HELP HAZARD HUSTLE

HAZARD, KY.

Feb. 21, 1914.

Judge Samuel M. Wilson,
Lexington, Ky.

My dear Sir:

I am enclosing herewith copy of letter which I am writing to Hon. Matt S. Walton, Representative from Lexington. It is fully self explanatory. I have thought it probable that a word or line from you to Mr. Walton might go further toward enlisting his aid than all that I might ever be able to say or write to him.

I am writing similiarly to Representative Elwood Hamilton, of Frankfort, and Representative Reuben Hutchcraft, of Paris. No doubt you also know them, and it might possibly occur to you to send a line to some other of your friends in the Legislature who will be strong factors in getting our bill passed at this session.

If you are not too much rushed to give a little bit of time toward helping us out in this matter we will appreciate it far more than I can say, but you understand our needs far better than I could explain them, and I know you will join us in the wish and hope that the measure may certainly be enacted into law at this session.

Very truly yours,

Pres. Hazard Commercial Club.
