CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I.

Name.

This association shall be called the Woman's Club of Central Kentucky.

ARTICLE II.

Object.

The object shall be to create among women an organized center of thought and action for the promotion of social, educational, literary and artistic growth, and what relates to the best interests of the community.

ARTICLE III.

Departments.

For the better execution of its object, the Club work shall be divided into departments, representing different lines of activity.

ARTICLE IV.

Officers

Sec. 1. The officers of the Club shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, residents of the City of Lexington, and as many more Vice-Presidents as there may be counties represented in the Club, including Fayette County, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer and two Auditors. These shall constitute the Executive Committee, who shall select the Chairman of Departments and the Chairman of Standing Committees.

Board of Directors

Sec. 2. The Executive Committee, the Chairman of Departments, and the Chairman of Standing Committees shall constitute the Board of Directors. This Board shall transact the business of the Club, and shall have power to fill vacancies occurring in its own body during the interim between elections.

ARTICLE V.

Nomination and Election of Officers

Sec. 1. The officers shall be elected by ballot at a meeting held annually on the first Saturday in March, and shall be installed in office on the first Saturday in June. The Club Year shall begin with October.

A Committee on Election shall be appointed to consist of three members of the Club, who shall serve as tellers at the annual meeting, and shall have power to choose assistants. The chairman of this committee shall be the corresponding secretary. A blank ballot shall be mailed to each member of the Club, which shall be filled in and returned to the Corresponding Secretary. The names of the three persons receiving the highest number of votes for each office shall be presented at the annual meeting, and the candidates receiving a majority of the votes of those present at said annual meeting shall be declared elected.

ARTICLE VI.

Duty of Officers.

Sec. 1. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Club, preserve order, enforce all laws and regulations, have general supervision of the interest of the Club, and perform such other duties as are incident to the office.

Sec. 2. The Vice-President, senior in order of election and present at the opening of the meeting, shall perform the duties of the President in case of her absence.

Sec. 3. The Recording Secretary shall take notes of the proceedings of the Club, make true entries in her book of all things done and passed, and read the same at each business meeting. She shall have charge of all books and papers of the Club, except those belonging to the Treasurer, or to any of the committees, and shall perform such other duties as are incidental to her office.

Sec. 4. The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct and have charge of the general correspondence of the Club. She shall keep a record of all official communications sent out by her, and all communications received by her for the Club. She shall sign and seal all notices and invitations, and notify all persons of their election to membership or office.

Sec. 5. The Treasurer shall collect all money for dues, initiation fees, guest tickets and badges. All money received by her shall be deposited in the name of the Club in such bank as she may select, and shall be drawn out only by her check as Treasurer. The Treasurer shall at the first Board meeting in the month make a statement of the finances, and at the annual meeting in December she shall make an annual report. She shall keep a correct account of all moneys received and paid out, and her books shall be at all times open to the inspection of the Board of Directors.

Sec. 6. The Auditor shall audit all bills and accounts of Treasurer, and report in writing at the annual meeting whether they are correct.

Sec. 7. No person shall hold more than one official position at any time, nor (with the exception of the Secretary) shall serve for a longer period than two years in the office to which she may be elected.

ARTICLE VII.

Membership

Sec 1. Qualifications for membership shall be character, intelligence and reciprocity.

Sec. 2. It shall be the privilege of each member in good standing, who has held membership for one year or longer to propose the names of two successful candidates during each Club year.

Sec. 3. The President shall appoint a committee on membership, consisting of three persons, whose names shall be known only to the President, and this committee shall receive 11 proposals for membership, and shall send the names of proposed new members to the President, and at the next meeting of the Board these names shall be submitted for confirmation, for which a two-thirds vote of the Directors shall be necessary.

Sec. 4. To become a member of the Club the name of the candidate, with full address and qualifications for membership, must be proposed in writing by a member of the Club. The name of a candidate proposed for membership must be enclosed in a sealed envelope, with the name of the endorser, and sent under cover to the President, who must not be informed of the name either of the candidate or of her endorser, but shall transmit the sealed envelope to the Committee on Membership.

Sec. 5. Every member of the Committee on Membership and every Director shall be in honor bound to keep secret the names of persons proposed until the same shall have been elected to membership, nor shall the name of a defeated candidate ever be divulged by the Board outside thereof, or by any member of the Committee on Membership. No Director shall be at liberty to state the nature of her vote, or how another voted.

Sec. 6. Daughters of members between the ages of twelve and sixteen may be admitted to the Club without being voted upon and upon the payment of half the usual dues. They shall be entitled to all privileges except holding office and voting in the business affairs of the Club.

Sec. 7. The membership of the Club shall be limited to two hundred and fifty.

ARTICLE VIII.

Dues.

Sec. 1. The annual fee of five dollars shall be paid to the Treasurer by each member of the Club at the business meeting in October, or within thirty days thereafter, otherwise the member is dropped.

Sec. 2. New members entering the Club at any time during the Club year shall pay an initiation fee of five dollars, and be exempt from annual dues for that Club year.

ARTICLE IX.

Sec. 1. This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of any meeting, notice of such intention having been given at a previous meeting.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.Regular Meetings

Sec. 1. The regular business meeting of the Club shall be held on the first Saturday afternoon of each month during the Club year of nine months, from October to June.

Sec. 2. Special meetings may be called by the President at the request of two or more Directors.

ARTICLE II.Department Committees

Sec. 1. Standing Committees, each consisting of five members of the Club, shall have charge of the departments, and shall prepare the programs of the regular meetings in the order determined by the Board of Directors. The chairman of these departments shall be announced in June of each year.

Duties of Chairmen.

Sec. 2. The duties of a Chairman of a Department Committee shall be to appoint the other members of said committee to arrange and attend all meetings of the committee, to prepare and provide for such Club meetings as shall be under the charge of her committee, and shall be responsible for the proper execution of the program of the day. At the annual meeting she shall report the work of her department during the year.

ARTICLE III.Standing Committees

Sec. 1. Standing Committees, each consisting of three members of the Club, shall be appointed by the Board of Directors. These for the present shall be five in number, namely, House, Hospitality, Entertainment, Press and Finance.

House

Sec. 2. The House Committee shall have charge of the Club rooms.

Hospitality.

Sec. 3. The Committee on Hospitality shall have charge of the social meetings to be held at the discretion of the Board of Directors, the object of such meetings being to entertain distinguished guests and to extend the influence of the Club.

Entertainment.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Entertainments to provide lectures or other entertainments to be determined by the Board of Directors.

Sec. 5. The Press Committee shall attend to the press notices of the Club.

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the Finance Committee to sub-let rooms in the Club building, and collect rent for the same.

ARTICLE IV.

Guest Tickets.

Sec. 1. The Directors issue tickets to admit guests to any meeting of the Club or departments or classes, and members may obtain such tickets from the Treasurer on payment of twenty-five cents. Two complimentary guest tickets may be issued to each essayist or speaker of the day. Non-resident members of similar associations shall be the guests of the Club.

ARTICLE V.Quorum.

Sec. 1. Thirty members shall constitute a quorum at any regular or duly called meeting of the Club.

Quorum Board of Directors

Sec. 2. One-third of the Board of Directors, residents in the city of Lexington, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The Board of Directors is required to have a stated place and time of meeting, and shall provide such rules for its government as may be necessary.

ARTICLE VI.Board of Directors Shall Keep Account of Its Acts

Sec. 1. The Board of Directors shall keep a correct account in the books kept for such purpose of all its acts, except when a candidate for membership is rejected, and the same shall at all times be open to the inspection of any member of the Club.

ARTICLE VII.

Sec. 1. No money shall be paid out on account of the Club unless ordered by the Club or Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VIII.Manual

Sec. 1. The deliberations of the meetings of the Club shall be governed by Roberts' Rules of Order.

ARTICLE IX.Amendments.

Sec. 1. These By-Laws may be amended by a two-thirds vote at any meeting, notice of such intention having been given at a previous meeting.
