

Student Writes Open Letter To McVey On O'Bannon Case

Writer Draws Conclusions After Investigating Facts

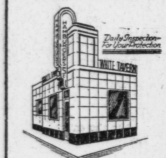

Dr. Frank L. McVey, President, University of Kentucky Lexington, Kentucky

Dear Dr. McVey: You will probably recall my talk with you about the O'Bannon case several days ago. Either previously or since that time I have interviewed several of the persons most closely associated with the situation and have read some of the correspondence. I have compiled this information, searched through it for facts, and drawn some conclusions from these facts. It is because of these facts and conclusions that I am writing this letter.

plans for the University building program. However, Mr. O'Bannon is not the only man who has disagreed with Dean Graham about this matter. Prof. R. C. Porter (May 17, 1937) of the College of Engineering resigned from that college because of such a disagreement. I quote from his letter to you—"The fact that Dean Graham has not met with his faculty as much as one time during this entire school year so that it might be informed by him concerning the many changes which he is instituting and thereby gain an understanding of the program of the college, in which it naturally has a great interest, is a matter which I am unable to connect with competent leadership."

Last of all I should like to ask you—do you think it is the right thing to do to transfer a man from one position to another in the University without his consent, and apparently without good reason? Suppose you as President of the University, had gone away on a year's leave and come back to find that one position is no longer filled and the Board had transferred you to a job as assistant in the college of agriculture.

I have not seen the last letters that Mr. O'Bannon wrote to the Board of Trustees but I understand from you that they are pretty strong. I should like to point out in this respect that Mr. O'Bannon has been trying for four years to obtain what he clearly considers his rights, and that for four years he has received nothing but rebuffs. Certainly if a man ever had a right to be a little impatient with his language in my opinion, Mr. O'Bannon is that man.

I do not know whether I am telling you anything new or probably you know much more about the situation than I do. However, I do know that you are withholding any information that will throw light on the question either for or against Mr. O'Bannon. It is your duty as President of the University to bring this forth toward a complete picture of the case in order that justice may be dealt to all concerned—Mr. O'Bannon, Dean Graham, yourself, and the University. (Signed) James C. Humphries.

GREEK GROUP TO ISSUE BOOK

Freshmen To Get Pamphlets In Fall

A magazine containing information of the history of the various fraternities on the campus is to be published by the Interfraternity Council. The magazine will be distributed to freshmen, it was decided at a recent meeting of the group. The magazine will be entitled, "The Kentucky Fraternity Man." Jim Woodridge, Kappa Alpha, is editor of the magazine, and Jack Gathof, Sigma Phi Epsilon, sophomore, is the business manager.

Containing pictures of each campus fraternity the booklet will have approximately 40 pages. Individual articles about the fraternities and several general features will be contained in the magazine.

Experiments Being Conducted With Castor Beans

If experiments now being conducted on the experiment station farm are successful, Kentucky farmers may produce castor beans for the manufacture of airplane oil, cellulose, and fiber. Dr. E. N. Ferguson, agronomist and crop specialist who is in charge of the experiments, this month is planting about 15 different kinds of beans to determine the growing and harvesting characteristics and yields of various varieties. The extensive use of castor oil in paints and varnishes, as well as its lubricating oil for high pressure engines, has created a greater demand for castor beans, according to Doctor Ferguson.

The best airplane engine oil contains a large proportion of castor oil, he pointed out. In addition, he said, large amounts of cellulose and fiber are contained in castor beans. At present most of the nation's supply of castor oil is imported from India and China. Doctor Ferguson said, but he sees no reason why Kentucky farmers should not create home products provided methods of growing and harvesting can be developed to successfully compete with other countries.

One thing to be done is to find new methods of harvesting to compete with cheap labor in Brazil. The crop specialist said, and he hopes to develop a method through the experiment now being conducted on the farm. This is the third year that tests have been made on growing castor beans. In the last two years yields ranged from 425 pounds to 1,565 pounds of beans to the acre. Since beans are about half oil, Doctor Ferguson explained that the high acreage yield produces about 780 pounds of castor oil.

Student Federation Slates Leaders' Summer School

Student government leaders from colleges throughout the United States will gather in Washington, D. C. June 18-25 for the first Student Leadership Training school, a project to be conducted by the National Student Federation of America.

The NSFA was organized to give a spirit of cooperation among the students of the United States; to develop an intelligent student opinion on questions of national and international importance; to foster understanding among the students of the world in the furthering of an enduring peace.

The leadership school is designed to give practical and general training in the field of student leadership. The week of intensive training consists of study periods and addresses by prominent public figures.

CWENS PLEDGES TO BE INITIATED National Officer Will Participate

Cwens, sophomore girls honorary, will hold formal initiation for 22 new members at 6 p. m. Monday in the Throughbred room of the Phoenix hotel.

Miss Jane Roby, national vice-president and graduate of the University, will participate in the initiation ceremony. Also taking part in the service will be Mrs. Sarah B. Holmes, sponsor, and the old officers.

There will be a meeting for the active members at 5 p. m. Saturday, in Room 204 of the Union building. Officers announced.

FEMINE UNIT

Now that spring has come the girls practice on the drill field in front of the Administration building. Hereafter drilling was conducted in the armory. Exercises held from 5 to 6 p. m. four days each week.

Volunteers will be accepted to the organization officers said. The only qualification is that they participate in at least three of the weekly sessions. When the organization was suggested, it was thought by many military students that the 30-30 army rifles would be too heavy for the women to handle. Bode said, this was found to be true for many of the women, who were therefore assigned to a scabbard platoon, which does not include rifle carrying in its requirements. This platoon will stage special drills when the rifle unit appears in public.

Bankers Will Hear UK Administrators

Three University administrators will appear on the program at the 1940 conference of the Kentucky Bankers' association to be held June 12-14 at Lafayette hotel.

President Frank L. McVey will deliver the welcoming address at the opening session, 10 a. m., Wednesday, June 12. Dr. Thomas P. Cooper, dean of the agriculture college will direct an agricultural program at 8 o'clock that night; and Dr. Edward West, dean of the commerce college will speak on "The Problems That Face Us" at the closing session during the afternoon of June 14.

Seniors Publish Job Pamphlets For Mailing

By JAMES HIGON
Jobs, Jobs, JOBS is the sheet of 200 students in commerce, education, and journalism this week as they feverishly mail and address nearly 5,800 pamphlets.

Seniors are not waiting for the world to make a path to their door because they have a good mouse trap. Instead they believe the way to get a job in this day and age is to try their wares with paper and ink, beautiful typography, layout, and plenty of pictures.

From the college of education to schools and colleges throughout Kentucky and nearby states will go 1,000 booklets by which June graduates in education hope to find positions. If most averages prove anything, 70% of the students will thus be placed.

ALUMNI PLAN ANNUAL REUNION Festivities Set For June 6, 7

Letters from the class members, appointments of reunion chairmen, get-together of class committees, and preparations in general have manifested the interest already shown for Kentucky's annual Alumni reunion to be held on and around June 6 and 7.

Thursday, June 6, has been designated as Alumni Day, beginning with registration at the Alumni office in the Student Union in the morning, followed by tours of the campus under the guidance of reunion chairmen; the well known luncheons in the Union or at downtown hotels; baccalaureate services in the afternoon; and the annual banquet in the evening.

Friday's program includes the Commencement luncheon in honor of the graduating seniors, the annual meeting of the Alumni association, and as a climax, the seventy-third annual Commencement exercises at twilight on Stoll field. Reunion classes this year are those ending in '3 and '9. Robert D. Hawkins, professor of Applied Mechanics at the University, is permanent secretary of the class of '15 and its reunion chairman. Plans and entertainment for their reunion are under the direction of a committee composed of Mr. Hawkins, Wayman Rhoads, and Mrs. J. S. Chambers (Annabel Grainger).

Plans for the reunion of '30 are under the direction of Billy Whitlow, Lexington, permanent secretary of the class, and a committee composed of Mrs. A. Lawrence Gravel, Margaret Fry, 1348 Cornelia St., Chicago, Ill., secretary for the college of engineering; Virgil Couch, Box 1063, Raleigh, N. C., secretary for commerce college; Mildred Graham, 615 Third St., Fulton, Ky., secretary for the college of education; Willie Mae Watson, 450 Clifton Ave., Lexington, secretary for the college of agriculture; and Mrs. L. C. Robinson (Lolo Lemme), 161 Shawnee place, Lexington, secretary for the college of arts and sciences.

A Trio Of Lovely Coeds--

MISS BETTY ROSE MISS LILLIAN MITCHELL MISS OREL RUTH

On any warm Spring afternoon lovely girls can be seen strolling about the campus, and this popular threesome, Betty Rose, Lillian Mitchell and Orel Ruth are typical of the University's charming coeds.

Betty, a sophomore in the Arts and Science college, is a member of Delta Delta Delta, social sorority, and one of the loveliest girls on the campus. Her activities include the University Glee Club and Chorists. Lillian, also a sophomore in the Arts and Sciences college, is one of the most popular members of Kappa Delta sorority. Orel is a pledge of Delta Delta Delta, and her charm and personality have gained her many friends.

It goes without saying that: wherever lovely girls gather, Connie footwear prevails. College girls everywhere have accepted these shoes for their distinctive styles.

Unpredictable Wildcat Batsmen Shut Out Cincinnati, 9-0

By JIM BROWN
Playoffs in the intramural softball competition will get under way Monday afternoon when all Greek teams who have won three games will battle it out for the intramural championship.

places in the playoffs are Delta Tau Delta and Alpha Gamma Rho from Greek League I and the Sigma Nu and Phi Kappa Tau from League II. Representatives of League III will be the SPEs and the Kappa Sig.

In the Independent circuit, the Andy Slatts and the Law College have won the right to play for the championship of that league. The winner of that game will meet the fraternity champ for the intramural title.

The ATOs have a chance to gain a spot in the playoffs, providing they can overcome the Sigma Nus in their next meeting.

Games were played in League II and III, Wednesday. In League II only one game was played, the Phi Kaps taking the measure of the Lambda Chis. The other game, scheduled for Wednesday, was postponed until Sunday.

League III
In League, III Sigma Phi Epsilon was victorious over the Gamma Tau Alpha, by the overwhelming score of 20-3, and the Delta Chis forfeited to the Kappa Sig.

In the Independent league Tuesday the Lee A. C. showed improvement with a 5-4 edge over the Numerals, the Law College edged out the Andy Slatts by 7-4, and the Rover Boys took a 12-10 decision from the Unknowns.

Wednesday in the Independent league the K Club played a double bill, beating the Unknowns, 15-2, and the Law College, 7-1. In the other games in this league played yesterday, the Law College quelled a last inning rally by the Lee A. C. and won out 10-9, while the K Club was blasting the Rover Boys, 14-1.

No games will be played in the intramural league today.
Most of the fraternities have their entry lists complete for the annual intramural track meet, which will be held Tuesday and Thursday of next week on Stoll field. Preliminary races will be run on Tuesday, with the finals being scheduled for Thursday.

TENNIS CATS MAUL WESTERN Sweep Doubles In 7-2 Victory

Kentucky's racket swinging Wildcats recorded victory number five of the season yesterday afternoon when they swamped Western State Teachers college 7-2 on the Kentucky courts.

Kentucky made a clean sweep of the doubles by goose-egging Western by a 9-0 count. Western scored its only two markers of the afternoon in the singles matches. The Wildcats this afternoon will have a chance to raise their season average to 500 percent when they tangle with an unknown team from the University of Detroit. A win for our racket swingers this afternoon would level off their season's work at six wins and an equal number of losses.

The results of the Western match are as follows:

Doubles
Kentucky defeated Kees (W) 6-2, 6-2.
Boone (K) lost to Kirby (W) 1-6, 4-6.
Singles
Kentucky (K) defeated Borron (W) 7-5, 3-6, 8-7.
Kahn (W) defeated Dunning (K) 6-1, 6-2.
Lavin (K) defeated Poy (W) 6-2, 6-0.
Seback (K) defeated Wilson (W) 6-1, 6-4.
Doubles
Haber and Boone won 6-2, 4-4.
Bloland and Seback won 7-5, 3-6, 6-3.
Kees and Rogers won 6-4, 1-6, 8-4.

Inspection Slated

Tennessee Valley authorities from seven states will conduct a general inspection tour of the University agricultural experiment fields May 28-30.

Rhinelanders Quit In 8th After Protest

Kentucky's ex-dragged diamond Cats hit the come-back trail yesterday, shutting out the Cincinnati nine, 9-0, in eight and a half innings on Stoll field. Coach Bud Bonar, protesting a decision by Base Umpire Cravens, withdrew his Cincinnati team from the field after their last in the eight.

Coach Bonar's protest came after two Rhinelanders were caught in an attempted double steal, Purini was caught by a toss from Staff Kelley to Noland Navarre in his attempt to slip to third base, and while the Kentuckians were engaged in removing his team-mate from action, Hulshy thought he spied a chance to get to second from first base. Navarre climbed out of the dust to peg to Willie Carres for the out, retiring the side.

It was an Umpire Cravens' decision at second base that Coach Bonar based his protest. Saying that he "had to stand up for his rights," he ignored the box of the crowd and recalled his team from the field and forfeited the game.

Field Day

The unpredictable Cats had a field day in the eight and a half innings that were played. Using four pitchers, they played two-error ball, as compared with an average seven or eight, and allowed only one Cincinnati to reach third base.

Four-run barrages in the second and sixth innings and a home-run by lead-off man Willie Carres in the first gave them their tallies. Scholer, pitching for the Cines, gave up but seven hits, but the Cats capitalized on seven errors and three walks to tally their runs. Coach Moseley allowed four of his five-man pitching staff a chance on the mound, Carl "Slide-Rule" Skak-

CATS WILL RUN IN SEC MEET Three To Compete At Birmingham

With Captain Paul Durbin definitely out of the running, Coach Joe Rupert will base Wildcat hopes in the Southeastern Conference track and field meet in Birmingham, Ala., today and tomorrow on three performers.

Noah Mullins, who last week ran the 100-yard dash in 9.6 seconds to the Kentucky track record, will be entered in the 100 and the 220-yard dashes. John "Stomach" Montgomery, veteran distance runner, will compete in the two-mile run, and Jack Henning will run the half-mile.

Coach Rupert planned to carry three more hurriers, Dave Zoeller, Durbin, and Bob Sholtz, on his traveling list, but Larry Luck crossed him up as Zoeller declined the trip. Durbin was stopped by a leg injury and Sholtz was sent home with appendicitis.

The rest of the Cat team, which during the season scored wins over Hanover, Cincinnati, and W. Virginia, and lost only to Tennessee, has been disbanded.

Junior Week

More than 800 4-club members from all sections of the state are expected to attend the annual Junior Week to be held on the Experiment Station farm June 10-15. C. A. Lewis, director of the extension department said yesterday. Demonstration teams and individuals from 120 counties will compete for state championship honors in the Junior Week contests.

The Cincinnati Reds, that sterling bunch of timber swingers who probably have more routers in Kentucky than in their own state of Ohio, (at least when they're winning) were giving the cash customers a show for their money the first of the week. In two games they played the impressive total of 27 innings, one Monday which went 14 frames before old man darkness stepped in and called a halt to the deadlock, and another Tuesday which they lost in the unlucky thirteenth to the Dodgers.

Our memory isn't so young that we can't remember a few years ago when the Reds were based around the University almost as much as they are being boosted now. Just a little tinge of human nature which seems particularly prevalent on the campus. Stick with the winners desert the losers, and boo the officials always.

Our own Blues seem to be winding up a pretty bad season. The loss column heavily outweighs the win, with but three times on top, for seven on the short end of the score. Because of this bad record many students have blamed the coach, the players, the athletic department and many other things. In all fairness, none of these alone are at fault. Frank Moseley may not be the best coach in the league but he is far from being the worst. This season he has had to compete with bad weather, lack of real student support, and the failure of several of his promising players from last year's team to report for practice.

Yesterday's game with Cincinnati was the last home game of the season. The remaining three games, away, two with Tennessee and one with Xavier will probably hurt, rather than help, the team's record, but let's not be too sharp with our criticism. A baseball team is one of the most erratic of all sports squads. If the Dodgers can win nine in a row and the Yankees lose almost as many, there is still hope that under better conditions and with a few breaks the Wildcats can start turning in impressive box scores within the next few years.

Incidental Intelligence
In response to some questions about various records held by Cinder Cats on Ball field, we've gotten up as complete a list as we could. It's interesting to note that the oldest record, that of 95 seconds for the hundred-yard dash, is the latest one to have been equalled.

Noah Mullins, running with a brisk wind at his back, added his name to the list of University sprinters who had stepped the distance in that good time. Grabfelder in 1919 and Willis in 1928, had already turned the trick. This time is only two-tenths of a second behind the national mark of 94.

Prominent Educators Slated For Summer School Faculty

Almost 300 courses in the six colleges of the University and its graduate school will be offered during the first of the two five-week summer sessions, under the direction of Dr. Jesse Adams, head of the education department.

Prominent educators from various sections of the country, as well as resident teachers, will conduct classes during the two terms. The first session will open June 17 and conclude July 20, and the second will run from July 22 to August 24.

One of the visiting instructors will be Dr. N. L. Engelhardt, professor of education at Teachers college, Columbia university. Doctor Engelhardt, one of the most noted leaders America has produced in the educational field, will assist the school administrators with the Educational Administrators' clinic to be held from June 17 to 22.

Working with Doctor Engelhardt in the educational clinic will be Dr. Edwin A. Lee, professor of education at the Teachers' college of Columbia university, who will teach an intensive seminar in education during the first summer term.

Doctor Lee, a native of Indiana and a lecturer at the University of Chicago, directed the National Occupations conference for two years, has taught at the University of California and the San Francisco city schools in addition to his work at Columbia.

Other non-resident faculty members and lecturers are Dr. John W. Ferris, John Hopkins university; Dr. Harry S. Mustard, professor of Public Health at the University of London; Dr. L. L. Lumsden, medical director of the United States Public Health service; Dr. Robert Watson, TVA marologist.

Carl O. Shively, head football coach at Cornell university; Wolfgang Reber, noted pianist; Dr. Thomas Greenwood, lecturer at Ribblesdale College, University of London; and Dr. Olive M. Stone, professor of sociology of William and Mary college.

In addition to offering one of the most complete schedules of lectures and lectureships of any school in the United States, the University summer school will be outstanding in the attention it will pay of the social side of the summer student's life.

Conventions
A series of convocations featuring well known artists and speakers will be offered. Blue Grass tours, faculty receptions, band concerts, and bridge parties will be offered while several dances each session have been planned in the Union.

These social functions, as well as many not listed as yet, are part of the University belief that "an important phase of the student's training at the summer session is the stimulation and culture received from a well arranged extra-curricular program."

Registration for the first term will be held Monday, June 17. Classes will begin the next day and Monday, June 24, has been set as the last date upon which a student may register for credit for the first term's work.

On July 22 registration for the second term will be held. This term will end with commencement Friday, August 24, in the Memorial hall amphitheatre; final examinations begin on August 24.

Committees planning the retreat were Barbara MacVey, and Tommy Bryant, program; Janet Fergus, Billie Raymond, Charles Barford, and Bob Spragens, food; Bill Kartaker and Marian Valleau, transportation; Gladys Kilpatrick, Helen Reisenbach, Billy Blandford, Jack Ramon, and Warren Dorman, camp; and George Terrill, registrar.

Phi Beta Initiates Nine Arts Students

Nine students were initiated into Phi Beta, women's music and dramatics honorary, at Sunday's ceremonies at the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Honored for dramatic talent were Margarete Cohen, Lexington, and Marybelle Connelly, Warsaw. Students initiated for dancing ability were Charlotte Sale, Lexington, and Stephanie Sorokoll, Newark, N. J.; Peggy Palmer, Maplewood, N. J.; Peggy Shumate, Lexington; Joan Taylor, Cynthiana.

FDR Initiated

President Franklin Delano Roosevelt was initiated into the University of Maryland circle of Omicron Delta Kappa, national men's leadership fraternity, last week. Prof. R. D. McIntyre, national secretary of the organization, has announced.

Y OFFICERS PLAN PROGRAM

Thirty-five noisy YW-YM cabinet members, garbed in old camp clothes, boarded a school bus Saturday afternoon to go to a week-end retreat at Camp Daniel Boone.

The possibility of holding all class and cabinet meetings, and socials on one night, thus building up a reputation for a Y-night was discussed. This plan was suggested with the idea of coordinating the several nights that the Y meets into one night.

The group also decided to continue sponsoring freshman week activities, and to hold Religious Emphasis week again next year.

Miss Seaward and Mr. Peak led a discussion of the purpose of the YW and YMCA on the campus. Barbara MacVey and Thomson Bryant, retiring presidents, were in charge of a discussion of the year's successes and failures, and Gladys Kilpatrick and Bill Kartaker, incoming presidents, led the discussion of next year's program.

Harris Elected 4-H Club President

Ernest L. Harris, Union City, was elected president of the University 4-H Club to succeed Glenn Clay at a meeting last week.

Following the initiation, a banquet was held in the tea room of the Wellington Arms at which the new initiates presented a program of original musical numbers and dance selections. Virginia Hayden, Augusta, Ga., was in charge of the banquet.

Officers of the group are Erna Jane Riles, president; Marvin Valleau, vice-president; Grace Oliver, secretary; and Betty South, treasurer.

FLIES WORLD'S FASTEST PLANE!

TEST PILOT HOMER BERRY LIKES ALL THE SPEED HE CAN GET IN A PLANE, BUT HE LIKES HIS SMOKING S-L-O-W! SLOWER-BURNING CAMELS ARE HIS CIGARETTE

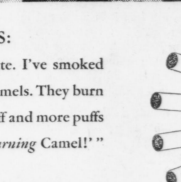

"FASTEST PLANE of the production line today!" That's how Homer Berry describes the amazing new Bell Aircoobra. This veteran test pilot started flying in 1913. . . started smoking Camels the same year. "No other cigarette ever gave me anything like the pleasure of a Camel," he says. "They burn slower, smoke milder and cooler. In 25 years, that slower burning has given me a lot of extra smoking." Try Camels. Enjoy Camel's slower-burning costlier tobaccos. Penny for penny your best cigarette buy!

TEST PILOT HOMER BERRY SAYS:
"No fast burning for me in my cigarette. I've smoked Camels ever since there have been any Camels. They burn slower and give me more pleasure per puff and more puffs per pack. 'I'd walk a mile for a slow-burning Camel!'"

Slower-burning Camels give you—
