Judge Samuel M. Wilson,

Counsel L. & E. Ry. Co., Lexington, Ky.

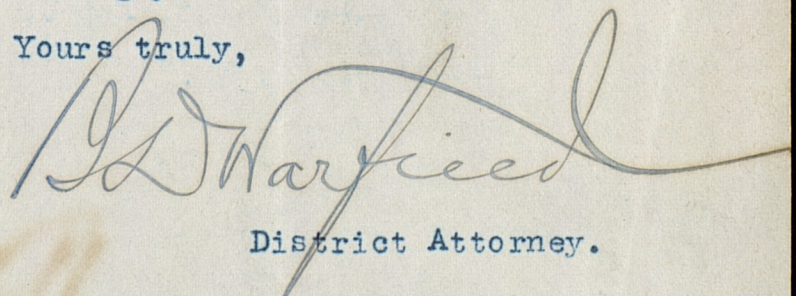

Dear Sir,

I have your two favors July 7 in re status of litigation in which the L. & E. is interested. As you say, I have already received from Messrs. Wootton & Morgan copy of report they have made you as to the Perry County litigation, and from Judge Pollard copy of report he made to you as to the Breathitt county litigation. That information, together with that which accompanied your letters of yesterday, gives me sufficient information as to all of the L. & E. litigation, for the purposes of my request.

I have written you separate letters as to some of the matters, making at random some suggestions which have occurred to me. Of course I have not attempted any comprehensive consideration or discussion of the cases in which the suggestions are made.

If you need additional information as to any of the cases please write Mr. Donohue or me accordingly.

Yours truly,

District Attorney.
