Dear Mother,

I will now answer your letter read Thursday the reason I did not get it sooner was that one of the stamps must have lost off for I had to send a stamp down there before I could get it. You said O Bryant called me up do you mean the O Bryan I used to work for in the Betting house.

What did he want with me.
That is awfull nice about the way they are fixing up the office and room it never would have happened if I would have stayed there.
I guess Bandy is all right now. I am working for The Roake & Richards cron who am putting the steel to gather for the Seelbach Hotel Annex down there. Tell all the fellows I will write to them before many months I dont want to spend all my money for Postage stamps.

Dear mama + papa + all.

Arrived O.K. this morning a day late, because of a land slide in Utah, had to detour 200 miles and it took us 12 hours to do it, because had to lay over on side tracks + wait for other trains to get by. Aunt Nell and a lady friend with her machine met me at the depot. We stopped in town at the market and got vegetables never saw any thing so cheap. Sure had a nice supper, Fried chicken, green beans, corn, tomatoes, cucumbers, radishes, green onions fish and jello and devil food cake, and I sure did eat, every thing tasted so good. Aunt Nell was so glad to see me, said wish you were here with me. We are going to a show to nite and on a picnic to the beach Sunday. I know I am going to have a grand time. Aunt Nell friend Mrs Owings is going to take us. Aunt Nell said to write to us and tell us all about Emily. I crossed 11 States and saw things I never did before

I don't know how to write to you in your sorrow. I got the message at 10 o'clock this morning, had just got Honey card, she wrote Saturday saying papa wasnt any better, about 9 o'clock. It was my day off and Mrs H was so nice told me to go up to aunt Nell's right away. The boy next door brought me in his car. I cried so my head nearly bursted I was crying because I wasnt there with you to help you. I knew I couldnt get back there in time for the funeral and didnt have the money any way Mrs H is coming home next week so I guess I will get
