

when we come back. Don't worry about that part of it.

It delighted my heart to hear you say you needed my letters and you thought about me often and the week last summer - if I can get to feel or if you can make me feel that you really need me - then I see your heart and soul.

I shall write Rhoda like velia right away - did you write Dutch Welk - they don't you if you'd like to have him. Ned & Mary were out here last Sunday and I showed her some of my things - she is the only one I've said anything to. We heard the other day that Mary Hobbs is to begin teaching school just outside of Balto. on Monday so I'll go up after she leaves and tell Aunt Mirt. I think I'll be the only one left to come she probably won't be able to leave

Dear Dave.

Your letters were great - gee - ever sound like business. Every one is drawing the net in tighter & tighter. Maybe you won't appreciate this remark but I remind myself of a cautious nervous man - pulling in the opposite direction - I have no doubt that you are able to tame me. I feel it coming -

The apartment is alright - of course it doesn't have the fireplace nor a piano and a few such things - but we can still keep them in our dreams and some day we will have them won't we? I think we can change things around to suit ourselves. I have already thought of
