Mr. J. C. Nickerson,
Sup'v'r. Construction,
Whitesburg.

Dear Sir:-

Referring to injury to Clayborne Trout, the negro man who had his leg broken on June 13th, 1912. I have taken a release from him settling in full for the sole consideration of $350.00.

He talked as though you had in a way intimated to him that you would put him to work. I made him understand distinctly that that was not a part of the settlement, but if you desired to put him to work, it was in your hands entirely.

Yours truly,

W. A. McDowell.

General Manager.
