

November 6, 1916.

Lewis E. Harvie, Esq.,
Whitesburg, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:

Thanks for your favor of October 28, 1916, referring me to case of Husband, etc. v. Cotton, 188 S.W. 380, for use in connection with suit in Letcher Circuit Court of L & E Ry. Co. v. Felix G. Fields, etc.

I also acknowledge in this connection receipt of yours of October 30th, enclosing copy of Lis Pendens Notice in the same case. Please let me know on what date this Notice was filed. If the L & N is made a co-plaintiff or a substitute plaintiff, ought not an amended Notice showing that fact be filed in the Clerk's office?

SLW/a

Very truly yours,

Counsel.