

April 14, 1917.

J. J. Donohue, Esq.,
Asst. Dist. Atty., L&N RR Co.,
Louisville, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:

Referring to the case of T. C. Hall v. L&N, Powell Circuit Court, in which a trial was had at the March Term, 1917, I herewith hand you Bill for Judgment and Costs on Form No. 4, amounting to $113.32, Taxation of Plaintiff's Costs, and copy of Judgment. In reporting this case, Mr. Atkinson writes -

"This trial proceeded in the regular order and the amount of the verdict was simply a matter in the minds of the jury, of course the case is too small for appeal, since the court holds that the amount of the judgment fixes the jurisdiction of the Court."

Please have voucher issued for the above amount at your first convenience and oblige,

Yours truly,
