

Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company,

Benjamin D. Warfield,
District Attorney.

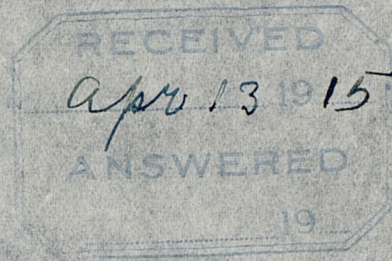

Law Department for Kentucky.

Charles H. Moorman,
Asst. District Attorney.

James J. Donohue,
Chief Law Agent.

Louisville, Ky.

April 12th, 1915.

Messrs. Wootten & Morgan,
Attorneys, Hazard, Kentucky.

Gentlemen:-

Referring to your letter of April 8th in which you advised Judge Wilson that Mr. Day had settled the case of Little Whitaker v. L. & N. R. Co., Perry Quarterly Court, at $25., the understanding being plaintiff is to pay the costs.

Herewith I hand you voucher and draft for $25. in favor of Little Whitaker, both made payable to Stephen Combs, Attorney. Please have Mr. Combs sign voucher at the place indicated by the letter "A" in the presence of two witnesses who will sign at "B" and "C": When this has been done please return voucher to me and deliver draft to Mr. Combs.

Yours truly,

Assistant District Attorney.

Copy to

Hon. S. M. Wilson,

Counsel, L. & E. R. Co.,

Lexington, Kentucky.

JJD/w