DeBoer and Cowling Receive Fellowship

By Kay Blinec

Fellowships from the Ford Foundation Fund for the Advancement of Education have been awarded to Dr. Jesse DeBoer of the UK Philosophy Department and Dr. Vincent F. Cowling of the UK College of Commerce.

They are among 246 college professors awarded fellowships for the 1952-53 school year. The Ford Foundation fellowships are supported by funds from the Ford family. They are given to selected college professors and instructors.

Candidates are proposed by the College of Arts and Sciences or their various colleges and universities. The applicants then submit projects about which they intend to do with their time "to better their service as a college professor."

Dr. DeBoer is an associate professor of philosophy at UK. He came to the University in 1946. He was graduated from Calvin College, and earned his Ph.D. at Harvard University. He won the Sheldon Traveling Fellowship from Harvard in 1941-42. He is a member of the American Association of University Professors, the American Philosophical Association, and Torch.

Dr. Cowling tentatively plans to spend his fellowship at the Institute for Advanced Studies in Princeton, N. J. His studies, Dr. Cowling said, will be based upon the "Theory of Abstract Spaces," by the physicist, Dr. P. A. M. Dirac.

Dr. Cowling returned to UK after his studies at Princeton. He is a member of the American Association of University Professors, the American Philosophical Association, and Torch.

Miss McLaughlin was one of Kentucky's first women reporters when she worked for the Lexington Herald. She became one of the first women instructors of journalism in the United States when she joined the UK staff in 1914.

During her many years here Miss McLaughlin has helped establish Kentucky's men and women in every theater of the last war, and participated in numerous college organizations. Among some of the organizations to which she belongs are the Alumni Association, Theta Sigma Phi, Mortar Board leadership society, Women's Club of Central Kentucky, Africana Club Business and Professional Women's Club, Louisville Arts Club, and the National Association of Arts and Letters.

The Marguerite McLaughlin Room will be dedicated at the Commencement Banquet and open for inspection during commencement week. It will be used as a lounge and meeting room by journalism organizations.

SGA Sets May 7 Date For Election

Gives Vague $150; Lost And Found Agency In Sight

May 7 was the date chosen for the Student Government Association spring election at the group's Monday night meeting.

Five Dollar Increase To Be Made In Fees Starting Next Autumn

Tuition Raise To Be Used In Main To Balance Budget, Meet Increases

By BARBARA HICKEY

Student tuition fees will be increased five dollars beginning with the fall semester.

The fee hike was suggested and approved Feb. 16 at a meeting of the UK Board of Trustees. Public announcement of the action was not made until last week.

Although the action was a surprise, UK President Herman L. Donovan explained that the Board discussed the request of the Alumni Association to receive a small portion of student fees each semester which would be returned to the student as a year's membership in the Association upon graduation.

The Board agreed to allot the Alumni Association 50 cents a semester or one dollar a year for this purpose. Following this discussion, Dr. Donovan said, the members considered the fact that the appropriation asked the state for UK was not

Main Interest In Clothes To Be On Color, Fabric This Season

The main interest in clothes this season will be on the color and the fabric. The style of the dress or suit will emphasize the fabric used, rather than vice versa, as has been the vogue.

Emphasis, too, will be placed on the clothes that can be washed quickly and require little or no ironing. Many of the smartest fashions now need ironing after washing and it is this trend that promises to make the iron as extinct as the washtub.

Think of all the time you will save when you are traveling — you won't have to spend an hour or so pressing that dress so you can wear it that evening.

The trick to these "no iron" clothes is in the fabric. Did you ever think of a terry cloth dress that washes and shakes out like a bath towel, that comes in sophisticated colors like black or cinnamon toast? What's better than a plisse play suit, or a seersucker ensemble, or a cotton georgette after-five dress?

Fabrics Are Wrinkly

All these fabrics are wrinkly to begin with—the creases are part of their charm. A nylon jersey and optional evening dress, like the one pictured here, washes like your stockings and hangs out on a hang er ready for your next dancing date.

The rebirth of the blues will be evident in the clothes of the well dressed young women this season. All shades of blue—from baby blue to sharp, deep Peacock blue—will be seen in everything from complete ensembles to accessories.

Such changes as French designers have introduced for spring are, as usual, subtle rather than dramatic. What has changed is the waistline, which not only replaces the hemline as a topic of conversation, but which wanders all over the place from high make the iron as extinct as the washtub.

Crinolines Out
Crinolines are out and skirts are slim or only moderately full. The full skirt now means two, three or more petticoats—no crinoline. On and on the petticoats go, one over the other—how many depends on you, the dress, the occasion.

The revival of the long absent crepe — from crepe de Chine to semi-sheer varieties — and the chiffons and saris is going to make the well dressed woman a more graceful, alluring creature than she has been in many a moon. These fabrics are feminine to begin with and with the added feature of the beautiful colors they are being produced in, are the delight of any woman's eye.

Several fashions that you'll soon be seeing are those tiny Spencer jackets, varied this year to blouse slightly in back; little half belts now called martingales; rounded shoulders and intricate, often full sleeves; also more box jackets both for suits and as separate coats; and much black and white.

Shoes Have Delicacy

As for the accessories this year, you'll find that the new shoe models are marked by an airy delicacy, by a tendency to leave much of the foot, particularly the heel, uncovered. Many of the shoes will be made of shantung and various other fabrics that will match your new outfits. Some of the new shoes will be frosted with tiny jewels, shells and other ornaments to give them —and you—that elegant, walking on air look.

The biggest news in jewelry is colored crystals — orange, apricot, amethyst. The high deep blue necklace is the smartest single jewelry fashion.

Hats — they're left up to your taste this season. You can choose a sailor, a tiny flower-decked or plain pillbox, a wide brimmed roller or just an eye veil. Your hat will depend on the mood of your outfit—tailored or feminine.

Whether you choose the new princess coat dress, the tiny, high waisted jacket, or the bouffant skirt waist dress, whenever you see touches of black—braided trimmings, jet buttons or patent leather belts, be sure you've caught up with fashion at its best.—J. G.

62 Photographs By High School Students Exhibited

Sixty-two prize winning photographs made by high school students in all parts of the country, are now being exhibited in Room 208 of the Journalism Building. The exhibit will remain through Saturday.

Selected from winners in the fifth annual National High School Photographic Awards, the display includes the first, second, and third prize winners in each of the four classes into which the contest was divided. All special merit and first honorable mention prize-winning prints are also included in the show. The National High School Photographic Awards is a picture-taking competition sponsored by the Eastman Kodak Company.

Featured in the exhibit is the Grand Prize winning photograph made by Georgia Harwood, a student at Madeira School, Greenway, Va. This photograph, "Summer Surf," shows three young girls running barefoot along a wave-washed beach. This is the first time a picture taken by a girl has won the coveted top award, totaling $50 in cash.

The photographs in the exhibition from nine through 12. A total of $5000 in cash was divided into 377 awards. While prints entered in the contest were no larger than 7 x 7 inches, the maximum size permitted, the salon prints sent out by Kodak for this exhibition are enlargements displayed in 12 by 15-inch mounts.

The 1952 National High School Photographic Awards are honorable in progress. Further information may be obtained from the National Scholastic Press Association, 18 Journalism Building, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis 14, Minn., or from Dr. William Moore, UK School of Journalism.

The Party Line By Jean Grant Hayrides, Dances And Concerts Fill Students' Pre-Holiday Hours

There's an old saying that "time passes quickly when you keep busy." With the Easter holidays approaching, everyone wants the time to pass quickly and with the many activities scheduled for the time remaining, everyone should keep quite busy.

Hayrides, dances, concerts, and lectures are on the agenda for this week and who could ask for more.

The first annual Military Ball tonight should have the SUB looking like West Point, with all the boys in uniform. This is the first of the annual dances planned by the combined military units on campus and should become quite a popular yearly affair.

The Chi Omegas are also holding their dance tonight. Their spring formal will be held at the Lexington Country Club from 9 until 12.

Newly elected officers of Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity will be installed tonight at the fraternities annual Founder's Day banquet. Officers include James R. Jones, president; Tony Coonanough, vice president; John Ernst, secretary; James Pehr, treasurer; and Bruce Pearce, house manager.

The Alpha Xis are planning their spring formal for tomorrow night. To be held in the SUB, the dance will start at 8 p.m., and from what we hear around the campus, should be one of the prettiest with the decorations all in the theme of Spring.

Looks like the Kappa Sigs will be going from riches to rags tomorrow night instead of rags to riches. They are having a Poverty Party. Going to serve the girls bread and water, boys???

The chatter of female voices to be heard in the SUB tomorrow morning will be the campus rumor that the annual Panhellenic Day is being held. This will last from 9 until 12 tomorrow morning.

High Schoolers Here

The Journalism School is playing host to the editors of the high school papers throughout Kentucky today and tomorrow. Here's hoping none of the college "wolves" scare any of the cute girls away.

Just Bjorner will present a concert Monday night in the Coliseum, and we're willing to bet that one of the biggest crowds in the concert series will turn out to hear this great singer. It's not every school that can boast of having concerts such as UK has had scheduled this year.

Another series that should be patronized by the students more is the Blazer Lecture series. This series brings to the campus some of the noted speakers of the country, and it's really quite a shame that the students don't take more of an interest in these lectures.

Tuesday night the combined YMW group will present the Original Players in an Easter Program. Everyone is invited to attend the program which will be held behind Memorial Hall.

The four chapters of Phi Kappa Phi will hold their third annual Founders Day Banquet at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow night at the Campbell House. The four chapters are Delta, Centre College; Beta Beta, University of Louisville; Theta, Transylvania; and Kappa, the local chapter.

Speakers will be John Y. Brown, representing Centre; Dr. Gabriel Banks, representing Transylvania; Dr. Morton W. Walker, assistant to the president of the University of Louisville; and Stanley Sauer, representing the Lexington chapter.

Officers elected by the Kentucky chapter of Triangle fraternity for the coming years are A. K. Livette, president; Bob Morrison, vice president; John Fischer, recording secretary; Bill Crowl, corresponding secretary; Paul Patrick, treasurer; Ken Reynolds, chapter editor; Bill Neville, house manager; and Tom McReynolds, chaplain. They will be installed April 15 at the annual founders day banquet.

Placement Committee Active In Law College

By Lealand Sullivan.

The newest and one of the most active student groups in the Law College during the current year has been the Placement Committee of the Student Bar Association.

Striving to eliminate the traditional apprenticeship which old timers call the "starvation period," the committee is developing contacts to obtain positions for current graduates.

There seems to be two principal reasons why job opportunities have suddenly become a serious matter, the committee believes. One is that the large postwar classes have taken up the slack in the ordinary practice. The second is that many of the students in these classes were married men with families who were in greater need of full time employment.

Although the Law College has always engaged in some employment activity, the need for it has been slight in the past. Now in the post-war period placement has become a problem, and the Student Bar Association is attempting to do something about it.

Library Head Has Articles In Magazines

Dr. Lawrence S. Thompson, director of University libraries, is the author of articles appearing in two recent publications.

One article is a study in bibliographical humor entitled "A Cursory Survey of Maledictions." It appears in the February 1952 issue of the Bulletin of the New York Public Library. It tells of statements and inscriptions that have been placed in books to prevent thieves from stealing them.

The stealing of books dates back to ancient Assyria, Dr. Thompson says in the article. Most all collections had some statement of "damnation."

"Chaining, strict regulations on the loan privilege, large deposits demanded as a guarantee of a book's return, and perhaps most frequent of all, ministry statements directed at potential thieves," he said, "were the commonly used administrative devices to protect the literary property of the medieval library. Medieval man thought he could best protect his books by the mere threat of damnation."

Dr. Thompson's other article is a study of the Confederate novel in Kentucky. It appears in the last issue of the Register of the Kentucky State Historical Society.

This article is the result of Dr. Thompson's study of the Confederate novel collection in the Margaret I. King Library. The library lists 48 titles which have a setting in this commonwealth between 1861 and 1865.

Of these 48 books, Dr. Thompson explains in the article, 20 are pro-Northern, 20 are pro-Confederate, and eight are non-Confederate.

Olympic Posters Displayed In Library

Pictures and posters of Finland are now on display in the foyer in the Margaret I. King Library, Mrs. Hammond Dugan, associate architect, said this week. The display is in connection with the Olympics being held this year in Finland, Mrs. Dugan said.

Included in the display is the official poster of the Olympics, which will be held in Helsinki. Pictures of Helsinki include buildings, street scenes, and the stadium which will be the site of the Olympics.

There are other pictures of Lapland, Turku, and Saimaa, East Finland's lake chain.

Kansas Can Thank Coach Adolph Rupp For Lovellette And Olympic Berths; It's Meat And Gravy Time For Coaches

By Earl Cox
 Kentucky didn't qualify for the Olympics this year, but its coach, Adolph Rupp, had a big hand in helping the Kansas Jayhawks do so. Here's how the story goes.

Kentucky's Olympic team of 1948 was in Kansas City to play the Phillips Oilers, the AAI representative. Kansas Coach Philo Allen, under whom Rupp played, approached Rupp before the Oilers-Cat game and asked Der Baron to do a favor for him and for the University of Kansas.

Allen told Rupp that Kansas had a good case prospect that it might lose to some other school. He wanted Rupp to have a talk with the prospect after the game and tell him of the advantages of attending Kansas. Rupp said sure, anything for the alma mater.

After the game Allen brought his terrific prospect over and introduced him to Rupp. For once the Man In The Brown Suit was at a loss for words. You see, Rupp, himself, wanted the player! In fact the boy already had been contacted by UK representatives.

However, Rupp was a man of his word. He turned on the charm and in his best Kansas truing, began to extol the virtues of dear old Kansas. It worked, because the player enrolled at the Jayhawk school and proceeded to make a pretty good record.

The player Rupp talked himself out of was Clyde Lovellette, who just this week almost singlehandedly won an Olympic berth for Kansas by scoring in astronomical numbers and rebounding like an octopus.

Now that basketball season is over, Rupp and Assistant Coach Harry Lancaster are not taking it easy, as one might expect. Rupp is scheduled to make appearances on the banquet circuit in places as far away as Texas, Denver and the Dakotas. Lancaster, in addition to coaching the basketballers, also has several speeches scheduled, although he was forced to turn down a lot of requests.

Caper Billy Evans and Griddler Louis Karbo are two of the most energetic individuals around. Karbo doubled as a grinder and as Swimming Coach Algie Beebe's star diver all during spring football practice. Evans, not to be outdone, reported for baseball when the basketball season ended. Coach Lancaster holds him in high regard. Billy also plans to play tennis this spring. And its almost a cinch that he will be Dr. H. H. Downing's No. 1 man the minute he steps on the court.

Evans is quite a tennis player. His father is tennis coach at Berea College, so his love for the game comes naturally. Billy was the Kentucky high school tennis champion during both his junior and senior years in high school.

The National Association of Basketball Coaches has taken steps to eliminate waving free throws. New rules permit no waving of foul tosses, give a second shot when the first is missed on any foul before the final three minutes, and arbitrarily classify all fouls after the three-minute mark as intentional and worth two shots. If the last toss is missed, the ball remains in play; if converted the opposing team takes the ball out of bounds.

Wildcat Nine Opens Season With Georgia Team Today; Starting Pitchers Undecided

Second Game Set For Stoll Diamond Tomorrow At 2

Coach Harry Lancaster and his 1952 Kentucky baseball team meets the University of Georgia this afternoon at 2 o'clock on Stoll Field for the first game of a 19 game schedule.

Today's game, the first of eleven home games, is an important one for the Wildcats, according to Lancaster. An abbreviated spring practice has not fully acquainted the mentor with this year's squad.

Last year the UK nine forfeited a contest to the Bulldogs because of a rainstorm that occurred during the second game of a scheduled double-header at Georgia. As a result of an argument with one of the umpires, the Wildcats were short-handed after three men were thrown out of the game. Thus, with only eight men left on the field, they had to forfeit the game.

In the other two games with Georgia last year, UK won the first contest by an 8-4 margin. Two of this year's nine were instrumental in that abbreviated victory, which was called at the end of six and one-half innings because of rain. Frank Ramsey drove in two of the Wildcats runs on a double, and little Harry Jones scored a run on a single by Dominic Fuel. Both Ramsey and Jones are likely to be in the starting line-up in this afternoon's game.

The second contest saw the Wildcats blow an 8-0 lead in the sixth and seventh innings as the Bulldogs scorched the base paths with a total of 13 runs in those two innings. Kentucky was unable to come back in the bottom half of the seventh and the game was again called because of rain.

Last week marked Lancaster's first appearance with the team, and since then he has been experimenting with a possible starting line-up for today's game. In a practice game with the Transylvania Pioneers last Saturday the line-up was juggled considerably but very little was learned in the way of clearing up just who would start at what position for the remainder of the season.

However, it is safe to say that two or three of the positions seem to be capably filled for the time being. Charley Keller, who is quite adept at the plate, is the likely choice for the first base assignment. Gene Neff and Frank Ramsey, also displaying a pleasing touch with the playing, should get outfield positions in the center. At other posts, it seems to be anybody's guess as to who will open.

The catching chores will be divided between Hugh Rose, Harry Stille, and Charles Anderson. Harry Jones may get the second base job, with possibly Bill Evans at shortstop, and either Miles Willard or Dick Wallace at third. The number three outfielder is still a question mark, but John Shanahan could get the nod. His hitting has been impressive. He came through with three hits in Saturday's practice game, with one of those being a home run.

Bumpy Gruner is reportedly the best of the pitching staff, but has been hampered because of lack of practice. Double duty in football kept him away from the baseball field until the past week. If he is able to loosen up the arm before this afternoon, he will probably appear on the mound as opening pitcher. Gruner is a right-hander. Don House, a left-hander, and Don Sullivan and Jim Day, both right-handers are other likely starters.

FRANK RAMSEY Leads Cat Singers

Ramsey Hits Two Homers As Cats Trounce Pioneers

Don Sullivan started the game for Kentucky, worked four innings and allowed four hits, one of them being a double, gave up one run, and allowed two bases on balls. He also hit one batter, while touting four innings.

Day came on in the top of the fifth and worked for three innings. During his stint he permitted three hits, all of them singles, allowed one run, and gave up no bases on balls. Dick Mackey relieved Day in the eighth, pitched and allowed one hit, one run, and a base on balls over the last two innings.

A total of three runs on nine hits sounds like pretty fair pitching, but when you take a look at the weak stick-wielders that G. M. Newton was able to stir up for the game at the last moment, those figures become alarming to UK followers. Several of the Pioneers had never handled a baseball before Saturday's game, yet they pumpeled out nine hits with leaves many to be struck in the pitching game that Kentucky must have in order to finish out of the SEC. Under this light, Newton declared that he would not pitch before the game, but he appeared in the bottom half of the eighth inning and faced one man, Johnny Baldwin, who was his victim as Newton sent him to the bench on three strikes.

Kentucky was guilty of two miscues which speaks pretty well for the fielding ability of the team. Most of the players that got into the game showed a lot of hustle and spirit. The Wildcats banged out 21 hits, 10 of those being for extra bases, which may indicate that the team may have some authority at the plate.

UK Trackmen To Run In Birmingham Relays

Seaton To Enter Thirteen Runners In Meet Tomorrow

Thirteen members of the track squad left this morning for Birmingham, Alabama, and the Southern Relays to be held in that city tomorrow. The traveling roster included ten distance men and three dash and hurdle men.

Captain Jay Wallace left with Coach Seaton yesterday morning to preside at a meeting of the Southeastern Conference Spiked Shoe Society of which Wallace is president.

The two-mile relay team will be composed of Doug Adamson, Ray Jones, Speedie Price and Wallace. George Richell (440), Wallace (880), Tom Weide (three-quarter mile) and Speedie Price (mile) will compose the distance medley team. In the sprint medley will be one 440 man (as yet not picked), Charles Lancaster and Bill Valera (two 200).

The mile relay team will probably be composed of Richell, Adamson, Jones and Valera.

Coach Seaton said that his hopes rest highest in the two mile relay squad. This team is composed of two Kentern, Wallace and Price.

Vandy And Xavier Provide Opposition In Week End Play

Sweeping four individual matches and tying the other singles match, the Wildcat linkmen opened the season last Thursday with an impressive 17 1/2-3 1/2 win over Minnesota at Bolling Springs.

The Cats were led to their first win by Ches Riddle, Charles Crabtree, Art Stoll and Jack Kloeker, who all won their singles matches. Stoll and Kloeker had the low medal rounds for the day with four-over-par 78's. Bobby Braff was low for the losing Minnesota team with a five-over-par 77.

In winning the first foursome 6-3, Riddle and Smith came from behind on the second nine to erase a 2-1 Minnesota edge at the end of the first nine. At the end of nine holes Riddle and Smith were both even in their singles matches, but were one down in winning the low ball match. The Kentucky one and two men came back with a two under par 54 best ball on the second nine to win the best ball match one up. They carded three birdies between them with Smith landing number 10 and 13 and Riddle cinching the win with a birdie three on the last hole.

In the singles, Smith tied Braff on both nines by winning the last hole each time after being Xavier tied with one to go. After tying Braff on the front side, Riddle defeated John Olson one up on the second nine to win his match.

Crabtree and Stoll, the number three and four men for the Cats, led all the way in winning their foursome 8 1/2-1. Crabtree won both the front side and second nine from Jack Smith by one up margin to garner all three points. Stoll won the first nine from Walt Bida, but was first on the back side as Bida made a strong comeback. The best ball match was never in doubt as Crabtree and Stoll won the match easily.

The fifth man, Kloeker, also won handsily as he took the front-nine six up and the back side two up over Bob Korach.

This was the first defeat since the spring of 1950 for Coach Lewis J. Ricker's Minnesota golfers, who had one-two victories this spring over Iowa and Xavier.

The Cat linkmen of Coach John Johnson will oppose Xavier this afternoon at 1:30 in the first of two matches this weekend at home. The ever powerful Vanderbilt Commodore will come to town tomorrow morning to round out a full week-end for the University linkmen. The Vanderbilt match is scheduled for 10:00 a.m. at Bolling Springs Country Club.

AGR, SAE Tie For Honors In I-M Wrestling Tournament

Co-champions in the intra-mural wrestling tournament are AGR and SAE. Each team scored a total of 21 points to tie for first place honors. The JTD grapplers won third place honors with 14 points.

Only one first place trophy had been prepared and a flip of a coin gave possession to AGR. Intra-mural Director Bill McCubbin said another trophy will be ordered for SAE. JTD was awarded the second place trophy.

Individual medals were presented to winners in each weight division.

Winning the 115-pound division, Malcolm King of LXKA pinned Marian Cox of AGR in 1:37 of the first period. Doug Witt, SAE, pinned John Lorch, AGR, in :11 of the second period.

The heavyweight championship went to Turner Burns, 200-pound AGR grappler, who pinned Lee Roberts, 225-pound AGR grunter, in 1:57 of the second period.

Co-champions in the 125-pound class. The 125-pound champ was Doug Adamson, JTD, who outpointed Bill Klein, ZBT, 3-2.

John Trutt, PKA, outpointed Ralph Hovernala, PKA, 6-7, and Bill Usher pinned Carl Newey, Independent, to win the 145- and 155-pound classes respectively.

The 165-pound award went to Pete Bogges, SAE, who outscored fraternity brother Dyer Rodes, 6-4, Bill Green, SFE, lost to Jack Roberts, PDT, with 1:53 gone in the second period.

Three Other Cats Hit Round Trippers In Easy 24-3 Win

Approximately one hundred baseball fans were given a preview of the 1952 UK Wildcats last Saturday as Kentucky trounced the Transylvania Pioneers 24-3 in a practice game at Legion Field.

Frank Ramsey was the big gun for the Wildcats as he pumpeled two homers over the right field wall and added a triple in six trips to the plate. His second home run came down the bases loaded in the bottom of the sixth inning. Charley Keller, Bill Evans, and John Shanahan joined in the home run parade, as each produced one.

Kentucky's big inning was the sixth when they crossed home plate for nine big runs and started the crowd for the exits satisfied that the Cats could produce the runs. However, the big question in the minds of many of the close observers was, how will the UK hurlers stand up under the heavy pounding of the University of Georgia batters this Friday?

Cat Fencers Engage Vandy And Indiana In Matches Today

Columbia retained its NCAA three-weapon championship at the eighth annual intercollegiate match held at Yale University last weekend. The 37 teams in the meet each sent three men who represented their schools in the epee, foil and sabre.

Wildcat swordsmen garnered 27 points. Tom Prather got 11 tallies in sabre and Bob O'Nan the other 16 fencing epee.

Today the UK fencers play host to both Vanderbilt and Indiana Universities. Vanderbilt has a 1-1 record this season and is led by Tom Boser, who is thus far undefeated in dueling competition. Indiana is led by Francis Wolff, a nephew of Olympic great, Albert Wolff.

The triangular meet will be held in Memorial Coliseum from 2-5 p.m.

Whites Defeat Blue Team 28-13 As Split-T Power Is Displayed

By Don Smith

The new split-T attack for the 1952 edition of the Kentucky Wildcats was unveiled to the public last Friday night on Shell Field as the Whites defeated the Blues 28-13 in the annual intra-squad game.

As Coach Paul Bryant looked on from the press box, the Whites, captained by John Griggs and the Blues, led by alternate captain Bob Fry, gave 5,000 fans a preview of next fall.

With the Jones twins, Harry and Larry, and Allen Fitch providing the spark, the Whites of Coach Emory Allen jumped to a quick 14-0 lead in the first quarter and were never headed. Fitch scored the first touchdown with 2-40 on the game on a nine-yard pounce from White quarterback, Larry Jones.

Jones again converted for a 21-0 White lead. With three minutes left in the half the Blues completed a 73-yard drive to pay dirt with a two-yard plunge by halfback Tom Fillion on a hand-off from quarterback Bunky Gruner. Adams converted to end the first half scoring with the Whites in front, 21-7.

In the third quarter, Fillion climaxed another downfield drive with his second touchdown for Coach Clarence Underwood's Blues from the five-yard stripe. Quarterback "Bunky" Gruner, the Blues moved 47 yards in 12 plays for the tally. Gruner cleared the way for Fillion on the scoring play with a key block. Adams kick was wide and the third quarter ended with the Whites on top 21-13.

An intercepted Gruner pass by Dick Rushing of the Whites set up the last White touchdown in the fourth quarter. Rushing intercepted on the Blue 23-yard line and returned to the 16. Six plays later Fitch leaped for the score and Harry Jones converted to make the final red 28-13.

the leading ground gainer for the losing Blues.

Harry Jones was the leading ground gainer for both teams with 118 yards in 10 tries—averaging over 11 yards per try.

One of the surprises was the smoothness that the new split-T was handled. Only 20 practice sessions were allowed the new SEC rules. Quarterbacks Herb Hunt, Gruner, Jones and Phillippe gave even the most pessimistic something to talk about until next fall.

The loss of "Babe" Parrill was easily seen in the statistics with only eight of 23 passes completed by both teams. The figures indicate that a hard running game may replace the razor-sharp of the past few years since the Whites totaled 263 yards on the ground and the Blues 147.

IA Sets Up Another TD

In the second quarter, with Phillippe at quarterback for the Whites, Harry Jones broke loose around left end for 54 yards to the Blue 15-yard line. Four plays later Fitch scored his second touchdown of the night on a four-yard plunge. Harry

PAOLONE DISPLAYS HARD RUNNING

Ralph Paolone, a junior transfer from Notre Dame, who is a 204-pound, six-footer, seems to be what Coach "Bear" Bryant is looking for as a hard-running fullback. Paolone picked up 108 yards in 19 runs as

Ches Riddle Has Variety Of Talents

By Joe Howard

To pick a real standout player in the fraternity league basketball game is a hard job but there is one who is just a little ahead of the rest of the pack. If a most valuable player award was given no doubt Ches Riddle would be the recipient. The Madisonville junior was a real standout both on offense and defense. His defensive ability is uncanny and he could always be counted on to score when the chips were down. Ches hit for an average of about six points a game but they were usually a big six points. His value as a team man was reflected time after time as he would pass off inside of shooting when he had shots that he might have hit.

A Double All-Stater
Riddle was an all-state football and basketball player while at Madisonville High School and made the All-State Tournament team in 1949. He came to the university on a basketball scholarship and played freshman ball before quitting the team. Ches also had many offers for his football abilities and even a couple of southern schools wanted him for his prowess as a golfer. At the present time Riddle is captain of the Wildcats golfers and is one of the best linksmen in the Southeastern Conference. He has been a member of the golf team ever since he entered the university and prior to that won many honors as a golfer at Madisonville and in Western Kentucky. Riddle is a junior and is majoring in physical education. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon and is married.

Foreign Service Exams To Be Given

The Foreign Service will hold competitive examinations Sept. 8-11 for students graduating this year and for juniors whose interests lie in the field of foreign service. At regular intervals the officer will be returned to the United States for a two-year tour of duty. There are arrangements for the accumulation of "home leave" if this leave is desired, or the officer may take regular accumulated vacations abroad in his option. Class 6 is the level at which the

Tilley Tallies Baseball Observers Predict Good Hit, No Pitch Season

Those who have watched the UK baseball team work out this spring predict a good hit, no pitch season. Signs of blasting power have been evident since practice opened but pitching has been rather sparse.

Bad weather kept the hurlers inside several days and some help has arrived since the closing of spring football but Coach Harry Lancaster still is uncertain as to his mound corps.

Lancaster didn't inherit much pitching from the 1951 team. Neither C. M. Newton, the big fireballer who signed with the New York Yankees last summer, nor Guy Strong, the mainstay of the hurling staff last year, is back. Lancaster is faced with the task of developing an entirely new crew of slammers.

Right now Lancaster is hoping Bunky Gruner can fill one of the starting assignments. Football has kept Gruner away from the UK diamond but reports from Louisville say the grid star has a lot of stuff. Besides Gruner, Lancaster will have to depend on throwers like Don House, Don Sullivan, and Jim Frank, none of whom have faced SEC batters.

The games today and tomorrow will serve as guides to the tough season ahead. On the slugging side, the team appears in good shape. Frank Ramsey, who swatted conference pitching for a .410 average last year, is established at one outfield post. Charlie Keller has given indication he carries a potent bat. John Shanahan has shown he can hit the long ball. Larry Jones, who hit over 300 last year, and brother Harry, who recorded 237, are also likely starters.

Maybe the sluggers can keep the Cats in the game until Lancaster can formulate a mound corps. That's what he is hoping.

Conditioning vs. Injuries. Trainer Smokey Harper was talking about injuries in sports and tossing a few laurels toward the Jones twins. "You never see those little rascals hurt seriously," said Smokey. "That's because they are always active. They go from one sport into another and never get out of shape."

He said the football squad was in good condition at the close of spring practice, and believing year-round conditioning decreases football injuries, he instructed the players to use weights and bar bells daily to retain that conditioning. Many of the griders are taking his advice. Several others are participating in spring sports.

The fans who watched the Blue-White game obviously were satisfied with what they saw. Comments ranged from, "It was the best Blue-White game I ever saw," to, "We'll have a better team this year than we had last year."

There was sound basis for those comments. Both teams were powerful on offense and blocking and tackling record. One could not help but imagine the strength which would be gained if the two teams were combined.

Take the fullback situation. Ralph Paolone gives a warning he is ready to carry the mail. Allen Fitch displayed power running. Tom Fillion, the leading fullback last fall, slashed through the line in his old style. Tony Chincio was very impressive. Injuries to fullbacks in recent years left an important spot in the line-up. This year the plugging slot is well supplied by four men who look as though any one could fill a starting role. In other words, power in shifts can be used.

The quarterback slot, vacated by All-American Babe Parrill, may not be the problem that was anticipated. Of course, there won't be another Babe. That's too much to ask for. But that is the chief reason Coach Bear Bryant has switched to the split-T.

The transfers of Bunky Gruner and Larry Jones from halfback posts seem a good move. Jones was particularly impressive in the intra-squad affair. Gruner had a few sticky moments in the early phases of the game but an indication of his ability was shown in the way he pulled his team together and made a ball game of it.

Herb Hunt and Chuck Phillippe also turned in creditable jobs as signal callers. Phillippe appears to have a passing edge over the other candidates and he has shown he can handle the ball.

The squad is well fortified with halfbacks. Harry Jones, considered the Number 1 back by the coaching staff, heads the list. Max Mason, who hasn't yet displayed the greatness predicted for him, is expected to be ready by September. Throw in a few fast backs like Dick Mitchell, Dick Rushing, and Louis Karbo and that position is well attended.

Up front should compare favorably with that of the bowl teams. You don't overlook such stalwarts as likely All-American candidates Johnny Griggs and Steve Mellinger. Defensively, Bryant has a nucleus left from last year and a crop of good looking first year men.

At least, the culture of play in the Blue-White game will give football followers something to talk about this summer.

Burner Leads SPE To 46-38 Win In Renewed Play In Frat League

Both teams hit for one more point. The next nine points in the game were scored by PKT as they took a nine point lead. SPE was able to whittle only two points off the lead as the half ended with the losers ahead 24-17.

SPE came back strong in the second stanza. Controlling both boards consistently, they shaved the lead gradually until the score became tied with six minutes to play. Bob Cain, SPE, hit a crisp shot to put them in the lead. Barnett rammed in a driving one-hander to tie the score. Then Puyal scored on a short one-hand push shot to give the lead to SPE with four minutes to go.

Almost immediately D. King collected his fifth personal, and the game was in the bag. SPE added six more points for a comfortable margin as Puyal, Cain and Cosby each hit from the floor.

Entry Deadlines Set For Spring Sports In Intra-Mural Play

Intramural spring sports start their annual appearance during the next two weeks. Persons interested in tennis doubles and golf singles are advised to sign up on Wednesday, April 9. Nine man softball teams will sign their entries on the following Wednesday, April 16.

For tennis and golf, play starts on April 16. The softball teams will begin play on April 21. All entries must be submitted to Intramural Athletic Director Bill McCubbinn.

The height of the SPE quintet was the telling factor, particularly in the wild and woolly second half. Behind 24-17 as the final period opened, the victors used their big men to every advantage. They cleared both boards consistently, and scored most of their late points on tips-ins and crisp shots.

Both teams were ragged from the charity line. SPE missed a total of 20 foul shots, and PKT missed 14. The losers had four men foul out. Don Holbrook was banished in the first half in five personals. Wayne Crow, Gene Fontaine and D. King followed him in the second half. High scoring King fouled out with about four minutes of the game left, and SPE scored five points in that remaining time.

Both teams started slowly. Pete Massey, PKT, opened the scoring with a field goal. D. King added a charity shot, and Ron Puyal, SPE, countered with a field goal. Bruner hit for two points and King scored a free throw to tie the score.

Title Game Carded For Tuesday Night On Coliseum Floor

The SPE team renewed their hopes of gaining the Fraternity Intramural basketball trophy Wednesday night as they came from behind to defeat PKT 46-38 in the new semi-final round. They met AGR in the finals for the championship last night in Memorial Coliseum. The winner will play the World Walkers, Independent champions, for the intra-mural title Tuesday night.

Jim Bruner rammed in 17 points to gain high scoring honors and lead his team to the all-important victory. His one-hand push shots were deadly as he sank six field goals and five free throws. Arnold Cosby and Ron Puyal held runner-up honors with 11 points apiece.

Dorsey King garnered scoring honors for PKT as he scored 15 points on five field goals and five free throws. Ed Barnett captured second place with eight points.

Science Fiction Popular With Increasing Number

By Ronnie Butler

Intelligent reader will attest to just as good as any other type of literature. The field is of such a nature that the writer can let his imagination run loose.

Actually, most SF writers are college graduates and try to keep away from the ridiculous and pointless themes endorsed by other pulp contributors.

Such authors as Ray Bradbury, Isaac Asimov, John Lovecraft, William Hope Hodgson, and Margaret St. Clair have achieved fame for themselves not only as SF writers, but as contributors on other fields of American literature.

However, the material contained in these magazines is of a high caliber, and all of the stories are based on actual fact or knowledge of present science.

Effects of it are on man, of what they will be in the future.

Stories range from earthly novels with Mars as a background for a juicy murder to men who travel millions of years in time, only to find themselves faced with tremendous problems.

Space opera, a phrase used to denote the problems of hero in spaceship fighting villain in space ship, was at one time the favorite topic for SF writers. Recently they have been surpassed by psychological novels.

Another hackneyed topic, of special interest to anthropological majors, is the discovery of life on other worlds. Invariably, there are only three kinds of life, as compared to that of earth—superior in intelligence, inferior in intelligence, or just plain indifferent by any standards.

The heroes and heroines, not to mention the villains, are not far removed from Texas Pete, except for the minor fact that they use ray guns instead of revolvers and ride around in "sleek, slim or silvery" space ships.

Some of the stories, as an in-

New I-M Tourney Starts; Four Teams Disqualified

By Wes Bird

New intramural basketball tournament play-offs were started this week after four teams participating in the regular tournament were forced to withdraw because of ineligible players. The players were either on probation or not in school.

Intramural Director Bill McCubbin rescheduled the plays to include Alpha Gamma Rho, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Phi Kappa Tau. Director McCubbin said these teams were the only ones which were totally eligible to continue the tournament. Other participants were either beaten in early rounds or had included ineligible players on their squads.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon defeated Pi Kappa Alpha March 26 for the fraternity intramural basketball championship in early rounds or had included ineligible players on their squads.

The two finalists, Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Pi Kappa Alpha in the regular tournament, were forced to forfeit their games. Kappa Sigma, semi-finalist, and Phi Sigma Kappa, quarter-finalist, were also forced to withdraw for the same reason. After careful investigation, Director McCubbin announced that three teams would be included in the new play-offs.

SAE manager E. T. Kirk, when asked if he had any idea that he was using an ineligible man, said he had been assured by all his players that the only time the player played was in the first game of the season. He was dropped from the squad shortly after that for other reasons, Hester said. He hastened to add that he entirely agreed with Director McCubbin's decision that the PSK team should be disqualified from further tournament play.

The managers of the other two disqualified teams could not be reached for comment. Director McCubbin stated that these managers also seemed ignorant of the ineligibility of their men.

The rule which is involved in this case is one that says that no man who is on probation, or who is not enrolled in school, is eligible to participate in any intramural play.

There is no penalty for the use of such a man, however, except the forfeit of the game or games in which he participates.

Attention—Class Of 1912

Dear Classmates:

Forty years have slipped away since that eventful day of June 6, 1912 when we received that for which we had so long sought. Then with mingled feelings of emotions we said farewell to the dear old school and our classmates to face the cold realities of life.

Forty years have swiftly passed with all their triumphs and disasters and now we wind our ways back to dear old U. of K. to renew those delectable friendships of our college days.

We are pleading with each of you—out of a busy life—to come back for at least one day to meet the Old Gang of 1912. It will be the last for some of us so we are hoping each will do his and her darndest to come back home to make this Reunion one of the never-to-be-forgotten event of our lives.

Many changes have been made since you and I graduated but many
