W. A. McDowell, Esq.,
Manager L. & E. Ry. Co.,
Lexington, Ky.

Dear Sir,

Judge Wilson has written Mr. Jouett, calling attention to the fact that Judge Ira Fields writes he has not received his January salary, and Judge Wilson says also that he has not received his.

This is due to the fact that we have not made up any pay roll for January salaries for the L. & E. attorneys. It seems to have been assumed that this pay-roll would be made up at Lexington, as heretofore, and, pursuant to President Smith's letter, December 23, that the pay-roll when thus made up and approved by you and Judge Wilson would be sent here for further approval by the General Counsel and myself.

Hereafter this pay-roll can probably be made up here just as well as it can at Lexington, and unless you hear to the contrary you may understand that this course will be pursued. But I prefer that the January
