

October 16, 1915.

Messrs. Wootton & Morgan, Attorneys,
Hazard, Kentucky.

Gentlemen:

Referring to recent correspondence on the subject of the approaching November Special Term of the Letcher Circuit Court, I have a letter from Mr. Warfield in which he states that it is desirable from our standpoint, to try no more cases, if possible, before Judge Roberson or as few as possible and that it is hoped that between us we may be able to "throw a wrench into Judge Roberson's machine."

A word to the wise is sufficient.

Very truly yours,

SLW/a

Counsel.
