

Rec. at Anchester
Unanswered

Charles Morris Daniels

Fergus Canada West May 9th 1865

Captain Hines

Dear Sir

Since my escape with which you are doubtless acquainted I went to Virginia and arrived in Cassell's woods just in time to find it impossible to reach our armies at any point and was compelled to come this way where I am waiting to hear from my friends and hold myself in readiness to go to Mexico and the Grand-Mississippi department or to obey any orders from our authorized agents. I must also state that I am rather short of