

May 17th, 1917.

Your file 88581.

Mr. J. J. Donohue,
Louisville, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:

In re suit J. H. Bentley v. L. & N. R. R. Co, now pending in the Letcher Quarterly Court:

In reply to your letter of April 14th I beg to state that D. D. Fields, attorney for plaintiff has agreed to settle the case according to your offer to wit: $13.88 for the value of the cider actually lost, plus $1.08 overcharge in freight. Also the cost in the case to be paid by defendant. The total costs will amount to $ 3<sup>00</sup>. Please therefore let me have check for $14.96 payable to J. H. Bentley and for $ 3<sup>00</sup> payable to H. T. Day, Judge Letcher Quarterly Court.

Yours truly,

Lewis S. Harris

Copy S. M. Wilson
Morgan & Nuckols