

1871

January 6th The Faculty met as usual.

H. H. Sherman was present to account for absences from his recitations. He stated that he is the driver for the milk-wagon and on that account is compelled to miss his recitations.

Maj. Tibbitts and Mr. Duncan were instructed to report the matter to the Regents and see what change he can make.

Mr. W. C. Gill asked permission to stop his class in Mathematics.

His request was granted on condition that he present a certificate from some physician stating that his health requires it. Furloughs were granted to Messrs Andrews and Crocker.

An honorable discharge was granted to Mr. Redding.

The officers of Club No. 1, having been questioned as to the condition of affairs in the Club, it was resolved that the Club should be divided. Prof. Henson and Maj. Tibbitts were authorized to arrange the terms of division of the property of the Club. Prof. Henson and Mr. Smith asked permission to introduce Clarke's Grammar into their classes. Their request was granted. The Faculty then adjourned.

Jas. G. White Sec.

January 13th The Faculty met at the usual hour.

Mr. H. A. Bennett asked permission to change his boarding house, but not having the proper authority from home his request was refused. The janitor having given up his duties the President was authorized to procure some one in his place.

The President was requested to represent to the Executive Committee the urgent necessity for cleaning out one of the wells on the grounds and placing a pump in it.

Honorable discharges were granted to Messrs Riggle and Kuler. The Faculty then adjourned.

Jas. G. White Sec.

January 20th The Faculty met as usual. Messrs. Bennett & Terhune were allowed to change their boarding house. F. M. Baker was publicly dismissed for using insolent language to Maj. Tibbitts and refusing to obey his orders. Grewford was excused from work and drill on account of sore eyes. J. M. W. Garvey jr was arraigned for throwing stone into a persimmon tree and going beyond limits prescribed for himself and some others. His general standing was reduced to 0/0 and the Pres. <sup>was</sup> requested to address a note to the Capt. father informing him of his son's conduct. An honorable dismissal was granted to Mr. Ryan. The Faculty then adjourned. Jas. G. White Sec.