Mr. O. M. Hardesty,
Stock Claim Agent, L & E Ry. Co.,
Lexington, Ky.

Dear Sir:-

Enclosed herewith, I hand you for your consideration copy of a letter of the 17th instant, written me by Judge Fields regarding claim of Stephen Adams against the L & E for the killing of a cow. As Judge Fields has indicated, the trial of this case has been postponed until the second Monday in December, to-wit: December 8, 1913. He advises that unless satisfactory proof supporting our defense can be obtained in the meantime, that the case should be settled.

Very truly yours,

Enc.

Counsel.
