January 29, 1917.

Mr. Samuel M. Wilson,
Lexington, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:

Just a line to tell you that the claim I wrote you about, in favor of the First National Bank against the L & N, has been settled satisfactorily. The Railroad Company had this table repaired without trouble and expense to the Bank, and it has been received by the Bank in good condition.

I desire to thank you for your assistance and interest in the matter. I am glad the matter has been adjusted.

With kindest personal regards, I am,

Yours very truly,

W. W. Reeves
