

December 14, 1914.

Mr. C. H. Moorman,
Louisville, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:

Referring to your recent letter forwarding to me a bill in favor of W. Z. Eubanks for $16.00 for attendance and expense as a witness in the case of Lillie Cornett v. L & N R R Co., at Whitesburg, I herewith return said bill, together with copy of a letter of the 12th instant from Wootton & Morgan, approving the claim.

I presume it will be proper now for you to issue a voucher in favor of Mr. Eubanks for the amount of this claim.

Very truly yours,

encs.

SMW/a

Counsel.
