on "Libraries and Literacy." It will address conceptual issues relating to the new Commonwealth Library, its siting, design and construction and "Landscaping the library," meaning both physical and intellectual landscaping, thus reflecting the future of library and information services in the information era.

Speakers will include Daniel Boorstin, Librarian of Congress Emeritus; Kallmann, McKinnell and Wood, the new library architects; James Carey, distinguished critic of the "electronic mythos"; and Sharon Zukin, author of LANDSCAPES OF POWER.

Topics include: The use of the book in disseminating information, with the notion that the book is "dead." The idea that new forms of information will dramatically change the nature and extent of information. The impact of new information technology on the way we think about time

FRIVOLITIES

CONSULTANT = an expert at being an expert.
One who gracefully accepts your money to find merit
in your sound proposal.

RESTRUCTURING = an attempt at self redemption, in which everyone and everything is moved up, down or sideways, and then given a new name to see if the [organization] works better that way.

DECENTRALISATION = A shift of the onus for having to answer for mistakes
from head office to the field.

from head office to the field.

PUBLIC RELATIONS = the task of relating to the public the company's objectives, as one might relate to the sheep the responsibilities of the wolf.

REVOLVING CREDIT = permanent debt.

STRESS MANAGEMENT = Seminar-speak for a stiffish g-and-t.

From the business jargon dictionary WHITE KNIGHTS AND POISON PILLS by David Olive and Paul Stephenson.

MANAGING THE UNKNOWNABLE: STATIEG BOUNDARIES BETWEEN ORDER AND CHAOS IN ORGANIZATIONS by Ralph D. Stacey
HD58.9 .S737 1992

A book for the business manager with a message that can equally be applied to libraries. The author contends that managers are too concerned with stability, emphasising as they do the setting and attaining of goals, when they should be accepting that the future direction is unknowable, they

they should be accepting that the future direction is unknowable, they should leave creativity free to flow, and thus let strategic direction emerge from the spontaneous interaction between people.
