

Feb. 7, 1899

The Faculty of the Dept. of Pedagogy met in Botanical Lecture Room of the Natural Science Building.

The business of the meeting was to canvass the standing of students in the regular college course of this department. Several were found deficient and negligent, and proper steps were taken to bring them up to standard. The majority were reported as doing well.

R.M. Roark,
Dean.