Counsel, L. & E. Ry. Co.,
Lexington, Ky.

Dear Sir:

—Commonwealth of Kentucky, by, &c., v.
Lexington & Eastern Ry. Co. Tax Suit
No. 2.

I have your letter of October 27th inclosing amended answer, plea in abatement and in bar, in the above-styled case, which I have read, and which, in my opinion, is in proper shape. On this plea I think we ought to procure a dismissal of that part of the second suit which seeks to assess our property in Perry County for the years that are involved in the first suit.

I hand you herewith a letter I have just received from Mr. Bradford relative to information requested in your letter of October 20th. He seems not to be in a position to give any information on that subject, and suggests that you get Mr. Williams in the case, and that Mr. Williams will be able to testify on the points on which you want to introduce evidence in the case.

Yours truly,

Moorman
Assistant District Attorney.
