Crawford Anderson, playing Will Scarlet, brought to the piece perhaps the most striking voice of all the men singers and came into instant fame as a coming young bass singer.

"Then there were Friar Tuck, done by Thomas Riley; Little John, by Thomas Brooks; John R. Currey as the dashing rover, Robin Hood; John F. Dahlinger as Sir Guy Gisborne and Neal Sullivan, who played with marked ability and piquant comedy the difficult part of the Sheriff of Nottingham, the famous sleuth with the "eagle eye and massive brain" that gives Robin Hood its chief flavor. All these did their work admirably, with the net result that the opera was virtually a flawless offering. The remainder of the characters carried minor parts.

"The chorus was snappy, picturesque and sang with the sort of dash and harmony that reflected accurate understanding of the requirements of the piece. The dancing number at the opening was beautifully done by a bevy of some of the prettiest girls in the university.

"The costumes of the piece were de-

DENTAL CLINIC HELD IN THE DISPENSARY

Every Student to be Examined by Department of Hygiene.

The Dental Clinic, as a part of the work of the Department of Hygiene and Public Health, began on Wednesday in the Dispensary. It will be conducted each Wednesday from 3:00 to 5:00 p. m. until every student in the University has had an examination of the mouth and teeth. A card indicating the results of the examination will be given each person examined. Those needing dental attention will be recommended for treatment to local or home dentists. These examinations are being conducted free of charge. The women will be given attention first. Miss Tillie B. Greathouse, resident nurse, will be in charge of the Clinic. She will assist Dr. E. C. Elliott who will do the examining.

PHILOSOPHANS SELECT ANNUAL PRODUCTION

"As a Woman Thinketh" to Be Given Early in March

CAST CHOSEN SOON

The Philosopher Literary Society has selected for its tenth annual dramatic production, "As a Woman Thinketh," by Edith Panton, to be given in the Little Theatre in early March. Tryouts are well under way and the play will be rehearsed under the skillful supervision of Professor Mikesell, assisted by the staff of managers. Men for the cast will be selected from the Strollers and the Patterson Literary Society.

The play is vitalizing, interesting, comedy and was selected by a committee after careful consideration. The cast includes thirteen persons and has a female lead, that of Mrs. Weeden, whose new ideas of mental science applied to her prodigal family are delightful and amusing to a popular audience. Suke, the maid, a blackface comedian, is a role to be attained by some initial star.

The cast will be selected next week, and rehearsals will begin after mid-semester examinations.

I would rather have two girls at seventeen, than one at thirty-four.

THE FORUM MEETING

In other columns of The Kernel appears a report of the last meeting of the University Forum whose membership is made up of the staff of the University. This is the second meeting of the Forum since its organization late in the year just closed.

Outstanding comment on the meeting was that attendance was distressingly small, but that addresses before the meeting were perhaps the most interesting, because of scientific research work discussed, that have yet been made, hence the loss to those not present.

Although The Kernel is a student paper and has no intention of criticizing adversely the staff or faculty, it cannot refrain from a passing expression of regret that meetings so manifestly beneficial to teaching staffs, and consequently resultantly so for the student body through possibilities of wider and better presentation of subjects taught. Forum members did not see their way clear to manifest greater interest in such cultural activities as the University had a right to believe and The Kernel does believe they really felt, especially those members of that body who are engaged in teaching.

It is barely possible, however, that inclemency of weather, that pressing work, that distractions peculiar to the meeting of exacting problems of the new year supply satisfactory explanation for such apparent apathy in this instance.

Again disclaiming any purpose to criticize, The Kernel feels it is justifying its mission merely to help when it calls attention to a condition like this that cannot but reflect lack of interest in problems that present themselves in the upbuilding of the University and promotion of courses and methods, study and teaching.

The Kernel would be gratified to see the University Forum the outstanding, forward looking, force in this institution that its members are so eminently able to make it.

UNIVERSITY DOCTORS ADDRESS FAYETTE MEDICAL SOCIETY

Dr. P. K. Holmes, Dr. A. G. Ireland and Dr. E. M. Locke of the University faculty addressed the Fayette Medical Society last Tuesday on phases of the dispensary service and physical care of students of Kentucky.

HEALTH TALKS

By Dr. P. K. Holmes.

SMALLPOX

Smallpox is one of the few diseases the cause of which is not known. It is one of the most easily communicated diseases, probably by way of touching the clothing, of utensils used by, or the body of, the sick person. It is probably not carried through the air.

Smallpox formerly was one of the great world scourges, but in civilized countries at the present time smallpox is rather mild wherever it occurs. It is now somewhat prevalent in a mild form in scattered parts of the State.

Where vaccination laws are rigidly enforced smallpox ceases to exist. This was especially true of Germany before the war and it is comparatively rare in the United States Army today. If all citizens were required to be vaccinated smallpox would be made practically extinct.

Vaccination is the introduction into the system of pus from the sore of a calf that has smallpox. This means the substitution of the exceeding mild disease, cowpox, for the much more severe and dangerous disease of smallpox. The vaccine or pus used is got in the most careful and clean way possible under very rigid government supervision. This makes infection from other diseases practically impossible. The sickness and sore arms which are occasionally got from vaccination are due to real infection got after the vaccination from being careless about keeping the vaccination wound carefully protected.

Vaccination may need to be repeated several times before it is safe to conclude that the person is immune. Immunity may be assumed after five carefully done vaccinations which are all negative. Vaccination gives immunity for about seven years. Immunity appears about the eight day after the vaccination. The only way, then, to avoid smallpox is by vaccination.

MISS WHERRY HAS ARTICLE IN SURVEY

In the January number of the "Survey" appears an article by Miss Pauline Wherry, "Presenting Case Work to Kentucky Students." In this article a complete discussion is given of the plan of study for the students of social service work at the University of Kentucky.

GRADUATES ATTEND SCIENTIFIC MEETING

Mr. Porch, who was graduated from the University of Kentucky as an industrial chemist in 1904 and is now connected with the Heinz Pickle Company, Pittsburgh, and Mr. Clo, a graduate of the College of Arts and Sciences in 1904, and present head of the Department of Physics, Pittsburgh, were present at the meeting of the American Association of Science held in Chicago during the holidays.

Miss Blanding will meet any women of the faculty, who care to take gymnasium on Wednesday of each week, beginning January 26, from 4:30 to 5:30 o'clock.

Those wishing to join will please give their names to Doctor Locke or Miss Greathouse, of the Department of Public Health and Hygiene, or notify Miss Blanding.

Word has been received from John H. Davis, Kentucky's Rhodes Scholar, of his safe arrival in Oxford, England. Davis arrived in Oxford, on January 6, after a pleasant voyage.

MAJOR TUCKER TO SPEAK

Major Albert J. Tucker will speak at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The subject will be "Student Honor." Every student should hear this talk.

THE FORUM

To the Alumni Editor:

On two occasions recently it has been my privilege to referee basketball games for the Lexington High School. On both occasions Transylvania had a large representation of students there, pulling for Lexington Hi. They have one of their students coaching the girls' team. As far as I could see none of the Kentucky people were there. The students at Hi notice this and I just wonder if it wouldn't be a good idea for Kentucky to get in behind Lexington Hi in their athletics, their annual play and, in fact, all of their activities.

Many of those boys and girls are going to enter college. Is Kentucky going to get her share of them? Don't you think we might get a few more if we showed just a little more interest in them?

Last week T. U. announced in chapel that High School was going to play Frankfort Hi that night and urged all that could go. At least a hundred T. U. people were there. Kentucky is lying down on the job and is going to lose by it. Isn't there something that can be done to get the student body behind these boys and girls, nearly every one of whom should enroll at Kentucky when they are ready for collegiate work?

Miss Ellen A. Reynolds, '95, is teaching Home Demonstration and Sanitation at Cornell University, according to Miss Mary Le Grande Diddle, '95, of the Kentucky Experiment Station, who met her at the convention for the American Society for the Advancement of Science in Chicago. E. O. G. Kelly, '03, who is with the Experiment Station in Kansas, was at the convention.

Colonel John T. Geary, '97, is in command of Fort Strong, the largest fort in Boston harbor. He was formerly in command of Camp Taylor, Ky. The yacht takes the place of the thoroughbred in New England, says Colonel Geary.

John Tevis Gunn, '00, is Associate Professor of Modern Languages at Purdue University, LaFayette, Ind.

Rev. Gibson W. Taylor, '01, has returned to Kentucky, being located at Owensboro, after spending several years as a missionary among the French of Louisiana. After graduation he was a teacher for several years in Missouri, Arkansas, Maryland and Virginia. He was graduated from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1910. He taught in Louisiana Baptist College, at Pineville, for three years, resigning to enter the missionary field. He was the only missionary among the French whose native tongue was not theirs. Much of his time until a few weeks ago was spent as an evangelist. His brother, George M. Taylor, who was on the second football team in '98, when neither team was scored on during the season, is a farmer and stockman at Maceo, Ky.

Harry Preston Bassett, '01, is a chemical engineer with Meigs, Bassett & Slaughter at Philadelphia.

Wellington F. Scott, '02, is a special agent for the Columbia Insurance Company at Little Rock, Ark.

W. C. Payne, '04, is an instructor in Mathematics in Oklahoma A. & M. College, Stillwater, Okla.

John H. Wadsworth, '12, is a mechanical engineer and chief draftsman for the Triumph Electric Company, of Cincinnati.

"RELIGION WILL GROW OUT OF KNOWLEDGE"

Says Farquhar at Sunday Y. W. C. A. Meeting

A large number of young women attended the meeting of the Y. W. C. A. on Sunday evening, January 16, to hear the talk which was given by Professor E. F. Farquhar. He said that religion instead of growing out of ignorance, as it has in the past, will in the future grow out of truth and knowledge. He illustrated his points by telling the story of Meredith's novel, "The Shaving of Shagpat." Elizabeth Ellis gave a short piano selection.

The meeting was led by Roberta Thornton.

The reports were very interesting but the attendance was distressingly small as only about forty of the two hundred and forty members were present.

After the reports had been read, Doctor McVey commented on the attendance at the Forum meetings and expressed the hope that henceforth they would be more largely attended.

At the close of the meeting Chairman Miller appointed as program committee for the remainder of the session: Frances Jewell, Dr. Granville Terrell and Carol M. Sax.

TALK ON KENTUCKY'S EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM

Baker Addresses Freshmen at Matriculation Lecture

Professor Baker, of the Department of Education, spoke at Matriculation Lecture, Saturday, January 15, after the usual musical program by Professors Lampert and Warren. In his talk on "Kentucky's Educational Standing" Professor Baker told how high Kentucky stood in native ability but how low she was educationally. He said that the principal evil in the schools now is politics and it is for college graduates to eliminate this evil.

"The weakest point in the educational system at present," said Professor Baker, "is the County Superintendent. All counties are in need of a good superintendent and the only way to obtain one is to increase the salary. When this is done, when the attitude of the public is improved, and when the teachers are better prepared for the positions they hold, then we will have an ideal system of education."

DR. McVEY ADDRESSES LOUISVILLE ALUMNI

Club Holds Meeting at Watterson Hotel Wednesday.

The Kentucky Alumni Club of Louisville held a meeting Wednesday evening, January 19, at 7:30 on the mezzanine floor of the Henry Watterson Hotel, Louisville. President McVey, of the University of Kentucky, was principal speaker. Talks were also made by the Honorable Robert Gordon, member of the Board of Trustees, University of Kentucky, and by Mr. John Brown, of Shelbyville, president of the Alumni Association.

A business meeting was held at 9 p. m., followed by an informal buffet luncheon. The President outlined a plan of organization, and a constitution for the Club was adopted. A telegram expressing good wishes sent by the Louisville Club of the University of Kentucky to the Alumni Club in Louisville was read at the meeting.

TWO EX-PRESIDENTS ADDRESS PATTERSON

W. H. Peal Wins Congressional Debate Singlehanded

The Patterson Literary Society met Friday night, January 14, in Alumni Hall. Two ex-presidents of the society, both of whom are taking graduate work in the University, were on the program.

The first speaker, R. D. Warth, gave an address on, "The Simplicity of Government," a title taken from a statement by Senator Warren G. Harding. Harold B. McGregor gave a humorous reading selected from Procter Knott's Duluth Speech and Paul Cooper read a very instructive paper on the "Evils of Immigration."

"A debate: 'Resolved, That the Senate Should Be Abolished,' was given. W. H. Peal in the absence of the other speaker delivered both speeches on the affirmative and won. The negative was defended by W. K. Berryman and R. A. Logan.

MOTION PICTURES OF COLDSTREAM FARM

At New Chemistry Building Next Monday Night.

A rare treat is in store for the students of the University next Monday night at 7:30 p. m. Two complete reels with some slides of the famous Coldstream farm will be shown at the new Chemistry building under the direction of F. O. Bible, general manager of Coldstream livestock farm.

Mr. Bible will explain the pictures in detail and Professor Hooper will give a short talk. These pictures will afterwards be shown throughout Kentucky and probably throughout the entire country. It is indeed a rare opportunity to see these famous animals of which we have so often read and one which should create a good deal of interest.

BETTER COME TO-DAY

In Selecting a University---

For a college education, there are five things to be taken into consideration:

1. The men at the head of the Institution.
2. The scholastic standing and ability of the Teaching Staff.
3. The location and advantages of environment.
4. Equipment, buildings, laboratories and libraries.
5. Cost.

In all these respects the University of Kentucky commends itself to those seeking a higher institution in which to carry on their education.

All Departments, including Liberal Arts, Sciences, Agriculture, Law, Education, Mining, Civil, Electrical and Mechanical Engineering.

The Government needs trained men and women; college training will bring the result.
