

May 27th, 1916.

Judge O. H. Pollard,
Jackson, Ky.

Dear Sir:-

Herewith I enclose voucher draft for $95.50 in favor of Adams & Holliday, Attorneys, to cover costs in the various suits in the Breathitt Circuit Court recently closed out by settlement. Please deliver the draft to the proper parties. This is in answer to your communications of April 25th and May 22nd, 1916.

I note in your letter of April 27th, 1916, you give the amount of costs in favor of Robert J. Clay as $12.75, whereas the enclosed voucher figures these costs at $9.80. I have not the papers before me, but imagine that the excess was due to the addition of certain costs for the defendant.

Yours very truly,

Counsel.
