DR. OTIS A. SINGLETARY

President, University of Kentucky

Dr. Otis A. Singletary has maintained an active role both in academics and athletics since he became the University of Kentucky's eighth president in August 1969.

Great strides toward academic excellence have characterized Dr. Singletary's presidency at UK. The Schools of Dentistry and Pharmacy consistently rank among the best in the nation. Departments such as political science, history, and mathematics have also gained nationwide attention while the UK Library now rates among the best in the Southeast.

Under Singletary's leadership, the University of Kentucky has also become a major research institution. The Albert B. Chandler Medical Center is an established leader in research on cancer and the aging. UK's agricultural college has provided important research in tobacco and equine diseases while other University research has focused on the field of coal and other energy sources.

Singletary's involvement in athletics is as impressive as his academic achievements. A former president of the Southeastern Conference, Dr. Singletary is a member of the NCAA Select Committee on Athletic Problems and Concerns in Higher Education. He is also chairman of the board of directors of the College Football Association.

As president of the principal institution of higher learning in the Commonwealth, Dr. Singletary is greatly concerned with the University's role as a land grant institution, a "people's university" accessible to all who can profit from education.

In the 13 years Singletary has been president, the University of Kentucky has grown in enrollment to about 23,000 students on its Lexington campus and more than 22,000 students in the University's 13 community colleges.

Recognition of his service to the University of Kentucky was evidenced by the UK Alumni Association which presented to Dr. Singletary its Alumni Service Award, an honor rarely bestowed upon a non-alumnus of the University.

A native of Gulfport, Miss., Singletary holds degrees from Millsaps College and Louisiana State University. An accomplished administrator, Dr. Singletary served as chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and was executive vice chancellor for academic affairs for the University of Texas system prior to coming to Kentucky.

He and Mrs. Singletary, the former Gloria Walton, have three children: Bonnie, Scot, and Kendall.

CLIFFORD O. HAGAN

Athletics Director

the 1984 NCAA Basketball Championships. In 1985, the prestigious NCAA "Final Four" basketball championships will be hosted by UK and held in Rupp Arena.

Having graduated from the University of Kentucky with high distinction in 1954, Hagan has been a long-time advocate of a strong scholar-athlete program.

Hagan, one of the greatest players in UK basketball history, received one of his highest individual honors in 1978 when he became the first University of Kentucky player to be inducted in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass.

An Owensboro, Ky. native, Hagan is married to the former Martha Milton, also of Owensboro. They have four children: Mrs. Barry "Lisa" Thaxton of Lexington; Mrs. Jim "Laurie" Hill of West Liberty; Amy, a senior at the University of Alabama; and Kip, a sophomore member of the Transylvania University basketball and tennis teams.

When Terry Hall arrived at Kentucky in 1980, the Lady Kats were coming off their most successful season ever and beginning to gain national respect. They had been ranked in the Top 20 throughout the 1979-80 season and had finished the year with a 24-5 record and a berth in the AIAW National playoffs.

But the season was just a hint of the great things to come under Hall's guidance. The Lady Kats have gone far beyond respectability and into the perennial role of national contender. They have been ranked in the Top 20 every week and averaged 24 wins per season since Hall's arrival.

In her first year at UK, Hall's Lady Kats went 25-6, winning the Kentucky Women's Intercollegiate Conference and reaching the final round of 16 in the AIAW National tournament. Hall was named the KWIC Coach of the Year that season.

In 1982 and again last season the Lady Kats were considered among the top contenders for the NCAA championship. The 1981-82 squad won the Southeastern Conference championship and reached the quarter-finals of NCAA play before losing to eventual national champion Louisiana Tech on the Lady Techsters' home floor. Last year's Lady Kats were ranked fourth in the nation but fell to Indiana in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

Hall's record at Kentucky is 72-19, and considering Kentucky's tough scheduling habits (10 games with ranked opponents last season AND this season), a .791 winning percentage is outstanding. Her career record is 165-79. That mark includes one season at Eastern Kentucky, five at Louisville and three at Kentucky.

Hall began her coaching career in the high school ranks. Following her graduation from Indiana State in 1966, she was named head coach at Butler High School in Louisville. In five seasons at Butler, Hall coached her teams to two Jefferson County titles and an overall record of 69-33.

Then it was on to Eastern Kentucky University, where Hall earned her Master's Degree in 1974 and was immediately named head basketball coach. The Lady Colonels went 14-6 that season and won the KWIC title over Kentucky, Louisville, Western, Morehead, Murray and Northern Kentucky.

Hall then accepted the coaching job at Louisville, where she was faced with rebuilding a program. She succeeded, guiding the Lady Cards to a 79-54 record over five years. In 1979-80, her last season at U of L, the Lady Cards won their first Metro Conference championship. Hall also coached tennis and softball at U of L.

A native of Salem, Ind., Hall earned both her undergraduate and graduate degrees in Health and P.E. While attending Indiana State, she starred in basketball, field hockey and volleyball. She was honored with the "I" Woman Award in 1965, and received the prestigious Hillman Award in 1966 as the most outstanding female athlete at ISU.

Coach Hall on Kentucky's Style of Play: "Our style of play, or trademark, is the fast break. We believe that applying immediate pressure on the defensive team is one of the best ways to win a basketball game. Kentucky is one of few teams in the country totally dedicated to fast break basketball. Defensively, we play whatever defense we feel will exploit our opponents' weaknesses. Our main concerns are controlling the tempo of the game, teamwork, and shot selection by our players."

Coach Hall on Working With the Players: "I place a high premium on hard work and dedication to the task at hand. I want my players to feel the same way. I try to teach them that "doors of opportunity" open and close very quickly in life as well as on the basketball court. So always be prepared. In the span of a lifetime, their 4 years of college basketball is short, therefore they should work hard, be dedicated, excel, and enjoy the opportunity that exists."

Mike Kindred

Assistant Coach
Eastern Kentucky University, 1980

Mike was hired as a part-time assistant at UK in July, and then was elevated to full-time assistant in late September following the resignation of assistant coach Dottie Berry. A 1980 graduate of Eastern Kentucky, Mike served for two seasons as assistant girls' basketball coach at Estill County High School in Irvine, Ky., before coming to UK.

A native of Winchester, Ky., Mike graduated from Clark County High School in 1975. He then attended Morehead State University for one year before transferring to Eastern. He received a degree in Industrial Education, and then taught at Clark County for one year before accepting a job at Estill County.

In his first season at Estill, Mike helped direct the varsity squad to its first-ever winning season in 1982. The following year, the Lady Engineers won their first district championship. Mike's junior varsity squad, meanwhile, was doing even better, finishing with a 15-4 record in 1982 and a 19-4 record in 1983.

Mike is very active in the Big Brothers-Big Sisters program, and currently sits on the organization's Advisory Board in Winchester. He is also an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and was the FCA's 10th Region representative last year while coaching at Estill County.

Joining the coaching staff at UK fulfills a life-time dream for Mike, a 26-year old bachelor who has always been a "Big Blue" fan.

ROBIN BOARD

Graduate Assistant Louisville, 1983

A former player for Coach Terry Hall at Louisville, Robin joined the Lady Kat staff in September. While at Louisville, Robin lettered in basketball four consecutive years, two of those seasons with Coach Hall at the helm. She was a member of the Lady Card teams that won Metro Conference titles in 1979 and 1981 and is in the record book for best free throw percentage in a season, which she set in 1979. Robin was also an outstanding high school player at Louisville Butler High. She helped her team to the Girls' State Tournament in 1976 and 1978. She was All-State honorable mention for three straight years and played in the East-West All-Star game in 1978. She also played tennis for three seasons and ran track one year at Butler.

Robin is pursuing a Masters Degree in Recreational Therapy at UK. She has a great interest in young people and has participated as a volunteer for Special Olympics for five straight years. She also is credited with starting two Youth Basketball Camps in 1981 and 1982 at the St. Matthews YMCA in Louisville.

A former collegiate softball player at U of L, Robin has umpired softball and officiated basketball and volleyball. She is 23 years old and single.

Joan Fry

Staff Assistant Southwest Texas State, 1977

Joan joined the Lady Kats program in September 1981. Her primary responsibility is handling all correspondence for the coaching staff and acting as a receptionist for the department. A native of Burnet, Tx., she graduated from Southwest Texas State University and worked for the Texas Department of Human Resources for three years. She is married to Jason Fry, a senior at Asbury Theological Seminary. They are expecting their first child in December.

Kindred Assumes Recruiting Role with Lady Kats

By DONNIE WARD

Mike Kindred was hired as a part-time assistant with the Lady Kats in July to help out with summer camp and was later elevated to full-time assistant in late September following the resignation of assistant coach Dottie Berry. Having always been a "Big Blue" fan, Kindred suddenly found himself completely involved with UK athletics, dutifully accepting responsibilities in the recruiting and coaching of Lady Kat basketball, under head coach Terry Hall.

Before last summer, Kindred had agreed to accept a graduate assistantship with the Eastern Kentucky Lady Colonels, but became associated with UK through his friend, Lynn Norenberg, whom he met at a meeting of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. She introduced him to Hall, and from there, his course was set.

"As far as my interests are concerned, I think it is the best place for me to be," Kindred said of his new assignment. "I came in here without much experience, not knowing a thing about recruiting, just getting used to my new job. And I really wanted to show Coach Hall that she could have a lot of faith in me, that I could do the job, and that I could get along with the girls, by working real hard. I feel like I did that."

Kindred's sudden promotion to assistant coach came as a welcome surprise after he graduated from ECU in 1980 and served two seasons as assistant girls' basketball coach at Estill County High School in Irvine, KY. In his first year at Estill, Kindred helped direct the varsity squad to its first-ever winning season in 1982. The following year, the Lady Engineers won their first district championship. Kindred's junior varsity squad, meanwhile, was doing even better finishing with a 15-4 record in 1982, 19-4 in '83.

"I feel like I have a lot to prove, not only to Coach Hall, but to myself and to the other coaches around the country. I'm sure they have been looking at me out the corner of their eye, wondering 'Who is this nobody that she has hired at what is probably the most prominent program in the country?'"

Kindred said he was a little uneasy at first, but set out to gain the trust of his players in order to establish an atmosphere for instruction. "The main thing is just diving head first into it and trying to do the best that I can. Of course, I'm going to make some mistakes along the way, but what was important was to first get a good rapport with the girls—let them get to know me and realize that I really care about them. I want them to know that I can be their friend, but also when it comes time to hit the floor, that I will demand quite a bit out of them."

Since September, Kindred's primary role has become that of recruiting—an aspect of the game with which he admits to being unfamiliar. "I'm trying to do a good job with recruiting. We fell behind a bit, I think because of the adjustments being made with a whole new staff, including a new secretary, so we have been trying to work really hard to bring it up where it needs to be. We've been making contact with several players out of state, as well as some players in state who we think are capable of playing for us."

Kindred said the coaching staff has also been working hard with young high school players "who we think are going to be future prospects to play here. We're trying to establish a better rapport among high school coaches, who are an important link in the recruiting process. With the amount of talent in the SEC and with as tough of a schedule as we have, we've got to really work hard in the recruiting effort," he said.

All three Kentucky coaches have been involved with recruiting this year, which is the lifeblood of any successful team. Kindred said he was optimistic about their efforts so far. "We've got some really good prospects committed to us, and I'm real excited about the future."

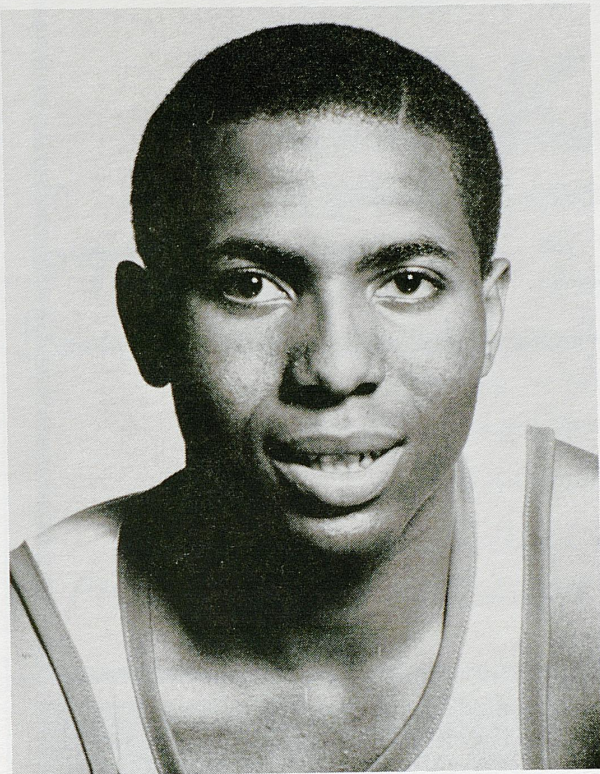

In addition to recruiting, Kindred cited another important responsibility which he will be more involved with as the summer approaches—that of instructor during summer basketball camp while Hall is busy with many other things. "That's a time when I can work with the players individually, and that's when you strive for improvement. When summer work comes, I think we'll see how bad these girls want to get to the Final Four in '86 when it will be played in Rupp Arena.

"We've got two years to get ready for that, we've got a young team, and I think that's what we're preparing for," he continued. "We'll have the type of players who can get the job done, but they're going to have to really put forth the effort."

BEAL HOPES KNEE INJURY BEHIND HIM

By LESLIE HUDDLESTON

Only a few months ago, Dickey Beal wasn't sure he would ever play basketball again. Now the senior point guard appears ready to close out his college career in a blaze of glory.

After playing sparingly all season, Beal started and played 39 minutes in Sunday's Wildcat win at Vanderbilt. He had come off the bench a week before and scored a career-high 17 points in a big rout over Auburn. Then two nights later, he played 35 minutes and dished off 11 assists in the important win over Florida.

"It's been a long time coming," Beal said of his return to form. "Sometimes I didn't feel like I'd ever play again."

But Beal is playing again and had finally earned the starting job that seemed to keep eluding him. In his first three years, he started only eight times, playing behind the veteran Dirk Minniefield. When Minniefield graduated last year, Beal seemed certain to inherit the starting job. But that was before he suffered the serious knee injury which required surgery three times over the summer.

Consequently, when the summer began, Beal found himself spending more time on an exercise bicycle than on the basketball court. As the season progressed, it appeared that he might not return at all this season. Still, he never considered redshirting.

"I'm a senior and this is the year I wanted to play," he said. "There's a reason for everything. I don't know what the reason was (for the injury) but I can't dwell on it. All of my goals have been team goals anyway."

Many people feel that Beal is the key to the Wildcats' goal of winning the national championship. Beal doesn't see it that way, though.

"I don't think I'm needed to go all the way, but I do feel like I can help the team. I've been here with the other seniors for four years and we know what to expect from each other."

Being a starter is of secondary importance to Beal. "It doesn't make any difference to me whether I start as long as I contribute," he said. "Our other guards are doing a fine job. I just hope I can make a great deal of progress the rest of the season."

Once the season ends, so will Beal's basketball career. He hopes for a job in business or perhaps the horse racing industry.

"I just don't think my knees can take any more (basketball). I don't think I have a very good chance of making an NBA team and I'm not interested in Europe or the Continental Basketball League."

In the meantime, Beal plans on just taking things slowly and concentrating on those team goals.

"I really had great expectations for myself this year, but it just hasn't worked out that way."

Of course, the season isn't over yet.

Kindred Assumes Recruiting

A native of Winchester, Kindred graduated from Clark County High School in 1975 and attended Morehead State University his first two college years. It was there Kindred says he acquired much of his coaching philosophy from then assistant coach Jim Russell.

"Coach Russell had three simple rules . . . learn to motivate, keep the game as simple as possible, and never go back on your values," Kindred said. "He taught me those three things and I really believe in them. The only other thing I would add in there is that I really demand perfection during practice.

"I'm a perfectionist when it comes to practice. I think you've got to demand that out of them and make practice so difficult that it makes the games seem like a vacation. But motivation and keeping the game simple is vital because if you've got the personnel and you've got them ready to go, then you're going to win the game every time."

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

Social, Cultural and Recreational

Opportunities for UK students are not limited to the academic world. Involvement in the social and cultural aspects of University life also is important.

Recognizing this, the University provides the widest range of opportunities for personal and social development. If a student likes music, for instance, the Concert and Lecture Series brings outstanding soloists and symphonies on campus. There are chamber music concerts and hard rock concerts, impromptu bluegrass groups and flute recitals. If one likes to participate, opportunities abound—there are several choral groups, a marching band, the symphony orchestra, the symphonic band—or there is always the guitar with a few friends under the trees. Whichever one chooses, at UK it's available—and there's someone to share it.

There are 22 national fraternities and 16 national sororities on campus. "Rush," or member recruitment, takes place before classes begin, and informally throughout the year.

In addition to supporting the various Wildcat and Lady Kat teams, men and women students take part as individuals or in groups in competitive sports and in intramural programs. The Seaton Center houses facilities in basketball, volleyball, badminton, squash, wrestling, and table tennis. An Olympic-size swimming pool, tennis courts, and several sports fields are available to students.

A similar variety of opportunities in drama, student government, athletics, service organizations, and recreation, is available.

The city of Lexington also offers UK students much in the way of entertainment. Lexington has a Philharmonic Orchestra, Chamber Music Society, the Lexington Singers, a Council of Arts, and a local Ballet Company. Movie theaters, international restaurants, coffee-houses, top-ranked acts of all types at fabulous Rupp Arena in the Lexington Center, historical landmarks, parks, and shopping centers, thoroughbred and harness racing, fine fishing in lakes, ponds and streams . . . all in easy distance of the UK campus.

Tailgating at football games, lining up for tickets to see nationally famous Wildcat teams in Rupp Arena or Lady Kat games in Memorial Coliseum, participating in the "Little Kentucky Derby," attending concerts at the downtown arena or in the 11,500-seat Coliseum on the UK campus, visiting the internationally famous Kentucky Horse Park . . . all just a few of the many attractions of Lexington and the University of Kentucky.

ASSISTANT DIRECTORS OF ATHLETICS

Frank Ham became assistant director soon after Cliff Hagan succeeded Harry C. Lancaster as director of athletics.

A native of Scranton, Pa., Ham came to the University in 1968 as administrative assistant to football Coach John Ray, and was reassigned to the athletic director's staff in 1972 when Ray resigned.

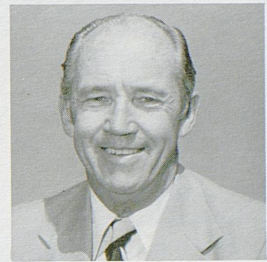

Ham graduated from high school at Niles, Mich., and completed his undergraduate work at Olivet College. He did graduate work at Indiana University and coached high school football and track at John Adams High School in South Bend and then returned to Olivet as athletic director and head football and basketball coach.

In 1962, he became assistant to the president at Olivet, with responsibilities in public and alumni relations. He was in private business from 1956 until 1968.

He is married to the former Rosemary Woods of Niles, Mich. They have two sons, Michael, of Raleigh, N.C., and Craig, a U.S. Army Major, and two daughters, Mrs. Andy Hunsberger of Cassopolis, Mich., and Jennifer, who graduated from UK in 1978 and received her master's the following year.

Ham is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Ham of Edwardsburg, Michigan.

Sue Feamster joined the athletics association in 1978 with the merger of men's and women's programs. Feamster had been the director of women's athletics prior to her appointment as assistant director of athletics.

A native of Frankfort, she came to the University as a graduate student in 1970, was named assistant director of campus recreation in 1972 and director of women's athletics in 1974. She served as president of The Kentucky Women's Intercollegiate Conference in 1975-77, and has been honored as one of the founders of the KIAC.

Feamster graduated from Franklin County High School where she was an outstanding tennis player and athlete. While in college she earned letters in tennis, field hockey, basketball and track from Indiana University and Kentucky State University, where she earned her B.S. degree and graduated with honors. She earned an M.S. degree from Administration from the University of Kentucky.

A former teacher and counselor, Feamster is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Feamster of Frankfort.
