

FAYETTE CIRCUIT COURT.

Security Trust Company, Administrator of George Copland, deceased, Plaintiff.

V. DEMURRER, ANSWER AND CROSS-PETITION OF KENTUCKY UNION COMPANY.

Jane Copland, &c., Defendants.

----- o o o -----

The defendant, Kentucky Union Company, demurs generally to plaintiff's Petition upon the ground that same does not state facts sufficient to constitute any cause of action against this defendant.

Without waiving its Demurrer aforesaid, the defendant, Kentucky Union Company, states that it is a corporation created, organized and existing under the laws of the State of Kentucky, with power to contract and be contracted with, to sue and be sued, and with all such other powers as are necessary or appropriate to the purposes of its incorporation, and that its principal office and place of business is in the City of Lexington, Fayette County, Kentucky.

Defendant further states that one George Copland, formerly Treasurer of the Kentucky Union Company, died intestate on the 11th day of February, 1913, in Fayette County, Kentucky, of which County said Copland was a resident and in which he was domiciled at the time of his death, and that subsequently on the _____ day of March, 1913, the plaintiff, Security Trust Company, was duly appointed and qualified as Administrator of said George Copland under and by virtue of orders of the Fayette County Court,
