

took it very matter-of-factly - Uochi has been wonderful - she thinks you are just about right - dad says very little except drops such remarks as this at dinner, "wonder who will eat the chicken legs after you leave us" - I think he is thinking a great deal.
L wrote Charles but only said that things were rather serious - haven't heard yet - asked him what he thought about it - have anxious to hear what he will say.

I also wrote Mrs Wallace about not going back there had nothing from her - it may turn out that I will have to go away for a while. I think everybody I know has asked me when I go away

Monday, Aug 21.

My dear Dad -

Your letter was splendid. If you really knew how the two that came on Wednesday reassured me - they were exactly what I needed. Just that I had changed my mind. I don't believe I could do that but since I came after camp & everything had to normal with much time to think - I gradually began to waken from a sort of daze - everything had happened so quickly and unexpectedly - to have one week change my whole outlook &
