

April 7, 1915.

Hon. Sam Hurst,
Beattyville, Ky.

Dear Sir:

I have just been advised by the Clerk of the Court of Appeals that the case of Commonwealth v. L & E Ry. Co., growing out of the closing of track between Beattyville Junction and Ivy Patch Cut, on the old line, and which was decided in favor of the defendant in the Circuit Court, has been appealed to the Court of Appeals and assigned for trial on September 20, 1915.

Will you please arrange with the attorneys for the Commonwealth to furnish us in ample time a copy of their brief, so that we may promptly prepare brief for appellee.

Thanking you for your attention to this, I am,

Very truly yours,

SMW/a

Counsel.
