

CLARK CIRCUIT COURT.

CLARK VAUGHN'S ADMINISTRATOR,

PLAINTIFF.

V. BILL OF EXCEPTIONS.

LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE RAILROAD COMPANY,

DEFENDANT.

-----

BE IT REMEMBERED That, heretofore, to-wit: at the regular December Term, 1916, of the Clark Circuit Court, and on the 15th day of December, 1916, this cause coming on for trial and both parties having announced ready, a jury was thereupon duly selected, empaneled and sworn, and the case having been stated to the jury by the attorneys for plaintiff and defendant respectively, the plaintiff thereupon introduced in his behalf the following witnesses, viz:-

A. E. Vaughn, father and Administrator of the decedent, Clark Vaughn, and plaintiff in this action,

Leonard Vaughn,

Each of whom testified in person, and the testimony of each of whom was duly reported by M. B. Parrish, Official Stenographer of the Clark Circuit Court.

The plaintiff also introduced the testimony of the following witnesses whose testimony had, previous to the trial, been taken by deposition, and the depositions of each of whom was read to the jury by the plaintiff in his behalf, subject to objections and exceptions by the defendant, viz: