

March 17, 1914.

Mr. J. J. Donohue,
Chief Law Agent, L & N R R Co., Louisville, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:-

Referring to the case of E. C. Jones v. L & E Ry. Co., and to your recent letter asking me to ascertain what investigation or report, if any, our Local Attorneys had before them at the time this case was tried, I herewith hand you a letter of the 14th instant, written me by Mr. Morgan, together with the enclosures therein referred to. After consideration of these papers, kindly have them returned to me for my files and oblige,

Yours truly,

Enc.

SMW/a

Counsel.
