

Sept. 25, 1916.

C. H. Moorman, Esq.,
Asst. Dist. Atty., L & N R R Co.,
Louisville, Ky.

Dear Sir:

Please note my letter to you of the 11th instant and the enclosures, just received from Mr. Lewis E. Harvie, at Whitesburg, in reference to the costs in the case of J.B. Taylor v. L & E, lately pending in the Letcher Circuit Court. From the enclosures, it will appear that an additional voucher for $3.00 is due Miss Frances Blair, Notary Public, for taking depositions in this case. Will you kindly have voucher issued to cover and oblige,

Yours truly,

enc.

SMW/a

Counsel.