Hazard, Kentucky, March 11th, 1915.

Mr. Samuel M. Wilson,
Lexington, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:

We are in receipt of your letter of the 9th enclosing copy of letter of Roadmaster Ely, concerning the case of Press Napier v. L & E Ry Co. We have noted this letter as regards cattle guards, and witness by whom we can show that Napier purposely left open his fence that cattle might stray into his corn.

We think this will enable us to successfully defend this suit.

Yours very truly,

Wootton & Morgan.
