HISTORY

The General Society of Colonial Wars was organized on May 9th and 10th, 1893, in the Governor's Room, City Hall, New York, by delegates from five states and the District of Columbia. A Constitution was adopted on May 10, 1893, subject to the approval of a majority of the delegates present at an adjourned meeting of the General Assembly, and the General Officers were then elected. An adjourned meeting of the General Assembly was held at the Hotel New Netherlands, New York, on December 19, 1893, and the Constitution unanimously adopted. The final session of the First General Assembly was held in the Congress Hall, Philadelphia, May 7 and 8, 1896. Since this time the General Assembly has met regularly every three years. The meeting in 1908 was held at the Seelbach Hotel in Louisville, the General Society being the guest of the Kentucky Society.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the Commonwealth of Kentucky was chartered by the General Society on December 19, 1895, the charter members being Dr. Thomas Page Grant, Captain Alexander Macomb Wetherill, Mr. David May Jones, Mr. William Lafon Halsey, Colonel Benjamin LaBree, Mr. John Franklin Lewis, Mr. Charles Julian Clarke Grant, Mr. Cary Harrison Bacon and Dr. Charles Henry Todd. On December 23, 1895, the members met at the residence of Dr. Thomas Page Grant, the first Governor, formed an organization, adopted a Constitution, and elected part of the officers, and, after a social session, adjourned to hold a General Court on January 8, 1896. The time for holding the annual General Court was fixed for May 13, the anniversary of the settlement of Jamestown, Virginia. At this final session of the first General Court the remainder of the officers were elected.

The date of the Annual General Court has since been changed and the Society now meets on December 19 of each year, the anniversary of the Great Swamp Fight. In the event of the day falling on Sunday, the General Court meets on the Tuesday following.

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I.

NAME OF THE SOCIETY.

This Society shall be known by the name of the "Society of Colonial Wars in the Commonwealth of Kentucky." It recognizes the authority of the "General Society of Colonial Wars," and all its proceedings shall be subject to the Constitution of said general Society.

ARTICLE II.

OBJECTS OF THE SOCIETY.

The Society of the Colonial Wars is instituted to perpetuate the memory of the events of American Colonial history, and of the men who, in military and naval service, and in civil positions of trust and responsibility, by their acts or counsel, assisted in the establishment, defense, and preservation of the American Colonies, and were in truth the founders of the Nation. To this end it seeks to collect and preserve manuscripts, rolls, relics, and records; to provide suitable commemorations or memorials of events in Colonial history, and to inspire in its members the fraternal and patriotic spirit of their forefathers, and in the community respect and reverence for those whose public services made our freedom and unity possible.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERSHIP.

Any man above the age of twenty-one years, of good moral character and reputation in the community, shall be eligible to membership in this Society, provided that he is lineally descended in either male or female line from an ancestor

(1) Who served as military or naval officer, or as a soldier, sailor or marine, or as a privateersman under authority of the Colonies which afterward formed the United States; or in the forces of Great Britain which participated with those of the said colonies in any wars in which the said Colonies were engaged, or in which they enrolled men, from the settlement of Jamestown, May 13, 1607, to the battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775; or

(2) Who held office in any of the Colonies between the dates mentioned, either as

(a) Director General, Vice Director General, or member of the Council, or legislative body in the Colony of New Netherlands;

(b) Governor, Lieutenant or Deputy Governor, Lord Proprietor, member of the King's or Governor's Council, or legislative body in the Colonies of New York, New Jersey, Virginia, Pennsylvania and Delaware;

(c) Lord Proprietor, Governor, Deputy Governor, or member of the Council, or of the legislative body in Maryland and the Carolinas;

(d) Governor, Deputy Governor, Governor's Assistant, or Commissioner to the United Colonies of New England, or member of the Council, body of assistants or legislative body in any of the New England Colonies;

Provided, that descent from Deputies to the General Assembly who performed no military service, shall not be available for entrance into this Society, but may be used for supplementary proof of honorable descent.

Inheritance of membership from a deceased member shall be by primogeniture, but shall not be permitted unless the Council be satisfied that the heir is personally acceptable in regard to character and reputation.

ARTICLE IV.

OFFICERS, GENTLEMEN OF THE COUNCIL AND COMMITTEES.

§ 1. The officers of the Society shall be a Governor, a Deputy Governor, a Lieutenant Governor, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Registrar, an Historian, a Chaplain and a Surgeon. All of whom shall be elected annually at the General Court, and they shall be ex-officio members of the Council.

§ 2. There shall be nine gentlemen of the Council, who shall serve for three years each. They shall be divided into three classes of three each. The terms of one class of three shall expire at each General Court.

§ 3. The officers above named, with the nine gentlemen of the Council of this Society, shall have the direction, control and management of the funds, property, estate and business of the Society, and shall fill any vacancies that may occur in any of its offices until the next General Court of the Society.

§ 4. There shall be elected at each General Court of the Society, to serve for one year, or until their successors shall be elected, a Committee on Membership, to consist of five members of the Society; and a Committee on the Collection of Historical Records and Documents, which shall consist of five members of the Society.

§ 5. The officers above named, together with three gentlemen of the Council (to serve for three years) and the members of the standing Committees, shall be elected at the General Court by ballot. A plurality vote shall elect, and the said officers, gentlemen of the Council and members of Committees shall hold their several positions for the terms prescribed in this Constitution, or until their successors shall have been elected.

ARTICLE V.

DELEGATES TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

At the General Court held in 1904, and every three years thereafter, there shall be elected in the same manner as the officers are elected, five delegates to the General Assembly, and five alternates to the same, who shall hold their offices for three years, or until their successors shall be elected. Any vacancies in their number shall be filled as directed for other officers.

ARTICLE VI.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

§ 1. Membership is by invitation only. An invitation shall be given only by the Council, who shall vote on each name by ballot, one adverse vote in five to cause rejection of the candidate. Gentlemen accepting the invitation will file preliminary applications, stating the name, residence and services of the Colonial ancestors from whom their eligibility is derived. Formal application papers must be subscribed by the applicant and approved by two members of the Society over their signatures. Applications shall be accompanied by proof of the eligibility and such applications and proof shall be referred to the Committee on Membership, who shall carefully investigate the same and report at the next meeting of the Council their recommendation thereon. Members shall be elected by vote at a Council of the Society duly called, but a negative vote of one in five of the ballots cast shall cause the rejection of any candidate. Payment of the initiation fee and dues, and subscription to the declaration contained in the Constitution of the Society shall be a prerequisite of membership.

§ 2. Every member shall declare upon honor that he will use his best efforts to promote the purposes of the Society, and will observe the Constitution and By-Laws of the same; and shall sign a declaration that he will support the Constitution of the United States.

ARTICLE VII.

ARTICLE X.

ALTERATIONS AND AMENDMENTS.

Alterations or amendments of this Constitution, signed by no less than five members proposing the same, may be presented at any meeting of the Society; said amendments, with the proposer's names, shall be printed by the Secretary and sent to every member of the Society but shall not be voted upon except at a General Court, held not less than one month after the proposed amendments shall have been printed and distributed. No amendments shall be made unless adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members present at the Court voting upon the same.

The Secretary shall send to each member of the Society a second notice of the proposed amendment not less than five days before the Court at which the said admendments are to be considered.

BY-LAWS

SECTION 1.

FEEES AND DUES.

1. The initiation fee shall be ten dollars; the annual dues, five dollars, payable on or before the first day of January of each year; provided that any member elected and paying annual dues during the last three months of the year shall not be required to pay the annual dues for the year next ensuing. The payment at one time of fifty dollars shall constitute life membership, such payment being in lieu of initiation fees and all annual dues. Whenever the number of life members shall reach one hundred, the fee for life membership shall thereafter be one hundred dollars.

2. For the registration of additional lines of descent, after the first two lines, there shall be an additional charge of one dollar for each line registered.

3. The Council shall have the power to drop from the roll the name of any member of the Society who shall be at least two years in arrears and shall fail on proper notice to pay the same within sixty days, and on being dropped his membership shall cease, but he may be restored to membership at any time by the Council upon his written application and the payment of all such arrears.

SECTION II.

A member may, on his written request, be given a letter of demit to another State Society, or he may resign from the Society; but no resignation of any member shall become effective unless consented to by the Council. The Registrar shall attach the written request of the member to his application papers for preservation, and shall notify the Registrar General of the action taken by the member.

SECTION III.

DISQUALIFICATION AND EXPULSION.

No person who may be enrolled as a member of this Society shall be permitted to continue in membership when his proofs of descent or eligibility shall be found to be defective. The Council, after thirty days' notice to such a person to substantiate his claim, and upon his failure to satisfactorily so to do, may require the Secretary to erase his name from the membership list. The said person shall have a right to appeal to the Society at its next Court or at the General Court. If the said appeal be sustained by a two-thirds vote of the members present at such Court, the said person's name shall be restored to said membership list.

Any member, for conduct inconsistent with the character of a gentleman and man of honor, or for serious disloyalty to the Society, or for other grave cause, may be suspended or expelled from the Society. But no member shall be suspended or expelled unless written charges are presented against him. The Council, after hearing such charges and giving him an opportunity for reply to them, may act by a two-thirds vote, and its action shall be final.

SECTION IV.

VACANCIES AND TERMS OF OFFICE.

Whenever an officer of this Society shall die, resign, or neglect to serve, or be suspended, or be unable to perform his duties by reason of absence, sickness, or other cause, and whenever an office shall be vacant which the Society shall not have filled by an election, the Council, being summoned at one month's notice, shall have power to appoint a member to such office pro tempore, who shall act in such capacity until the Society shall elect a member to the vacant office, or until the inability due to said cause shall cease; provided, however, that the office of Governor shall not be filled by the Council when there shall be a Deputy or Lieutenant Governor to enter on these duties. The Council may supply vacancies among its members under the same conditions, and should any member other than an officer be absent from three consecutive meetings of the same, without sufficient excuse, his place may be declared vacant by the Council, and filled by appointment until the election of a successor. Subject to these provisions, all officers and gentlemen of the Council shall, from the time of election, continue in their respective offices until the next General Court, or until their successors are chosen.

SECTION V.

GOVERNOR.

The Governor, or, in his absence, the Deputy Governor or Lieutenant Governor, or Chairman pro tem., shall preside at all Courts of the Society, and shall exercise the duties of a presiding officer, under parliamentary rules, subject to an appeal to the Society. The Governor shall be a member ex-officio of all Committees. He shall have the power to convene the Council or the Society at his discretion and must do so upon the written request of five members of the Society, or upon like request of three members of the Council.

SECTION VI.

SECRETARY.

The Secretary shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society, and keep a record thereof. He shall promptly notify all persons elected to membership in the Society, and shall perform such other duties as the Society or his office may require. He shall have charge of the seal, certificate of incorporation, Constitution, By-Laws, historical and other documents and records of the Society other than those required to be deposited with the Registrar, and shall affix the seal to all properly-authenticated certificates of membership, and transmit the same to the members to whom they may be issued. He shall notify the Registrar of all admissions to membership. He shall certify all acts of the Society, and, when required, authenticate them under seal. He shall have charge of the printing and of publications issued by the Society. He shall give due notice of the time and place of the holding of all Courts of the Society and meetings of the Council. He must call a meeting of the Council on the written request of three members thereof, and of the Society on like request of five members of the same.

He shall keep fair and accurate records of all the proceedings and orders of the Society and of the Council, and shall give notice to each officer or member, who may be affected by them, of all votes, resolutions and proceedings of the Society or Council. And at the General Court, or oftener, shall report the names of those candidates who have been admitted to membership, and shall read the names of those members whose resignations have been accepted or who have been expelled for cause or for failure to substantiate claim of descent. In his absence from any meeting, a Secretary pro tem. may be designated therefor.

The Secretary may be paid a salary at the discretion of the Council. The Secretary shall be exempt from dues during his term of office.

SECTION VII.

TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society. They shall be deposited in some bank in the city of residence of the Treasurer, to the credit of the "Society of Colonial Wars in the Commonwealth of Kentucky," and such funds shall be drawn thence on the check of the Treasurer for the purposes of the Society only. Out of these funds he shall pay such sums only as may be ordered by the Society or the Council, or his office may require. He shall keep a true account of his receipts and payments, and at each annual meeting render the same to the Society.

For the faithful performance of his duty, he may be required to give such security as the Society shall deem proper.

SECTION VIII.

REGISTRAR.

The Registrar shall receive and file all the proofs upon which membership or supplemental ancestral record has been granted, with a list of all diplomas countersigned by him, and all documents which the Society may obtain; and he, under direction of the Council, shall make copies of such papers as the owners may not be willing to leave in the keeping of the Society.

SECTION IX.

HISTORIAN.

The Historian shall keep a detailed record of all historical and commemorative celebrations of the Society, and, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall edit and prepare for publication such historical addresses, papers and other documents as the Council may see fit to publish. He shall also prepare a necrological list for each year, with biographies of deceased members, which he may be called upon to read at meetings of the Society.

SECTION X.

CHAPLAIN.

The Chaplain shall be an ordained minister of a Christian church, and it shall be his duty to officiate when called upon by the proper officers.

SECTION XI.

1. The General Courts of the Society shall be held on the 19th day of December, at such time and place as may be agreed on by the Council. In the event of that day falling on Sunday, then the General Court shall be held on the Tuesday following.

2. Special Courts may be called by the Governor at such times as in his opinion the interests of the Society may demand, and must be called by the Secretary at the request of five members; all notices of meetings shall be sent out at least five days before the date of meeting.

3. Five members of the Society shall constitute a quorum at any Court, provided every member shall have been legally notified; and when a quorum is once present at any Court, it can not be broken by the withdrawal of any member or members.

SECTION XII.

The Council shall consist of the Governor and the other officers of the Society, together with the gentlemen of the Council. It shall meet as often as required or at the call of the Governor, or at the call of the Secretary, at the written request of three of its members. Five members shall be a quorum for the transaction of business, and when a quorum is present at the opening of a meeting, it shall not be broken by the withdrawal of any member or members. It shall perform the duties prescribed by the Constitution of the Society and these By-Laws, shall have general control and management of the affairs and funds of the Society, shall cause a report of proceedings to be made annually to the Society, and may appoint Committees on the Society's affairs, not otherwise provided for, composed wholly or in part of members of the Society outside of its own number. The Council may for cause suspend any officer, and its action must be reported to the Society for approval or the reverse within thirty days.

SECTION XIII.COMMITTEE ON MEMBERSHIP.

1. The Committee on Membership shall consist of five members chosen by ballot at the General Court of the Society. Three members shall constitute a quorum and a negative vote shall cause an adverse report to the Council on the candidate's application. The proceedings of the Committee shall be secret and confidential. Any member of this Committee failing to attend three successive meetings, without sufficient excuse, shall be dropped from the Committee, and someone else may be appointed by the Council to serve for the rest of his term.

2. The Committee shall have power to make By-Laws for its government, and for other purposes not inconsistent with the Constitution or By-Laws of the Society.

SECTION XIV.ADDRESSES OF MEMBERS.

It shall be the duty of every member to inform the Secretary by written communication of his place of residence, and of any change thereof, and of his postoffice address. Service of any notice under the Constitution or By-Laws on any member, addressed to his last residence or postoffice address, forwarded by mail, shall be sufficient service of notice.

SECTION XV.

ALTERATION OR AMENDMENT.

No alteration or amendment of the By-laws shall be made unless notice shall have been duly given, in writing, signed by the member proposing the same, at a Court of the Society.

The Secretary shall send a printed copy of the proposed amendment to the members of the Society, and state the Court at which the same will be voted upon. No amendment or alteration shall be made unless adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members present at the Court voting upon the same.

PART II.

A Calendar of the Warrants for Land in Kentucky, Granted for Service in the French and Indian War.

Abstracted by the late
PHILIP FALL TAYLOR,
State Archivist of Kentucky.

THE FIRST MILITARY SURVEYS IN KENTUCKY.

It is stated by Collins, and other historians, that the first surveys made in what is now Kentucky were made by a party under Capt. Thomas Bullitt, at the mouth of Beargrass Creek, in July, 1773, who was immediately followed by other Deputy Surveyors working under Col. William Preston, Surveyor of Fincastle County, Virginia.

At that time Fincastle County comprised all of what is now the State of Kentucky with the exception of the eight counties lying west of the Tennessee River, embracing what was later the "Jackson Purchase," bought from the Indians in 1818.

The name of Fincastle County was retained until December 31, 1776, when Kentucky County was formed from a part of Fincastle.

November 1, 1780, Kentucky County was divided into three counties: Fayette included "all that territory beginning at the mouth of the Kentucky River, and extending up its middle fork to the head, and embracing the northern and eastern portion of the present State."

Jefferson then embraced "that part of the south side of Kentucky River which lies west and north of a line beginning at the mouth of Benson's big creek, and running up the same and its main fork to the head; thence south to the nearest waters of Hammond's Creek, and down the same to its junction with the Town Fork of Salt River; thence south to Green River and down the same to its junction with the Ohio."

Lincoln County included the rest of the State south of the middle fork of the Kentucky and east of the Jefferson line.

It is a curious fact, that as the junction of the three first counties was at a point in the channel of the Kentucky River opposite the mouth of Benson Creek, the present city of Frankfort embraces land which was originally a part of the three counties, and that the magnificent new Capitol, after so many years of the "Capitol removal question," is now in what was at one time Lincoln County.

January 1, 1785, that part of Jefferson County south of Salt River was cut off and called Nelson County; January 1, 1786, Bourbon was formed from Fayette; August 1, 1786, Madison and Mercer from Lincoln; and May 1, 1789, Mason and Woodford were cut out of Fayette, thus completing the list of nine counties into which Virginia divided the original Kentucky County.

Colonel William Preston was the first Surveyor of Fincastle, and his Deputies, who made the earliest surveys found in the State archives, were James Douglas, John Floyd, Isaac Hite and Hancock Taylor, who were very active in locating land in Jefferson and Fayette Counties in 1774, 1775 and 1776.

Both Taylor and Floyd were killed by Indians; Taylor in July, 1774, and Floyd on April 12, 1783; Douglas and Hite seemed to have escaped the savages and lived much longer than their two comrades.

Hancock Taylor made his will on July 29, 1774, and this was the first legal document, excepting surveys, executed in Kentucky. The original was probated in Orange County, Virginia, and is in the office of the Circuit Clerk of that county. Some years since a relative had a photograph made of the will, and this copy is now in the Kentucky State Historical Society rooms.

Dr. H. R. McIlvaine, Librarian of the State of Virginia, states that about the time Kentucky entered the Union as a sovereign State, June 1, 1792, that "Virginia passed a law giving to Kentucky all the original papers—plats and applicant's descriptions—affecting land in Kentucky, and, so far as the land books are concerned, there are copies in Frankfort of the parts of them concerning Kentucky lands, and only in Frankfort are to be found the original papers, these having been given by Virginia to Kentucky."

The surveys, which were sent by Virginia to Kentucky, are all contained in one cabinet, of ninety metal file cases, containing about sixteen thousand plats and surveys. These papers were evidently boxed up and badly mixed in the shipping, and when received, were indexed just as they were, without being sorted in any manner before indexing; then indexed only in the name of the person for whom the survey was made, disregarding the name of the person to whom the original warrant was issued.

The large majority of surveys were made on Land Office Treasury Warrants, on Pre-emption Warrants and on Settlement Warrants, and while it is known that surveys were made in 1773, none have been found bearing date earlier than March 14, 1774, nor later than May 28, 1789, though these may still be found.

The paper used was generally of very good quality, though many plats are on a slip not over three by eight inches, due to the scarcity of paper; and many of the sheets bear very interesting "water-marks."

Where a sheet of paper as large as our present letter size was used, it has been folded into very small size and so badly creased that many plats are falling to pieces from handling. Unless these papers are opened up and a "flat-filing" system installed, they will, in a very few years, be ruined beyond redemption.

As a general thing, the ink used is still very well preserved, though a few of the surveyors seemed to have used "home-made ink," which is now very pale.

Aside from the value of the surveys, in themselves, there is found a magnificent set of autographs of the old surveyors, of Virginia officials and of men who became famous as officers in the Revolutionary War. Also there are a few copies of wills, deeds, marriage certificates, assignments and affidavits, all of interest to the genealogist and historian.

Altogether it is surprising that such a store of data should so long have been overlooked by the investigators of Kentucky history; but it is a fact that very few people even know of these papers, and those who know have been unable to profit thereby because of the system used in indexing.

FRANKFORT, KY., MAY 20, 1916.

I hereby certify that the Calendar of Surveys made for the Officers and Soldiers of the French and Indian War is a complete and correct list of all such surveys found in the Kentucky Land Office.
