CENTRE STAYS ON TOP IN STATE BASKETBALL

Game is Best of Year; Wildcats Lose to Vanderbilt But Win From Cincinnati and Wesleyan

LAVIN IS NEW STAR

Centre College trailed the Wildcats in the dust on the local floor last Monday night, but Kentucky put up a spectacular game, fighting with all their might until time was called. The score was 21 to 10.

Cincinnati University's quintet fell victim to Kentucky Friday night by a 34 to 21 score. The game was hard fought thruout.

Since the last edition of this paper, four games have been played by the Wildcats. Two have been accounted for. Tuesday night a week ago, Vanderbilt, Kentucky's nemesis, easily defeated the Wildcats by a 36 to 26 score. The Wesleyanites at Winchester lost to Kentucky Saturday night by the score of 18 to 13.

As has been evidenced thruout the season, the Wildcat basketball squad has been greatly handicapped by an inadequacy of good material. Then, too, some members of the varsity have not been broken of the habit or fondness, perhaps, of shooting at the basket every time they get their hands on the ball. This lack of team play has caused the local aggregation to be on the small side of the scoreboard in more than one game.

Best Form Shown

Best form shown this season, tho, was seen in the Cincinnati-Kentucky and the Centre-Kentucky games. The Buckeye five handed State a defeat early in the season, scoring 38 to 30. The Wildcats were confident that they had the best team, however, and were determined to turn tables when they got the opportunity. How Cincinnati won the game in that city several weeks ago is not clear if the Ohioans put out no better brand of ball than they demonstrated Friday night. Their center, Isserman, saved his team from being smothered by shooting seven field goals. The others were slow and lacked knowledge of how to play the game.

For Kentucky, a new star rose in the heavens. The star was little but it was brilliant. Lavin, who got his first chance to show what he could do when Cincinnati came to town played such a fast game that he was the center of attention during the evening. He shot five field goals, all of them beauties. Everett, too, played a good game, getting the same number of field goals as did Lavin.

After defeating Cincinnati on Friday night, the Wildcats motored to Winchester Saturday night and de-

SHORT COURSE HELPS 200 COUNTY ENGINEERS

Judges, Magistrates and Inspectors Hear Lectures On Construction of all Types of Roads

The fifth Annual Short Course in Highway Engineering is being held this week at the University, under the auspices of the College of Engineering and the State Department of Public Roads. The meetings are being held in the lecture rooms of the Civil Engineering building.

More than 200 County Engineers, County Judges, Magistrates, Road Inspectors and interested citizens of the State have registered and are attending the lectures.

Professor D. V. Terrell, head of the Department of Civil Engineering, under whose direction the work is done, opened the session Monday morning and introduced President Frank L. McVey, who delivered an address of welcome to the county officials and road engineers. Lectures, round table discussions and practical experiments in the University laboratories, on the questions pertaining to road building in Kentucky have been held during the morning and afternoon sessions each day of the course.

The principal address of the week was made Monday by Rodman Wiley, State Road Commissioner, in which he pleaded with the officials to get behind the road movement and put Kentucky in the front rank. Governor Stanley was to have addressed the morning session Tuesday, but was unable to attend because of an imperative call to Washington.

The construction of Macadam roads, their maintenance, and methods of resurfacing and repairing them, were the principal topics discussed at the road builders meeting Wednesday. After addresses on these subjects by M. D. Ross, division engineer, Frankfort, R. C. Heath, Department of Public Roads, Mack Galbraith and W. N. Bosler, division engineers, there was a prolonged

PANHELLENIC DANCE TO BE ON MARCH 7

Panhellenic, which is the largest social event on the University calendar, is to be on the evening of March 7, in the ballroom of the Phoenix Hotel from 8 until 1 o'clock. The music will be by the Smith Saxophone Trio.

Representatives who were present at the meeting yesterday were: President of Panhellenic, Lieutenant Edward Dabney, Alpha Tau Omega; D. Dishman, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; M. Murphy, Sigma Nu; John Davis, Kappa Alpha; Smith Parks, Phi Delta Theta; C. D. Triplett, P. K.; J. Glenn, Kappa Sigma; Thompson Gutherie, Sigma Chi; Clarence Wood, Freshman representative.

TRACK TEAM CALLED OUT FOR PRACTICE

"Gee! But it's chilly." Track team aspirants of the University of Kentucky have been called out by Coach Gill. Before this week has ended, the thoroughbreds will be out, on the athletic field in abbreviated costumes with their nice little pinkums bare from ankle to knee. Goose flesh will probably fall several points on the market for from the present outlook there will be an abundance of it.

There was no track team to represent the University last year. Consequently, there is not much dope to be given out on material. Three track letter men are now in school, however. They are Planck, Kahn and Knight.

Coach Gill announced this week that two meets have been scheduled. They are as follows:

Miami University at Oxford—April 26.

University of Cincinnati at Lexington—May 17.

BOLES' NEW ATHLETIC PROGRAM LOOKS GOOD

Athletic Director Will Introduce Mass Athletics to University Men; Large Class Expected

Athletics for the whole instead of for the part will be introduced in the University this semester. To develop persons who have been mentally trained into persons of fine physique is the ideal of the nation. It is the idea, in addition, of S. A. Boles, physical director of the University of Kentucky, to have every male student registered at this University take part in some form of athletics.

"Great stress will be laid on athletics in this University during the semester just started," Professor Boles said yesterday. "It is the present plan to have every student in the University participate in athletics," he continued. "The physical man received great recognition in the United States army during the recent war, and it is the desire of the government to build up a nation of men and women second to none in physique."

Professor Boles said that a model playground would be made on the athletic field in the near future and that mass athletics would be introduced to University men. All freshmen and sophomores will have to complete two years of physical training before they can be graduated so they will form the basis of a big class in mass athletics. All men in the University are cordially invited to enter this class.

The course of physical training to be undergone will be modeled to a certain extent after that practised in the

WILDCATS WILL TRY TO WREAK REVENGE FRIDAY

To Beat Tennessee Will be Kentucky's Object in Basketball Game to be Played Here.

All Wildcat aims now are centered on wrecking Tennessee. Padded with several old letter men, the quintet, representing Kentucky's ancient rival will breeze into Lexington Friday night to engage the Kentucky five in basketball battle.

When the Wildcats invaded our neighboring state several weeks ago, the Tennesseans tramped on them to the tune of 46 to 22. Nevertheless, the Cats are confident of victory. Needless to say, they are hot for revenge.

On the probable line-up sent in to Coach Gill are the names of three men who played on last year's Tennessee team. They are Calloway, Troutman and Magers. Bell, 1918 man, is on the squad. Reeder who was a regular on that famous old 1917 quintet which represented Tennessee, is back, and will probably get in the game.

Kentucky is banking to win. Tennessee hangs up with Centre and Georgetown before she tackles the Wildcats on Friday night. Consequently, it is just that the Southern quintet might be just a little bit used up.

Lieutenant Hansen, who is looked upon as one of the best referees in the State, will handle the whistle in the Tennessee game.

The probable line-up follows:

Tennessee	Position	Kentucky
Sullivan	F	Lavin
Troutman	F	Thomas
James	C	Everett
Calloway	G	Dishman
Mayers	G	Burnham

BARROW UNIT SAILS ON THE MAURETANIA

Two cablegrams, received from members of the unit have given credence to the rumors that Base Hospital No. 40, Dr. Barrow's Unit, is on the way home. This unit composed entirely of blue grass men, has in its organization over fifty former students.

A cablegram received by Mrs. George Bell from her husband, and a similar notification to Mrs. Hardin Short from her husband, both of whom are members of the command, said they would leave on the Mauretania February 27.

No official notification has come that others will start at that time, altho several officers of the organization have reached the United States in the past few weeks.

The major portion of the men have been stationed at Sarisbury Court, near Southampton, England, while others, especially the surgeons and nurses, have been on duty at various hospitals, some going to France.

STUDENT Y. M. C. A. MEN TO MEET HERE FEB. 27

Approximately 200 Delegates From Kentucky Colleges and Universities Will Attend State Students Conference

ZERFOSS TO DIRECT

The State Students' Conference of the Y. M. C. A. will be held at the University of Kentucky, February 27, March 2, inclusive, under the direction of the State student secretary, Karl Zerfoss, former student of the University.

Approximately 200 delegates from colleges and universities of Kentucky are expected to attend, and report the Y. M. C. A. activities in their institutions.

The faculty advisory council of the State Y. M. C. A. met Monday at a preliminary conference, held in the afternoon and evening at the Phoenix Hotel.

Programs for the student conference and the faculty conference to be held in connection with it Saturday, March 1, were outlined, and invitations to attend the latter were sent out to all professors in the colleges and universities of the State.

Friday afternoon from 1 p. m. until 4 p. m. will be the time for the registration of delegates. Friday evening will be the first regular meeting of the Conference. It is to be held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms at 7 p. m. Dr. Bush has charge of the devotional exercises, and Dr. McVey will deliver the welcome address, after which the election of officers will be held. The meeting will then adjourn and attend the basketball game between the University of Kentucky and the University of Tennessee.

Saturday morning at 8:30 the delegates will reassemble.

H. L. Seamans, State student secretary, Columbus, O., will have charge of the devotional exercises. Dr. Bush will speak on Bible study and Dr. McVey on Social Service.

Saturday afternoon will be spent in discussing the problems, plans and activities of the Y. M. C. A.

Saturday evening the girls of Patterson and Maxwell Halls will give a reception for the delegates in chapel, which will be followed by an address on Missions by J. Louell Murray, educational secretary in the Student Volunteer Movement in New York. The public is invited to this lecture.

Sunday morning in the Y. M. C. A. rooms the delegates and cabinet men will gather for a short meeting, which will adjourn in time for Sunday-school. Sunday afternoon A. J. "Dad" Elliot will be heard in the University chapel, in an address to college men. The subject of his lecture will be "Quitters." An added feature of the meeting will be special music by the Boys' Glee Club.

At 6:30 Sunday evening there will be a typical Y. M. C. A. meeting, at which short talks by the different leaders will be given.

Dr. O. E. Brown, of Vanderbilt University, who has been a "Y" secretary at Ft. Oglethorpe during the war, will be the principal speaker at the faculty meeting.

Other speakers of prominence will be H. Tinker, international Y. M. C. A. secretary; and Rev. W. R. Cunningham, a returned missionary.

DR. FRED MUTCHLER TO LEAVE UNIVERSITY

The resignation of Dr. Fred A. Mutchler, for six years director of agricultural extension at the University, to take effect June 30, was accepted by the executive committee of the board of trustees at a meeting held Wednesday, February 19. The report of D. H. Peak, business agent, on the financial affairs of the University and the disposition of the barracks and equipment was heard, and routine appointments were made. In the absence of President Frank L. McVey, who was unable to attend because of illness, several important matters were postponed. Those present were R. G. Gordon, Louisville; P. P. Johnston, Lexington and Senator H. M. Frohman, representing R. C. Stoll, of Lexington, who is out of town.

Senator Frohman presided, and at the suggestion of President McVey, Dean Thomas P. Cooper, of the College of Agriculture, presented the resignation of Doctor Mutchler. The members expressed their regret at the decision of Doctor Mutchler, who has made the agricultural extension work of benefit to every farm and farm home in the State. He will become state agent for the D. C. Heath Company, of New York and Chicago.

Leave of absence was recommended for Professor George H. Vansell, assistant professor of zoology for the scholastic year 1919-1920. C. S. Crouse was appointed professor of metallurgy in the Department of Mining Engineering; W. J. Carrell, assistant professor in engineering and A. S. Chapin, assistant in poultry extension work. A number of appointments as county agents throught the State and clerical workers in the various colleges were confirmed.

Mother—John, how is it that you stand much lower in your studies in January than in December.

John—Oh, everything is marked down after the holidays.

SENATE MAKES CHANGE IN RECITATION HOURS

The schedule of recitation hours disarranged by the Student's Army Training Corps will be resumed Monday, with the first hour from 8 until 8:50 according to the Student's Hand Book. Drill and chapel will be the fifth hour with chapel in charge of the faculty on Tuesday and at the disposal of the student body on Friday.

This arrangement obliterates the last trace of the S. A. T. C. and the interference of military life on the University campus. Patterson Hall residents will have to be on the scene of duty a whole hour earlier than in the days of 8 o'clock drill when this change goes into effect. The most noticeable difference in the arrangement, however, will be chapel in the middle of the day instead of the first thing in the morning.

discussion of the repair of the many macadam roads in the Bluegrass section of the State, where so many are in poor condition. "The Proper Method of Spreading Stone" was the subject of W. B. Paynter, division engineer, Frankfort, and L. D. Hollingsworth, also of Frankfort, spoke on "The Twenty Cent Road Tax," citing the many benefits which it would bring to every community in the State.

President Frank L. McVey, of the University of Kentucky, spoke at the morning session on "The Economic Value of Roads," and Rodman Wiley, State road commissioner, closed the program of the day with an address on "Mistakes in Road Work."

Two hundred and thirty-five road men were registered Wednesday and the majority of them were present at a social smoker held at the Phoenix Hotel in the evening, at which Dean F. Paul Anderson, of the College of Engineering, presided.

It is the purpose of this course to advance the cause of good roads throught the State of Kentucky. That the road builders are being benefitted by the lectures, discussions, demonstrations and practical experimenting, and the interchanging of ideas is beyond doubt. After having heard these lectures on the construction and reconstruction of all types of roads these men will be much better fitted to go back to their work and study their daily problems.

HEADQUARTERS FOR STUDENTS

HIS CURE

Private McGuire, lying in hospital, was very fractious. He pointedly refused to take a second dose of medicine, which was inordinately "nasty." Several smiling nurses bent over him and urged him to be good.

"Come," pleaded one, "drink this and you'll get well."

"And rosy, too!" chimed in a second. McGuire visibly brightened, and sat up in bed.

After surveying the pretty group, he inquired, agerly, "What was o' yer iz Rosy?"—London Tit-Bits.

UNIVERSITY YEAR BOOK IS PROGRESSING NICELY

Copy is in Printers' Hands and Engravers are at Work on "Beauty Section."

Thru the combined efforts of the members of the staff of the 1919 Kentuckian year book of the University is beginning to assume tangible shape. Copy is in the hands of the printers and the engravers are at work on that most important section "The Beauty Section."

The unusually balmy days of February are inspiring Snap Shot Editor Creech to snap as many of the fair sex as possible. Armed with his kodak he promises that the feature section of the Kentuckian will be rich with good snaps. The editors of the Kentuckian request all students of the University to hand in to Mr. Creech any snaps they might have of the University, either of students, student life or scenes on the campus.

The business manager of the Annual, Frederick M. Jackson, announces that owing to the fact that examinations were in full blast on February 15, the date set for the final payment for the pages in the year book, this last day for payment has been advanced to March 1. It is necessary that all organizations and societies remit promptly for the pages ordered. With all copy submitted to the publishers must go cash payments. No work can be done on the Kentuckian until full payment is made. To provide for this it is necessary that the sum charged for each page be given to the business manager. The price per page is nine dollars, two pages for sixteen dollars. Thru an error made by the typist of the department, the price was set at seventeen dollars. The editors of the Kentuckian take this opportunity to correct that error. The price per page for all organizations, societies and fraternities with no exceptions is nine dollars, two pages for sixteen. As several organizations have already paid the seventeen dollars, the editors desire to return the dollar difference.

The subscription contest is now going at full blas. Any contestants may obtain blanks in the Kentuckian room in the Main building now. The contestants report that competition is strong; the editors announce that there is room for more contestants.

The editors are the recipients of a letter from the Benson Printing Co., of Nashville, Tenn., the printers of last year's annual, in which they pay high praise to the Beauty Section of the annual, designed and drawn by William Wallace, art editor of this year's Kentuckian. The letter said in part, "you should consider it an honor that certain of the plates were considered worthy to be put in our collection of cuts. Handling thirty-five books each year, there are a number of designs made from different annuals, but I tell you frankly that the art work of last year's Kentuckian excels any we had. It certainly was attractive."

SAFE FROM "OVERSEAS"

Weller A. Gary, a former student of this University, has written to the Kernel that he has arrived safely home after several months in France, and that he is coming to the University to resume his classes. Incidentally, he subscribed for this paper.

HONOR STUDENTS LIST WILL BE PUBLISHED

The Senate has announced that in a short time there will be given out for publication a list of the Honor Students of the University, both upper and underclassmen. The Senate believes that thru the publication of the honor students of the University there will grow a greater desire to excell. Public announcement will be made of all students who have attained so far in their course a standing of two or more points. Each point represents so many accredited hours as stated below:

Students who attain a standing for the course of 2 3-8 or higher are honored "With High Distinction." Students who attain a standing of 2 1-8 or higher may receive "With Distinction" and "Special Mention," is made of those who attain a standing of 2 and are recommended by the department concerned for especially good work.

Following is the marking system of the University adopted by the Senate:

- A—Exceptionally high quality, valued at 3 points per credit.
 - B—Good, valued at 2 points per credit.
 - C—Fair, valued at 1 point per credit.
 - D—Poor, but passing, valued at 0 points per credit.
 - E—Failure, valued at 0 points per credit.
 - I—Incomplete.
 - X—Absent from examination.
- Advanced credit will be regarded as of grade C.

best army camps in the country. In connection with this enlarged athletic program, tennis teams will be organized to contest with teams representing other universities. Professor Boles is now considering plans whereby a number of tennis courts can be laid out on the campus. If the barracks are razed in time it is probable that they will be made on that plot of ground.

INCREASED ENROLLMENT MARKS NEW SEMESTER

The new semester rang in with a large and promising enrollment of students, many of them new and many of them "veterans," returned from the army to "fall in" with the University again. Up to the present time the number is about 660, and the registrar is still busy matriculating students for the term.

In September the term opened with a larger enrollment than the University has had several years; but at the outbreak of the flu epidemic and the disbandment of the S. A. T. C. the number greatly decreased. Then the boys began to be released from the army and many returned to finish.

Among those who have come to swell our numbers so far, and who has been here before are: Eldon Dummit, Fred Jackson, Charles Planck, Raymond Connell, Dick Hagan, Lockett Robards, Mervin Eblen, A. M. Wood, O'Rear Fogg, Pat Campbell, Jerry Bromagen, Jasper McBrayer, Urey G. Ward and Raymond Rodgers, all who have served in the army and are now back again to finish their college work. Gertrude Wallingford and Thelma Wright, who registered this term, are also students who were here last year and a month last fall, until the forced "fflu" vacation.

STUDENTS' FORUM

With the gentle breezes of early spring, with the first few days of a new semester which is bound to eclipse the old, and with the beginning of the reconstruction period in the University of Kentucky, there bursts forth thru student activities a faint glimmer of that dear old never-say-die spirit which makes the Wildcat wild and causes the University of Kentucky to be respected thruout the South, and admired by every worth-while college and university in Dixieland. Right now, as is the world, our country, and our university, this spirit is in a state of new birth. It must be made to grow; but its growth must receive careful attention. It must be shaped by fair play as well as by devotion to our Alma Mater.

First, we must learn to govern our selves, our passions and our hates. To know and practice self-control is one of the most valuable assets which any one may possess. It is the duty of each of us to remember that the good name of an organization or an institution can be made and maintained, but by the individual and united effort of all of its members; that a bad name can be made for our University by the uncontrolled actions and passions of a few of its students.

We were pleased to note and take great pleasure in congratulating the student-body on that splendid spirit which was seen and heard at the Centre-Kentucky basketball game in the gymnasium last Monday evening. Each spectator present was heart and soul either for Centre or for State. But the Centre fans were few, while Kentucky rooters were numerous. On the whole, there was a spirit of fair play. We are sorry to say, however, that several persons present conducted themselves unlike gentlemen and Kentuckians.

Every one knows that students of the University are respected and esteemed both in their home towns and in Lexington. We believe that the few persons spoken of in the foregoing paragraph became offensive and personal to members of the visiting team thru excitement and desire to win; that they regretted their speech the minute they were able to think clearly. If we are mistaken in our belief we beg pardon of those gentlemen who have the remarkable courage to make offensive verbal attacks when they know positively that the other fellow is in no position to retaliate.

It is against such demonstrations that we must guard. Do the visiting team as you would have another group of college students do your team. If you play fair, fair play will be the course pursued by students of other colleges. If you evidence malice and ill will, your University will cease to enjoy the respect and good will of other colleges. College spirit does not mean rodyism. Sand bagging is out of style. A. SENIOR.

THAN RICE BACK HOME

Lieutenant Than Rice, who was a student in the University in the years '16 and '17, landed in New York last week after serving with the Expeditionary Forces. He has returned to Kentucky and is planning a visit to the University in the near future.

WELCOME TO OLD AND NEW STUDENTS

The Kernel takes great pleasure in welcoming back to the University the many old students who have registered for this semester. For some time the prospects of receiving the benefits of university training have been very dim for a number of former students, but those who have recognized the immense value to be received, have put forth every available effort to return. The wholesome ante-bellum spirit that existed here is instilled in a number of these one-time members of the institution who have returned, and it is to them that the new student will look for examples of that old spirit.

A welcome is in store for not only the "old timers," but for Freshmen also who have been foresighted enough to grasp this opportunity to enter upon their college career, not waiting until next fall. By that time these students will have gotten into touch with the spirit of the institution and will be prepared to direct the Freshmen, of he 1923 class.

THE LABORATORY THEATER

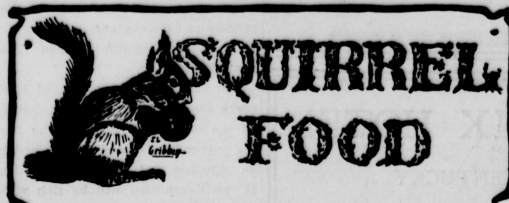

Plans are being perfected whereby a laboratory theater will be installed in the University during the session of 1919-1920. In the opinion of The Kernel this movement stands out as a step forward, emphasizing, as well, the fact that the University is determined to take its place among the first universities and colleges of the country. Numerous applications for membership in the dramatic organization of the campus, The Strollers, which have been received lately, indicate that among the student body there exists an abundance of talent that needs dramatic shaping up, which, if properly directed, should show good results.

At present the demands and the field for success on the commercial stage and in the silent drama are boundless. This demand far exceeds the supply at all times and from such courses of study in our universities a student may find the life work that he has been seeking. The introduction of the laboratory theater would stimulate such latent talent and offer an opportunity for girls to study the drama in a material way that is not now available.

For the last eight years it has been the boast of The Strollers that their organization is dependent upon itself alone for its productions, permitting only amateurs to be selected for the casts and being coached by members of the society. But this year will mark a breaking away from old customs and traditions. A professional coach is to be brought to the University to take charge of the cast for the last few weeks' work previous to placing the production before the public. This act coincides with the laboratory theater movement, showing that The Strollers is an organization always "on its toes," ready at all times to keep in touch with all progressive movements.

GIRLS' REST ROOM.

On account of the many changes which have been in progress of completion in and about the Administration Building, the girls of the University have been deprived of a rest room, being compelled to wander about in the halls of the buildings, where their next classes are to meet. The suggestion has been offered that the room occupied by The Strollers would be available and would answer the purpose most admirably until that time in the near future when the girls' rest room, which is to be fitted up, will have been completed. It would be well for a committee to be appointed by the University to confer with The Strollers to make the proper arrangements, which, no doubt, will prove satisfactory to all parties concerned.

The time is slowly but surely approaching when negotiations can no longer be opened up with a cork-screw.

The man who beats the bass drum in a band is the fellow who perhaps most truly makes his living on a sound basis.

A year or so ago it was rumored that the sunken corner of the campus at Winslow and Limestone streets was to be converted into an Italian garden, but now with the recent splendid prospects of University expansion and improvement involving the erection of fine, new buildings at that corner, our dreams of the Italian garden vanish, and we can never hope to see fountains playing in the air at that interesting spot, unless the 101 freshmen who passed in chemistry decide to celebrate that remarkable and before unheard-of event by standing on the bridge and drawing water thru their laboratory wash bottles or dropping some of "Mighty" Maxson's supply of sodium into the gently flowing stream.

CAUSE AND EFFECT

Prof. K.—(In physics class)—Give me an example of contraction and expansion caused by a change of temperature.

John F.—Well, in the winter when it is cold, the days are short, and in the summer when it is hot the days are long.

BOY, HOWDY! BUT THIS LOOKS GOOD TO "MUH"

The United States Senate adopted the conference report on the bill permitting discharged soldiers, sailors, and marines, to retain their uniforms and granting them five cents a mile traveling expenses from the place where they were discharged to their homes, and an extra bonus of $60. The House expects to take similar action within the next few days. This should be of interest to every man in the University who has been in the service.

The war is won,
Exams are over,
The "flu" is on the wane,
The darkest day
Will pass away,
And things be bright again.

Now, that first semester grades are in, if you didn't get as many "A's" as you expected, don't be discouraged, but just console yourself with the fact that anyway you had plenty of them in your early childhood education—at least one in every A B C book you possessed.

Now that exams are over and there is no need for anxious or worried looks, we are going to see how pretty those eight fair Co-eds for the 1919 Kentuckian beauty section really are.

Student's inventory for the first semester:

- Been broke, 37 times.
- Had money, 5 times.
- Been sick in the morning, 27 times.
- Went to Gym, 9 times.
- Ate at Uncle Charlie's, 214 times.
- Went to the picture shows, 187 times.
- Chemistry Laboratory beakers broken, 28.
- Lost on basketball games—$2.00, $1.50, $3.25.
- Got homesick, 5 times.
- Had dates, 43 times.
- Had the "flu", 1 time.
- Shined shoes, 12 times.
- Got in trouble, 21 times.
- Cut chapel, 15 times.
- Knew lessons, 26 times.
- Missed in classes, 17 times.
- Fell in love, 3 times.
- Fell out of love, 2 times.
- Missed Y. M. C. A., 11 times.

LAW SOCIETY HOLDS ELECTION

Herbert H. Greene, a senior, from Bruin, Ky., was elected president of the Henry Clay Law Society at the semi-annual election last Wednesday evening. The other officers elected were: Carl Denker, Paducah, vice-president; Holland B. Bryan, Paducah, secretary; Eldon S. Dummit, Monett, Mo., treasurer; Rebekah Paritz, Lexington, attorney general, and W. J. Kallbreiter, Buckner, sergeant-at-arms. Plans for the coming term were discussed, and a reporter was appointed to see that the society meetings were given publicity each week.

WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY EXERCISES IN CHAPEL

Hon. Fred G. Rector, of Columbus, Makes Main Address to Students—Commends League of Nations

Hon. Fred G. Rector, of Columbus, Ohio, made the main address at the Washington's birthday exercises held in chapel last Saturday morning. He told of the difficulties and problems that our country has to deal with today, and expressed admiration of Washington, Hamilton, Lincoln and other early moulders of America's policies. He said that they were able to look into the future with clarity and foresight. He added that he should study their writing and speeches today, specially noting their insistence on wisdom and caution in all policies of change and development. He believes that Washington's Farewell Address can be modernly interpreted, as the warnings expressed therein apply to the problems that the country is threatened with now.

Mr. Rector commended the League of Nations because it would commit us to the abandonment of the Monroe doctrine. He admitted that he is a conservative, tho he insists that he is not a pessimist for, he says, a mere change is not progress and improvement. Mr. Rector believes that the Federalist, the Constitution of the United States, and the Ten Commandments should form the basis of the education and philosophy of the statesmen and politicians of today.

The balance of the program consisted of a violin solo by Professor Lampert, assisted by Mrs. Lampert; a short memorial talk on our dead heroes by Dr. Benjamin Jay Bush and a melody of national airs by the University band. Reverend Thomas B. Roberts rendered the invocation and Reverend I. J. Spencer, the benediction.

FACULTY FACTS

Doctor Frank L. McVey, Mrs. McVey and Dean F. Paul Anderson were among the guests at the reception given last Friday by the Governor and Mrs. Stanley at the Mansion in Frankfort.

Prof. John Hurst Adams, principal of the Consolidated High School at Minerva, Mason county, and a former student in this University, visited several old friends while in Lexington last Saturday, on his way home from the meeting of the State Book Commission at Frankfort.

Mrs. Orle LeBus, of Cynthiana, was the guest of Mrs. W. T. Lafferty for the Washington's birthday celebration at the Woman's Club Saturday.

Prof. H. H. Downing was among the guests at the party given to Miss Katherine Cochran, a bride-elect, by the choir of the Central Christian church.

"DOC" RODES A SHAVETAIL

William Rodes, familiarly known as "Doc" Rodes, was mustered out of Uncle Sam's service in December and has just received his commission as second Lieutenant. Lieutenant Rodes was at Camp Kendrick, N. J., in the chemical warfare division.

CENTRE STAYS

feated Wesleyan College in an easy game.

Centre Undefeated Champion.

Centre's Colonels and bunch of fans came over in force Monday night to win from the Wildcats and incidentally cop the championship of Kentucky. They had to put out their best and most finished grade of basketball tho, for the Wildcats were fighting mad.

The gymnasium was crowded to the roof with excited rooters. The whistle blew and the two teams were at each others' throats. Centre put practically the same team on the floor that she used last year, but it was a considerably improved team. Kentucky had two old men in the lineup.

Centre got off to a good start, ending the first half by the safe margin of four points. The Wildcats are noted for the comebacks which they stage in second halves, but they fell short of anticipation Monday night, making only one point in the last twenty minutes of play.

Dishman, Lavin and Everett.

Dishman, Lavin and Everett put up the best game for the Wildcats. The first named played his usual, hard smashing game at guard. Lavin who is small compared with the bulk sent over here from Danville, was all over the floor, breaking up teamwork attempted by the Colonels and causing them no end of worry. Everett played well, showing real ability as a basketball artist.

In the last half, after Centre had the game pretty well on ice, McMillan called for a passing game, each man holding the ball as long as possible. This was done to kill time and minimize the Wildcats' chances for scoring. Lavin, Dishman and Burnham horned in, however, and broke up this mode of playing each time it was tried.

Bell Makes Seven Goals.

Bell was easily the star for the Colonels. He shot seven field goals and was directly responsible for defeating the Wildcats. Bo McMillan, the Texas terror, imported to put Centre on the map in athletics, was blocked in all paths to glory. He played a hard game, but the Wildcats had his goat. Walden, at guard, hindered Kentucky considerably.

The line-up and summary for the Cincinnati game follows:

University of Kentucky	University of Cincinnati
Thomas (1).....F.....	Goldman (1)
Lavin (5).....F.....	Seltz
Everett (5).....C.....	Isserman (7)
Dishman (2).....G.....	Cantor
Burnham (2).....G.....	Watkins

Fouls thrown—Thomas of State 4, missed 1, Lavin, missed 1, Goldman of Cincinnati 2, missed 4.

State made no substitutions; for the University of Cincinnati, Haelen went in for Watkins in the first half and threw one field goal and Geis went in for Seltz in the second half.

Robertson, coach of athletics at Georgetown College, refereed the game.

ANNUAL MILITARY BALL IS SPECTACULAR EVENT

Interest Added This Year by Attendance of Discharged Soldiers and Marines in Service Uniforms

The annual Military Ball was given last Friday evening by the battalion of cadets. The ball is always one of the important University social affairs. Interest was added to it this year because of the attendance of many former students in uniforms which they wore in the service.

The armory was decorated in patriotic streamers and flags, with a big shield covering the double doors on the south side of the building. A Negro jazz orchestra furnished the music. The officers of the cadet corps received the guests. The chaperons were President McVey and Mrs. McVey, Captain Royden and Mrs. Royden, Dean Lafferty and Mrs. Lafferty, Dean Melcher and Mrs. Melcher, Professor A. C. Zembrod and Mrs. Zembrod, Judge Lyman Chalkley and Mrs. Chalkley, Miss Dora Berkeley, Miss Frances Jewell, Major Henry F. Rhoads and Major Benjamin F. Van Meter and Mrs. Van Meter.

The committees which arranged the details were:

Music—H. H. Greene, Grover Creech, and R. D. Warth.

Programs—E. S. Dabney, R. A. Belt, and J. J. Leman.

Decorations—F. L. deMay, W. C. Piper and Mose Smith.

Supper—McClain, David and Drummy.

Floor—Creech, Dabney and Piper.

A light lunch was served during intermission. The programs were white booklets with an embossed flag on the cover and tied with a silk cord. On the inner pages were, the program, the lists of chaperons, officers and committees.

REVILL COMMISSIONED

Milton Revill, the leading man in last year's Stroller play, and a member of S. A. E. fraternity, has been commissioned an ensign in the United States Navy. Revill received his preliminary training at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station. He has been in the service for eight months.

The line-up and summary for the Centre game follows:

U. of K.	Centre
Thomas.....F.....	(1) McMillan
Lavin.....F.....	Davis
Everett (2).....C.....	Roberts
Dishman.....G.....	(7) Bell
Burnham (1).....G.....	Walden

Fouls: Davis, of Centre, 5; missed, 3; Thomas, of State, 3; missed 1; Lavin, 1.

Substitutions: Zerfoss for Thomas, in second half; Diddle for Davis, in second half.

Lieutenant Hansen, of Transylvania, refereed the first half, with Robertson as umpire; Robertson refereed the second half, with Hansen as umpire.

Score at end of first half, 13-9.

HIGH SCHOOLS TO HOLD TOURNAMENT

Basketball Championship of State Will Be Decided in University of Kentucky Gym

Strongest High Schools in the State will participate in the Second Annual Kentucky High School Basketball Tournament to be held in the University of Kentucky Gymnasium on Friday and Saturday, March 14 and 15. The High School basketball championship of the State will be decided by this tournament.

In the spring of 1918 the tournament was held at Centre College, Danville. It was successful from every viewpoint. For 1919 the University of Kentucky has been selected by the executive committee of the K. H. S. A. A. as the place to hold the tournament.

Somerset, Lexington, Owensboro, Covington, Ashland, Paris, Georgetown, Louisville and other High Schools have indicated their intention of participating in the tournament. All High Schools in the State are cordially invited to take part.

A splendid trophy, donated by the University of Kentucky will be given to the winning team. Entertainment for the visiting squads will be furnished by this University. The squads are to consist of not more than nine men including the coach.

Any High School which wishes to enter but which has not yet indicated such intention officially, should notify S. A. Boles, Athletic Director, University of Kentucky, at once. Entrance blanks may be got from either Professor Boles or Professor M. E. Ligon, of Lexington.

SECOND U.K. GRADUATE ATTAINS PROMINENCE

A system of training grape vines which is recognized by vineyard experts in all the grape-growing regions of the new and old world, is the invention of the second graduate of the University of Kentucky, Thomas Volney Munson. He was graduated in 1870 and his name is connected with the system which is now used in the great vineyards. The system is described as follows: Two posts used in the great vineyards.

The new system is described as follows: Two posts should be firmly placed in the ground about eighteen feet apart. At the top of each post fasten a two-foot piece of two by four inch studding. Two wires should be attached to the ends of the studding, and a third wire midway between them about eight to ten inches lower attached directly to the posts. One trunk is allowed to come up to the bottom wire and the canes are left to run each way along it. If the vine is a vigorous one several canes may be safely left. From the buds on the canes growing shoots will be given off. As they increase in length very rapidly it will only take a few days for them to attain sufficient length to be hung over the top wires.

COUNCIL OF DEFENSE WILL SOLVE PROBLEMS

Post-War Matters Will be Discussed by Conferees;
Program is Elaborate

TO BE HELD MARCH 4

The State Conference on Kentucky Problems called by the Kentucky Council of Defense will be held at the University of Kentucky March 4 and 5. Edward W. Hines, chairman of the Kentucky Council of Defense, and Dr. Frank L. McVey, president of the University, are sponsors for the conference. It will be held in the Assembly Hall, Administration building of the University.

This conference is called by the Kentucky Council of Defense to consider various matters arising out of the war and Kentucky's relation to them. No program can include all phases of the many problems confronting any commonwealth. Some of them have been selected for discussion and arranged for presentation by able speakers, such as Edward D. Hines, Dr. McVey, Arthur W. Macmahon, Asst. Chief of Federal Agencies Section, of the National Council of Defense, Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, chairman of the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission, Hon. Henry J. Allen, Governor of Kansas and Hon. A. O. Stanley, Governor of Kentucky.

It is expected that those who were associated with the Council of Defense as well as those connected with any phase of war work will attend. In addition there should be many others who would be interested in the program. The conference is open to all people interested in the developments of the native State and to all these a welcome is extended and an urgent invitation given to be present.

Following is the program arranged by Dr. Edward W. Hines, and President Frank L. McVey.

'WATT' YARBROUGH'S FATE IS NOT KNOWN

Lexington friends and relatives of First Lieutenant Walter (Watt) Yarbrough, former star quarterback of the Transylvania College football squad, recently received a letter stating that he probably died in the discharge of a hazardous mission in France about November 9.

The letter was written by Captain Neville C. Fisher, of the 355th Infantry, with which Yarbrough was on duty, to his mother who lives at Nashville, Tenn.

Captain Fisher said that a courageous officer was needed to swim the Meuse river and, with a patrol of fifteen men, to take a position. Lieutenant Yarbrough was selected because of his courage and physical endurance. The party of brave volunteers was fired upon when nearly to the further bank of the stream, and a safe landing was nearly impossible. Two men are believed to have been drowned, and one is believed to have been taken prisoner. At any rate six of the party did not return after the hazardous attempt.

Lieutenant Yarbrough, probably one of the American heroes who died for his country, had been recommended for a distinguished service cross.

ENGINEERING

The last meeting of the Sophomore Engineering Society was a most enjoyable one. Dr. Funkhouser, of the Department of Zoology, made a very interesting talk about a trip which he took as a member of an exploring party from Cornell University. The trip was into a wild and unpassable swamp of Southern Georgia and Northern Florida. Dr. Funkhouser's experiences were both interesting and unusual.

Lieut. G. W. Worwick, of the class of '16, recently called at Dean Anderson's office. He has been connected with the Coast Artillery overseas. Lieut. Warwick expects to obtain a position with the Armstrong Cook & Insulation Co., of Pittsburg, Pa.

Lieut. H. M. Henry, a 1918 graduate, has recently returned from France.

A. M. Wood, having been discharged from the Naval Aviation, has resumed his studies in the Engineering Department.

Another graduate of last year, Mr. Nickloff, visited the Engineering Department last week. He has been at Camp Kearney, Cal., but in the future, expects to be with the Chas. Hartman Company, Brooklyn, N. Y.

J. F. BRUNER RETURNS

J. F. Bruner, of the Class of 1911, a graduate of the Arts and Science Department, has entered the Agricultural Division of the Extension Work of the University as provided by the Smith-Hughes bill. When the required work is completed he intends to return to the Hartford High School, where he has been engaged to further the work as arranged by the Smith-Hughes bill. Mr. Bruner express delight at the opportunity afforded the college men of Kentucky to continue their training, and said it is a great pleasure to be able to resume his work at his alma mater.

SIGNAL CORPS IS COMING HOME SOON

The "old Signal Corps" made up of Lexington and University of Kentucky men who were recruited at the outbreak of the recent trouble with Mexico, will start home soon, according to a letter received in Lexington during the last week.

When the letter was written the signal corps was billeted about five miles from Bordeaux, where the regiment to which it is attached has been since arriving overseas.

The signal corps saw active service on the Mexican border and after intensive training in this country was sent to France in October, 1918. The members of the corps include students from the University of Kentucky, whose homes are in other states, but who were matriculating at the University when the organization was sent to the border, among these being Lieutenant Robert Clayton, of Indiana, who is now in Germany with the army of occupation.

For several weeks after returning from the border the signal corps was stationed at Camp Stanley, and on receiving orders for overseas duty was transferred to a training camp near New York, from where it embarked on October 5, 1918, disembarking at Bordeaux two weeks later.

CONCERT OF INTEREST TO BE GIVEN TUESDAY

A musical event of interest in Lexington next week is the concert to be given by Albert Haberstro, basso cantante, and Lewis Thomas, pianist, in the Phoenix Hotel ball room Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The concert was to have been given in the musical series announced early in the fall which was postponed because of the epidemic, however, this is the first presentation of the two local artists in concert. They gave a recital shortly after coming to Lexington in September. The seat sale will be on at Fayette Drug store, Monday and Tuesday, March 3 and 4.

Mr. Haberstro is a composer of note and will give one of his own compositions Tuesday night. Both Mr. Haberstro and Mr. Thomas have devoted their time since coming to Lexington to teaching and their success has been marked. Students of music especially will hear of the concert with interest.

The Program.

MISS JEAN WOLL LEAVES UNIVERSITY

Miss Jean Woll, vice-president of the Sophomore class, is leaving the University this semester. In losing Miss Woll, we are not only losing one of our most popular co-eds, but an active and splendid student.

Miss Woll was chairman of the poster committee of the Y. W. C. A. and the posters submitted have contributed largely to the enthusiasm and success with which the Y. W. C. A. meetings have met this year.

Miss Woll was in the Arts and Science College. The greater part of her work has been done in the Department of Art and Designing, and her artistic contributions for the 1919 Kentuckian, are reported to be the best we have had for some years.

KATHERINE WEAKLEY LEAVES UNIVERSITY.

Katherine Weakley, who for the past year has handled "Squirrel Food" for the Kernel, has been forced to leave the University on account of ill health. Her work has been capably done and a worthy successor will be hard to find.

UNIVERSITY GIRLS STAGE VAUDEVILLE

A vaudeville given by University of Kentucky girls was the feature of "Every Girls' Night," at the City Y. W. C. A.

The numbers of the program were introduced by Louise Will. The program included a violin solo by Katherine Denton, a vocal solo, given by Miriam Kincheloe, a reading by Henrietta Bedford and Anna Nelson, a classic dance by Elizabeth Marshal and a bright skit called the "Blue Ridge Blues," written by Louise Will and Elizabeth McGowan and acted by Elizabeth McGowan, Ruth Duckwall, Margaret Woll, Louise Will, Margaret Harbison, Margaret Ford, Elizabeth Gard, Miriam Kincheloe, Hallie K. Purdue "Sophs" Adopt Class Coat (Purdue Exponent)

At the Sophomore class meeting recently, it was decided to adopt a distinctive class coat. As planned, the coat will be blue with white trimmings and will be cut on the ultra-fashionable "sport" lines. The cost and ordering of the coats, as well as the procuring of the samples will be in charge of a committee.

Co-eds Complain.

(Purple and White, Millsaps College.) Owing to the recent addition of unwanted creatures in our midst, and owing to the fact that those in authority have not taken steps leading to the removal of these undesired members, we, the undersigned, do hereby state our desires in the matter to those able to act. We want some mouse traps to be used in Professor Lin's and Dr. Kern's recitation rooms and the halls. (Signed) THE CO-EDS.

Resembling Whitman (The Round-Up, New Mexico State College.)

She—You remind me of one of Whitman's poems.

He—Which one?

She—Oh, any one. The feet are mixed in all of them.

With Apologies to Omar. (The Occidental; Occident College, Los Angeles.)

The stern Prof.'s pencil writes, and having writ

Moves on, nor all your stalling nor your wit

Can lure it back to change a single mark,

Nor "make ups" help your grade along a bit.
