

November 26, 1915.

M. Seargeant, Esq.,
Supt., Eastern Ky. Division,
Ravenna, Ky.

Dear Sir:

Herewith, an Order this day made by Mr. H.C. Gudgell, Referee in Bankruptcy in the matter of the Wolf Valley Coal Company, bankrupt, now in proceedings in bankruptcy in the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Kentucky, directing that certain items of property described in said Order be delivered to Mr. J. R. Richards. Mr. Richards and his attorney, Mr. Kelly Kash, of Jackson, called to see me in regard to the matter this afternoon and, after going over the list of items embodied in the Order and after talking the matter over with Mr. Richards, I feel satisfied that there is no part of this property to which the L & N can assert any possible claim and I therefore advise that the Order of the Referee be complied with as conveniently as possible.

enc.

Very truly yours,

SMW/a

Counsel.