LEXINGTON & EASTERN RAILWAY COMPANY, ET AL.,

DEFENDANTS.

The defendant, the Lexington & Eastern Railway Company, for answer to the petition and amended petition herein, denies that it has any knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief that W. A. Hickerson, at his death, left as his only children, Luther Hickerson, Maude Tarpy, Watson Hickerson, Clay Hickerson, Frances Hickerson and Grace Hickerson; or that Luther Hickerson died in May, 1908, after having attained full age, and intestate and unmarried, leaving his mother, Belle Hobbs, as his only heir at law; or that said Luther Hickerson left no personal estate, or that no administrator was ever granted; or that the plaintiffs, Watson Hickerson, Clay Hickerson, Frances Hickerson and Grace Hickerson are each infants under twenty-one years of age; or that the plaintiffs, Clay Hickerson, Frances Hickerson or Grace Hickerson, are infants under the age of fourteen years; or that Belle Hobbs was, by proper or any order of the Clark County Court, appointed statutory Guardian for each of said infants.
